The Prefiguration Poems:

The Prefiguration; Poems Frank Samperi, 1971-01-01 The Wit of Seventeenth-century Poetry Claude J. Summers, Ted-Larry Pebworth, 1995 As the twelve original essays collected in this volume demonstrate to study the wit of seventeenth century poetry is necessarily to address concerns at the very heart of the period's shifting literary culture. It is a topic that raises persistent questions of thematics and authorial intent even as it interrogates a wide spectrum of cultural practices. These essays by some of the most renowned scholars in seventeenth century studies illuminate important authors and engage issues of politics and religion of secular and sacred love of literary theory and poetic technique of gender relations and historical consciousness of literary history and social change as well as larger concerns of literary production and smaller ones of local effects. Collectively they illustrate the vitality of the topic both in its own right and as a means of understanding the complexity and range of seventeenth century English poetry. Selections from the Poems of Paulinus of Nola, including the Correspondence with Ausonius Alex Dressler, 2023-03-24 This volume offers a broad introduction to one of the most exciting chapters of Late Antiquity through direct testimony from one of the last representatives of Roman Antiquity Ausonius of Bordeaux and his radical Christian protégé the populist bishop and experimental poet Paulinus of Nola. The first comprehensive volume in English dedicated to these works in over a century this book also offers representative selections from Paulinus' vast poetic output from the publicly performed poems that mark his contribution to the emerging cult of the saints to his experimental Christianization of a wide range of Classical genres. Preceded by a substantial introduction discussing the modern significance of these works and their original contexts the translation is accompanied by running notes for ease of reference and an interpretive commentary rich with illustrative parallels. Taken together the correspondence with Ausonius and the selections from Paulinus epitomize the personal political and spiritual conflicts of their age offering a lively and concentrated introduction to the life and thought of these two underappreciated contemporaries of Jerome and Augustine. Accompanied by new and provocative interpretations with detailed but concise historical and biographical guidance this accessible and stylish translation will appeal to scholars and students of Classics Late Antiquity religious studies social history and world literature. The Cambridge Introduction to Spanish Poetry D. Gareth Walters, 2002-11-28 The Cambridge Introduction to Spanish Poetry comprises an extended survey of poetry written in Spanish from the Middle Ages to the present day including both Iberian and Latin American writing. This volume offers a non-chronological approach to the subject in order to highlight the continuity and persistence of genres and forms epic ballad sonnet and of themes and motifs love religious and moral poetry satirical and pure poetry. It also supplies a thorough examination of the various interactions between author text and reader. Containing abundant quotation it gives a refreshing introduction to an impressive and varied body of poetry from two continents and is an accessible and wide-ranging reference work designed specifically for use on undergraduate and taught graduate courses. The most comprehensive work of its kind.

Italian Futurism and the Poetry of Materiality Dalila Colucci, 2024-06-17 This monograph offers the first ever full length analysis of the most irreverent book of Italian Futurism L'anguria lirica printed in 1934 on tin metal sheets with design and poetic text by Tullio d'Albisola and illustrations by Bruno Munari This study which features the unabridged reproduction of the pages of the tin book accompanied by the first English translation of the poem aims to disentangle the complex relationship between text and image in this total artwork It shows how the endless series of material transformations at its core of woman into food of love into desecrating religion of man into machine of poetry into matter fostered a radical change in poetry writing thus breaking away from a stagnant lyrical past

Old English Poetry in Medieval Christian Perspective Judith N. Garde, 1991 Dr Garde questions modern interpretations of the nature and purpose of Old English religious poetry In this doctrinal appraisal Dr Garde contends that English religious poetry in the early medieval age of faith was intended to convey conventional Christian teaching to unlearned audiences In this reading Old English religious verse is dominated by the Christus Victor tradition the exegetical perceptions often assumed in modern criticism are not justified The tradition of Christ's triumphant Descent into hell regarded as apocryphal by many critics is discussed in the context of the Resurrection and Christian expectations of eternal life in the Advent lyrics the Descent poems Christ II and Phoenix The Dream of the Rood Elene and Christ III are seen as describing Christ's Incarnation death Descent Resurrection and Ascension the Pentecostal phenomenon and the Church in the world Expectations of judgment the future resurrection of flesh and the prospect of eternal bliss for righteous Christians complete the credal sequence The author suggests that unstated wholly familiar perceptions of salvation in Christ underlie all Old English religious verse and that interpreters ignore these traditions at their peril JUDITH GARDE's published work includes contributions to the Journal of Literature and Theology and Neophilologus of Lyric in the Poetry of Emily Brontë Maureen Peeck-O'Toole, 2022-07-04 Hart Crane's Poetry John T. Irwin, 2011-11-17

In one of his letters Hart Crane wrote Appollinaire lived in Paris I live in Cleveland Ohio comparing misspelling and all the great French poet's cosmopolitan roots to his own more modest ones in the midwestern United States. Rebelling against the notion that his work should relate to some European school of thought Crane defiantly asserted his freedom to be himself a true American writer. John T. Irwin, long a passionate and brilliant critic of Crane, gives readers the first major interpretation of the poet's work in decades. Irwin aims to show that Hart Crane's epic The Bridge is the best twentieth-century long poem in English. Irwin convincingly argues that compared to other long poems of the century The Bridge is the richest and most wide-ranging in its mythic and historical resonances, the most inventive in its combination of literary and visual structures, the most subtle and compelling in its psychological underpinnings. Irwin brings a wealth of new and varied scholarship to bear on his critical reading of the work, from art history to biography to classical literature to philosophy, revealing The Bridge to be the near-perfect synthesis of American myth and history that Crane intended. Irwin contends that the most successful entryway to Crane's notoriously difficult shorter poems is through a close reading of The Bridge. Having admirably accomplished this, Irwin analyzes Crane's poems in White Buildings and his last poem The Broken Tower through the larger context of his epic, showing how Crane in the best of these worked out the structures and images that were fully developed in The Bridge. Thoughtful, deliberate, and extraordinarily learned, this is the most complete and careful reading of Crane's poetry available. Hart Crane may have lived in Cleveland, Ohio, but as Irwin masterfully shows, his poems stand among the greatest written in the English language.

Words into Pictures Jirí Flajšar, Zénó Vernyik, 2009-12-14. Words Into Pictures E. E. Cummings Art Across Borders is a collection of ten new essays on the American poet and artist E. E. Cummings (1894-1962). Bringing together the verbal and the visual, two forms of art traditionally considered to be distinct and separate, the volume invites the reader to examine fields in Cummings' studies that have been neglected or under-researched. An artist who vigorously pursued painting and writing throughout his life, Cummings may be called the William Blake of American Modernism, a Poet-And-Painter whose habitual genre-crossing renders his oeuvre a unique choice for multidisciplinary critical studies. The essays of this volume address the limits of the visual, linguistic, spatial, and political vision of the artist. Contributors to this volume include established as well as junior

Cummings scholars from the U S and Europe giving Words Into Pictures an international and authoritative flavour

Orphic Songs and Other Poems Dino Campana,1991 The Embattled Lyric Nathaniel Tarn,2007 This book has two main subjects which are interwoven the attitudes of selected poets including Neruda Rilke Breton Celan and Artaud to the primitive and the archaic studied from an anthropologist s viewpoint and a model of the processes whereby poetry is produced and received built on the author s successful careers as both poet and anthropologist The book includes detailed biographical information about how Tarn went from being a French to an English to an American poet It also reveals the effect of a double career and of these moves on a unique body of poetry and theoretical work An extremely substantial interview serving also as an introduction to and discussion of the essays demonstrates that there is nothing like this work to be found elsewhere Presenting Poetry Howard Erskine-Hill,Richard A. McCabe,1995-06-08 The presentation of poetry to auditor and reader from the sixteenth to the twentieth centuries The Jobiad; a Grottesco-comico-heroic Poem from the German of Dr. C. A. K., by C. T. Brooks. [Thl. 1 Only.] Carl Arnold KORTUM,1867 Sappho and Catullus in Twentieth-Century Italian and North American Poetry Cecilia Piantanida,2021-01-14 Going beyond exclusively national perspectives this volume considers the reception of the ancient Greek poet Sappho and her first Latin translator Catullus as a literary pair who transmit poetic culture across the world from the early 20th century to the present Sappho s and Catullus reception has shaped a transnational network of poets and intellectuals helping to define ideas of origins gender sexuality and national identities This book shows that across time and cultures translations and rewritings of Sappho and Catullus articulate modernist poetics of myth and fragmentation forms of confessionalism and post modern pastiche The inquiry focuses on Italian and North American poetry as two central yet understudied hubs of Sappho s and Catullus modern reception also linked by a rich mutual intellectual exchange key case studies include Giovanni Pascoli Ezra Pound H D Salvatore Quasimodo Robert Lowell Rosita Copioli and Anne Carson and cover a wide range of unpublished archival material Texts are analysed and compared through reception and translation theories and inserted within the current debate on the Classics as World Literature demonstrating how sustained transnational poetic discourse employs the ancient pair to expand notions of literary origins and redefine poetry s relationship to human existence
