The Presence Of Walker Evans:

The Presence of Walker Evans Isabelle Storey, Alan Trachtenberg, 1978-01-01 The Presence of Walker Evans Institute of Contemporary Art (Boston, Mass.), 1978 The Presence Of Walker Evans, 1978 The presence of Walker Evans, 1978 Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Photography, 3-Volume Set Lynne Warren, 2005-11-15 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Photography explores the vast international scope of twentieth century photography and explains that history with a wide ranging interdisciplinary manner This unique approach covers the aesthetic history of photography as an evolving art and documentary form while also recognizing it as a developing technology and cultural force This Encyclopedia presents the important developments movements photographers photographic institutions and theoretical aspects of the field along with information about equipment techniques and practical applications of photography To bring this history alive for the reader the set is illustrated in black and white throughout and each volume contains a color plate section A useful glossary of terms is also included Brooklyn Bridge Alan Trachtenberg, 1979-07-15 Places the structure within the context of American life Moving Frames Carrie Collenberg-González, Martin P. Sheehan, 2022-02-14 As the building blocks of moving pictures photographs have played an integral role in cinema since the dawn of the medium a relationship that has grown more complexly connected even as the underlying technologies continue to evolve Moving Frames explores the use of photographs in German films from Expressionism to the Berlin School addressing the formal and narrative roles that photographs play as well as the cultural and historical contexts out of which these films emerged Looking beyond and within the canon the editors gather stimulating new insights into the politics of surveillance resistance representation and collective memory functioning through photographic rupture and affect in German cinema Walker Evans Svetlana Alpers, 2020-10-20 A magisterial study of celebrated photographer Walker Evans Walker Evans 1903-75 was a great American artist photographing people and places in the United States in unforgettable ways He is known for his work for the Farm Security Administration addressing the Great Depression but what he actually saw was the diversity of people and the damage of the long Civil War In Walker Evans renowned art historian Svetlana Alpers explores how Evans made his distinctive photographs Delving into a lavish selection of Evans's work Alpers uncovers rich parallels between his creative approach and those of numerous literary and cultural figures locating Evans within the wide context of a truly international circle Alpers demonstrates that Evans's practice relied on his camera choices and willingness to edit multiple versions of a shot as well as his keen eye and his distant straight on view of visual objects Illustrating the vital role of Evans's dual love of text and images Alpers places his writings in conversation with his photographs She brings his techniques into dialogue with the work of a global cast of important artists from Flaubert and Baudelaire to Elizabeth Bishop and William Faulkner underscoring how Evans's travels abroad in such places as France and Cuba along with his expansive literary and artistic tastes informed his quintessentially American photographic style A magisterial account of a great twentieth century artist

Walker Evans urges us to look anew at the act of seeing the world to reconsider how Evans saw his subjects how he saw his photographs and how we can see his images as if for the first time Art History, After Sherrie Levine Howard Singerman, Sherrie Levine, 2012 For this in depth examination of artist Sherrie Levine Howard Singerman surveys a broad range of sources to assess an artist whose work was understood from the outset to oppose the values of the art world in the 1980s but who by the end of the decade was exhibiting in some of the most successful commercial galleries in New York

Intellectuals Incorporated Robert Vanderlan, 2011-06-06 Publishing tycoon Henry Luce famously championed many conservative causes and his views as a capitalist and cold warrior were reflected in his glossy publications Republican Luce aimed squarely for the Middle American masses yet his magazines attracted intellectually and politically ambitious minds who were moved by the democratic aspirations of the New Deal and the left Much of the best work of intellectuals such as James Agee Archibald MacLeish Daniel Bell John Hersey and Walker Evans owes a great debt to their experiences writing for Luce and his publications Intellectuals Incorporated tells the story of the serious writers and artists who worked for Henry Luce and his magazines Time Fortune and Life between 1923 and 1960 the period when the relationship between intellectuals the culture industry and corporate capitalism assumed its modern form Countering the notions that working for corporations means selling out and that the true life of the mind must be free from institutional ties historian Robert Vanderlan explains how being embedded in the corporate culture industries was vital to the creative efforts of mid century thinkers Illuminating their struggles through careful research and biographical vignettes Vanderlan shows how their contributions to literary journalism and the wider political culture would have been impossible outside Luce's media empire By paying attention to how these writers and photographers balanced intellectual aspiration with journalistic perspiration Intellectuals Incorporated advances the idea of the intellectual as a connected public figure who can engage and criticize organizations from within Sherrie Levine Howard Singerman, 2018-09-04 Texts including essays reviews and statements by the artist on the work of Sherrie Levine The artist Sherrie Levine b 1947 is best known for her appropriations of work by other artists most famously for her rephotographs of canonical images by Edward Weston Eliot Porter and other masters of modern photography Since those works of the early 1980s she has continued to work on and after artists whose names have come to define modernism making sculpture after Brancusi and Duchamp paintings after Malevich and Blinky Palermo watercolors after Matisse and Miro photographs after Monet and Cezanne as well as Alfred Stieglitz Throughout Levine's practice effectively uncompleted decentered and extended works of art that were once singular and finished posing critical rebuttals to some of the basic assumptions of modernist aesthetics Her work was central to the theorization of postmodernism in the visual arts most notably as it emerged in the pages of October magazine It challenged authorial sovereignty and aesthetic autonomy and invited readings that opened onto gender history and the economic and discursive processes of the art world This collection gathers writings on Levine from art magazines exhibition catalogs and academic journals spanning much of her career The volume begins with texts by Douglas Crimp Rosalind Krauss and Craig Owens that situate Levine in postmodernist discourse and link her early work to October The essays that follow draw on these first critical forays and complicate them at once deepening and resisting them as Levine's own work has done All the essays attempt to understand the relationship between Levine and the artists she cites and the objects that she recasts In these pages Levine's oddly doubled works appear as chimeras taxidermy fandom pratfalls even Poussin's Blind Orion Contributors Michel Assenmaker Douglas Crimp Erich Franz Catherine Ingraham David Joselit Susan Kandel Rosalind Krauss Sylvia Lavin Sherrie Levine Maria Loh Stephen Melville Craig Owens Howard Singerman The Emancipated Spectator Jacques Ranciere, 2021-03-16 The theorists of art and film commonly depict the modern audience as aesthetically and politically passive In response both artists and thinkers have sought to transform the spectator into an active agent and the spectacle into a communal performance In this follow up to the acclaimed The Future of the Image Ranciere takes a radically different approach to this attempted emancipation First asking exactly what we mean by political art or the politics of art he goes on to look at what the tradition of critical art and the desire to insert art into life has achieved Has the militant critique of the consumption of images and commodities become ironically a sad affirmation of its omnipotence American Icons Thomas

Gaehtgens, Heinz Ickstadt, 1996-07-11 American painters and graphic artists of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries sought inspiration for their work in the uniquely American experience of history and nature The result was a transformation of the conventional Old World visual language into an indigenous and populist New World syntax The twelve essays in this volume explore the development of a frontier mythology a democratic style depicting common people and objects and an American artistic consciousness and identity Conceived and written from the perspectives of both cultural and art historians American Icons initiates an interdisciplinary discussion on the complex relationships between American and European art

Photography and Literature Eric Lambrechts, Luc Salu, 1992 Photography and Literature An International Bibliography of Monographs covers the period 1839-1991 It is arranged alphabetically by author photographer with numerous cross references to editors compilers illustrators translators etc It lists some 3 900 titles in about twenty languages and includes books exhibition catalogues dissertations and special issues of magazines Embodying Black Experience Harvey

Young, 2010-07 the highly predictable and anticipated arrival of racial violence within a person's lifetime The Space between Look and Read Susan M. Hagan, 2023-04-18 Unleashing the potential that can be found in the space between words and images Designers have long understood that image text and typeface can work together to produce new meanings creating semiotic registers impossible to achieve with image or text alone In The Space Between Look and Read a study of complementary meaning in design Susan Hagan presents a framework called Inter play which explains how these new meanings emerge Inter play is not simply an analytical tool it is also a method for using complementary meaning to encourage critical thinking in design audiences Drawing from cognitive psychology art theory discourse analysis design and rhetoric Hagan breaks down the synthesis of looking and reading into a complex series of registers which are revealed through examples of excellent design Thus the book is both a theoretical exploration of how designers communicate and a casebook in communication well achieved From the physiology of vision to the limits of language from Allan Paivio to Uwe Loesch The Space Between Look and Read expands our understanding of complementary design and argues that by engaging audiences through multiple cognitive registers complementary design serves as a cognitive tool helping audiences reach new conclusions about complex problems Space and Place: Exploring Critical Issues Didem Kılıçkiran, Christina Alegria, Carl Haddrell, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2013 Space and Place Exploring Critical Issues is an inter disciplinary study that offers new collaborative ideas on a variety of aspects of space and place ranging from philosophies and semiotics of space and place to issues of gender power and surveillance identity home belonging performance borders and boundaries and techniques of representation It includes essays on philosophy urban studies the visual and creative arts anthropology gender studies education and literary studies Essays explore the nature of how we conceive construct interpret practice perceive and represent space and place with reference to diverse theoretical frameworks as well as case studies from different places around the globe and address a wide audience of scholars and researchers interested in stories and histories of spaces and places The Story Is True, Second Edition, Revised and Expanded Bruce Jackson, 2022-10-01 In The Story Is True folklorist filmmaker and professor of English Bruce Jackson explores the ways we use the stories that become a central part of our public and private lives Describing and explaining how stories are made and used Jackson examines how stories narrate and bring meaning to our lives Jackson writes about his family and friends acquaintances and experiences focusing on more than a dozen personal stories From oral histories to public stories such as what happened when Bob Dylan went electric at the 1965 Newport Folk Festival Jackson gets at how the truth is constantly shifting depending on the perspective memory and social meaning that is ascribed to various events both real and imaginary The book is ideal for students and writers of oral history and storytelling but goes beyond those topics to encompass how we interpret and understand the real life stories that we encounter in our daily experience This edition includes new sections on how stories are related to historical facts and new chapters on contemporary films expanding the discussion of visual storytelling and on conspiracy narratives and Trump's Big Lie Fresh examples tie together new material with the existing stories Marriages, deaths and burials St. Helen's Church (Worcester, England)., Worcester (England). St. Helen's Church, 1900 PhotoGraphic Encounters William F. Garrett-Petts, Donald Lawrence, Kamloops Art Gallery, 2000-10 Literacy is broadly understood to refer to the ability to read and write But the term is heavily value laden and is often used to elevate print at the expense of other forms of communication In PhotoGraphic Encounters the authors challenge this reductive notion of literacy and propose instead an integrated span of literacies reaching across disciplinary boundaries to discover a text that draws upon both the visual and the verbal PhotoGraphic Encounters discusses Canadian writers like Margaret Atwood George Bowering Robert Kroetsch and Daphne Marlatt and Canadian artists like Fred Douglas Ernie Kroeger Brenda Pelkey and Michael Snow then looks at the cross fertilization of visual and verbal processes in their works The authors present a new narrative practice one that fully engages lived experience The vernacular they argue is vital to our participation as readers and viewers of high art Making the connection between the vernacular and high culture creates an enabling moment in artistic production and reception and in teaching learning and talking about art and literature PhotoGraphic Encounters offers a compelling perspective on questions of literacy in a postmodern culture Artists writers scholars and critics alike will want this volume in their libraries Includes more than 120 B W photographs 20 colour plates index bibliography
