Doughty, 2023-11-15 Doughty examines contemporary children s and young adult YA literature featuring royal characters through a folkloric lens and shows different ways authors transform the traditional royal characters from folktales and Disney films She shows how princes and princesses are more progressive than their predecessors through expanding gender roles She also demonstrates how different types of abdication work to transform readers expectations of royals and how they reach a happy ending different from traditional folktales and Disney Finally employing Rudine Sims Bishop s ideas about mirrors windows and sliding glass doors she explores how queer royals and royals of color offer new mirrors for children and young adults Each chapter presents a typology of royal books related to the topic and explains how they work to transform the folktale tradition Doughty concludes with a discussion of the transformational gaps remaining in royal children s and YA literature A Small Town Christmas, 3 Novels and 1 Story Sheila Roberts, 2016-11-08 Beloved author Sheila Roberts has made readers believe in the power of love and Christmas magic with her charming holiday stories Available together in a heartwarming eBook bundle are three small town Christmas novels and one novella Angel Lane When three small town shop owners launch their campaign to commit one random act of kindness every day Emma Sarah and Jane never imagined that their good deeds would have unexpected consequences On Strike for Christmas Joy Laura and their knitting club decide to go on strike for Christmas can the town of Holly discover that all they need is a little holiday magic to come together The Nine Lives of Christmas Zach and Merilee are about to discover that when it comes to finding love Christmas magic might not be enough sometimes it takes a pesky orange cat named Ambrose A Very Holly Christmas In this short story return to the spirited town of Holly one year after the big strike in this follow up to On Strike for Christmas Kate O'Brien and the Fiction of Identity Aintzane Legarreta Mentxaka, 2014-01-10 Kate O'Brien s work is now widely considered canonical in the English language and the author herself an icon for Ireland seeking to reinvent itself O'Brien s novel Mary Lavelle banned upon publication in 1936 is a key work of the twentieth century that has suffered from critical neglect despite its wider popularity with readers This book reexamines Mary Lavelle exploring its role in the modernist canon and its importance to political and queer activism The novel s biographical and autobiographical experimentation is of particular note Through the lens of this crucial novel the oeuvre of Kate O'Brien is recontextualized and reassessed The Novels of Stephen Birmingham Stephen Birmingham, 2017-09-05 A quartet of novels from the New York Times bestselling author of Our Crowd and master chronicler of Manhattan's rich famous and deceitful. These four gripping novels prove that when it comes to the folkways of the rich, the powerful, and the privileged, Stephen Birmingham knows what he's talking about. Los Angeles Times Carriage Trade One of New York's most elegant and exclusive retail establishments, Tarkington's has been the preferred shopping experience of Manhattan's elite for decades. But the unexpected death of founder Silas Tarkington raises serious doubts about the future of the enterprise. At the reading of his will, disturbing questions arise about the tycoon's past, and suggestions of a dark secret life threaten to tear the family apart. The truth could destroy much more than the family business, especially as it becomes more and more likely that Silas's death was no accident. A page-turner that offers a little bit of the best of everything. The New York Times The Wrong Kind of Money The Liebling family is among the wealthiest in New York, but in the eyes of old-money gentile aristocrats like the patrician Van Degans, they will always be lower-class Jewish nouveau riche. Jules Liebling got his start selling liquor during Prohibition while in cahoots with dangerous mobsters, and his widow Hannah now runs the family business with a tyrannical hand. But when her daughter-in-law meets Georgette Van Degan for lunch at Le Cirque, gossip circulates about a thaw between the families and quite possibly a partnership. As rumors fly in this fast and wonderful novel that has something for everyone, family skeletons on both sides are exposed, leading to jealousy, betrayal, and even violence. Cincinnati Enquirer The Auerbach Will The daughter of poor immigrant Russian Jewish parents on the Lower East Side, Essie Litsky married Jack Auerbach, and together they rose from poverty and amassed a fortune that dwarfed their wildest dreams. But money could never buy the affection of family or compensate for the true love Essie let slip away. And now, as she nears the end of her life, she must contend with blackmail and heartless legal assaults coming at her from all sides, the result of the ugly, persistent greed of her own children and grandchildren. But Essie is not dead yet, and those who underestimate the remarkable old woman are in for a shocking and powerful surprise. This New York Times bestseller is full of delicious secrets drawn from the gossipy Uptown/Downtown milieu Birmingham knows so well. Kirkus Reviews Shades of Fortune Mireille Mimi Myerson took her grandfather's struggling cosmetics company and turned it into an empire. But suddenly, as she prepares to launch a new perfume line, she is faced with hidden threats at every turn. Her efforts to further expand the company could be sabotaged from within by her own treacherous family. With the discovery of her husband's affair and the return of real estate magnate Michael Horowitz, her first and most enduring love, Mimi must determine whom she can trust, especially in light of the shocking revelations that are about to emerge regarding the birth of the Miray Corporation. The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses. This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century, with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization Canadian Literature Faye Hammill, 2007-09-13 An important critical study of Canadian literature placing internationally successful anglophone Canadian authors in the context of their national literary history While the focus of the book is on twentieth century and contemporary writing it also charts the historical development of Canadian literature and discusses important eighteenth and nineteenth century authors The chapters focus on four central topics in Canadian culture Ethnicity Race Colonisation Wildernesses Cities Regions Desire and Histories and Stories Each chapter combines case studies of five key texts with a broad discussion of concepts and approaches including postcolonial and postmodern reading strategies and theories of space place and desire Authors chosen for close analysis include Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje Alice Munro Leonard Cohen Thomas King and Carol Shields The Book Buyer's Guide , Towards a Transcultural Future Peter H. Marsden, Geoffrey V. Davis, 2004 The volume reflects the human rights situation in many countries from Mauritius to New Zealand from the Cameroon to Canada It includes a focus on the Malawian writer Jack Mapanje The contributors concerns embrace topics as varied as denotified tribes in India female genital mutilation in Africa native residential schools in Canada political violence in Northern Ireland the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the discourse of the Treaty of Waitangi Novel Destinations Shannon McKenna Schmidt, Joni Rendon, 2008-05-20 It is often said that a good book takes us somewhere we've never been before and here is the proof a book lover's Baedeker to more than 500 literary locales across the United States and Europe Novel Destinations invites readers to follow in the footsteps of much loved authors discover the scenes that sparked their imaginations glimpse the lives they led and share a bit of the experiences they transformed so eloquently into print If you're looking to indulge in literary adventure you'll find all the inspiration and information you need here along with behind the scenes stories such as these After Ernest Hemingway survived two near fatal plane crashes during an African safari he perused his obituaries and sipped champagne on a canal side terrace in Venice Washington Irving's wisteria draped cottage in the Hudson Valley was once occupied by members of the Van Tassel family immortalized in The Legend of Sleepy Hollow A mysterious incident at a stone tower near Dublin made such a vivid impression on James Joyce that he drew on it for the opening scene of Ulysses Sir Arthur Conan Doyle consulted on the mystery of Agatha Christie's 1926 disappearance before she resurfaced under an assumed name in northern England Nathaniel Hawthorne's The House of the Seven Gables was inspired by a seaside manse in Salem Massachusetts infamous witch trials in which his ancestor played a role Humor in Contemporary Native North American Literature Eva Gruber, 2008 Encompassing view of humor in recent Native North American literature with particular focus on Native self image and identity In contrast to the popular cliché of the stoic Indian humor has always been important in Native North American cultures Recent Native literature testifies to the centrality of this tradition Yet literary criticism has so far largely neglected these humorous aspects instead frequently choosing to concentrate on representations of trauma and cultural disruption at the risk of reducing Native characters and Native cultures to the position of the tragicvictim This first comprehensive study explores the use of humor in today's Native writing focusing on a wide variety of texts spanning all genres It combines concepts from cultural studies and humor studies with approaches by Native thinkers and critics analyzing the possible effects of humorous forms of representation on the self image and identity formation of Native individuals and Native cultures Humor emerges as an indispensable tool for engaging with existing stereotypes Native writers subvert degrading clichés of the Indian from within reimagining Nativeness in a celebration of laughing survivors decolonizing the minds of both Native and non native readers and contributing to a renewal of Native cultural identity This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Native Studies both literary and cultural Due to its encompassing approach it will also provide a point of entry for the wider readership interested in contemporary Native writing Eva Gruber is Assistant Professor in the American Studies section of the Department of Literature at the University of Konstanz Germany

Mapping the Americas Shari M. Huhndorf, 2011-02-23 In Mapping the Americas Shari M Huhndorf tracks changing conceptions of Native culture as it increasingly transcends national boundaries and takes up vital concerns such as patriarchy labor and environmental exploitation the emergence of pan Native urban communities global imperialism and the commodification of indigenous cultures While nationalism remains a dominant anticolonial strategy in indigenous contexts Huhndorf examines the ways in which transnational indigenous politics have reshaped Native culture especially novels films photography and performance in the United States and Canada since the 1980s Mapping the Americas thus broadens the political paradigms that have dominated recent critical work in Native studies as well as the geographies that provide its focus particularly through its engagement with the Arctic Among the manifestations of these new tendencies in Native culture that Huhndorf presents are Igloolik Isuma Productions the Inuit company that has produced nearly forty films including Atanarjuat The Fast Runner indigenous feminist playwrights Leslie Marmon Silko's Almanac of the Dead and the multimedia artist Shelley Niro Huhndorf also addresses the neglect of Native America by champions of postnationalist American studies which shifts attention away from ongoing colonial relationships between the United States and indigenous communities within its borders to U S imperial relations overseas This is a dangerous oversight Huhndorf argues because this neglect risks repeating the disavowal of imperialism that the new American studies takes to task Parallel transnational tendencies in American studies and Native American studies have thus worked at cross purposes as pan tribal alliances draw attention to U S internal colonialism and its connections to global imperialism American studies deflects attention from these ongoing processes of conquest Mapping the Americas addresses this neglect by considering what happens to American studies when you put Native studies at the center

Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature Helen Frank, 2014-04-08 Cultural Encounters in Translated Children's Literature offers a detailed and innovative model of analysis for examining the complexities of translating children's literature and sheds light on the interpretive choices at work in moving texts from one culture to another The core of the study addresses the issue of how images of a nation locale or country are constructed in translated children's literature with the translation of Australian children's fiction into French serving as a case study Issues examined include the selection of books for translation the relationship between children's books and the national and international publishing industry the packaging of translations and the importance of titles blurbs and covers the linguistic and stylistic features specific to translating for children intertextual references the function of the translation in the target culture didactic and pedagogical aims euphemistic language and explication and literariness in translated texts The findings of the case study suggest that the most common constructs of Australia in French translations reveal a preponderance of traditional Eurocentric signifiers that identify Australia with the outback the antipodes the exotic the wild the unknown the void the end of the world the young and innocent nation and the Far West Contemporary signifiers that construct Australia as urban multicultural Aboriginal worldly and inharmonious are seriously under represented The study also shows that French translations are conventional conservative and didactic showing preference for an exotic rather than local specificity with systematic manipulation of Australian referents betraying a perception of Australia as antipodean rural exoticism The significance of the study lies in underscoring the manner in which a given culture is constructed in another cultural milieu especially through translated children s literature

The Routledge Companion To Postcolonial Studies John McLeod, 2007-10-09 With an A Z of the key writers and thinkers central to contemporary postcolonial study and featuring historical maps and full cross referencing throughout this is a comprehensive introduction to the history of the great European empires and the cultural legacies they left in their wake
