The Private Life Of Islam Ian Young,2011-04-30 Ian Young spent a summer as a medical student in a provincial maternity unit in Algeria This book is taken from the diary he began on arrival when he found himself the privileged witness of the insides not just of Kabyl women but also some much trumpeted ideology The immediate villains are a couple of expatriate Bulgarian gynaecologists Dr Vasilev at the closing stages of a career of fathomless incompetence forms a bond of affection with the author and they spend many hours in the office over an old route map of Bulgaria discussing mileages and motorcycles as Maternity drifts beneath them like an abandoned ship Dr Kostov packs a powerful bedside punch and saves his humanitarian feelings for the health of the Deutschmark The two form a macabre comic team as they take the reader through a series of medical nightmares But their lot is scarcely more enviable than that of their female victims the foreign doctors are the unhappy executors working in blood excrement and death of the most respected attitudes in Algeria The Private Life of Islam is a ruthlessly clear sighted view of a particular place at a particular time It is also a classic in the art of story telling A real achievement personal as well as literary David Pryce Jones The Times A parable of the reality behind a vast amount of modern social and political fantasy even in the most developed of countries David Holden Sunday Times

Societal Peace and Ideal Citizenship for Turkey Pinar

Enneli,Rasim Özgür Dönmez,2011-08-16 Globalisation and neo liberalism have been impacting the nation state and leading the full citizenship concept into crisis not only in Turkey but also in the world While one reason for this crisis is the decline of the welfare state another reason stems from the fluidity of borders that distorts the classical patterns of the nation state such as meta identity The existing Turkish citizenship inherited a strong state idea with passive citizenship tradition from the Ottoman Empire However this understanding is no longer sustainable for Turkish society The definition of citizenship through state led nationalism secularism and a free market economy creates societal crises in politics and society The aim of this book is to find out the answer of what should be the ideal citizenship regime for Turkey Various scholars dealing with Turkish socio politics analyze different aspects and problems of Turkish citizenship regime that should be tackled for finding a recipe for ideal citizenship in Turkey Gender and Human Rights in Islam and International Law Shaheen S.

Ali,2021-11-08 This important study offers a conceptual analysis of gender and human rights under Islamic law state law and international law and extends this analysis to a specific examination of the nature of women s rights in the Islamic tradition It explores the disparity between the theoretical perspective on women s rights and its applications to Muslim jurisdictions determined by elements of cultural practices socio economic realities and political expediences and uses the example of Pakistan to demonstrate the divergence between the theory and practice of Islamic law in these jurisdictions It discusses the concept of an emerging operative Islamic law which includes principles of Islamic law secular codes and popular custom and usage Prophet Muhammad (S) and His Family Shamim Aleem,2011-10-27 Though over the past 1400 years thousand of books have been written on the different aspects of the life of the Prophet Muhammad S Even then it cannot claim to be true and exhaustive picture of his multidimensional life as has been successfully projected in this book The author has tried to look at his family life from a sociological perspective an approach different from that of other writers Her attempt is to place at the disposal of young English speaking people a wider view of the family life of the Prophet so that they may learn something from it to make their own lives more fruitful and happy In the last few years and especially after 9 11 interest in Islam and Islamic literature has increased tremendously Non believers are in a dilemma On one hand Islam is suppose to be a religion of peace while on the other terrorism association with Muslims is on the rise By making an attempt to depict an objective picture of the life of Prophet Muhammad S the author has tried to underline the fact that Islam is not a religion of violence but of peace and the life of the Prophet provides convincing evidence of the same and whatever is being done under the name of Muslim by a handful people has hardly any relation with Islam The book may be a source of interest to those non Muslims who are keen to know more about Islam How Islam Rules in Iran Mehran Kamrava,2024-05-09 Examines the jurisprudential justifications that underlie the continuous and ever changing relationship between state and religion in Iran

Self and Secrecy in Early Islam Ruqayya Yasmine Khan, 2008. An original inquiry into the meanings of concealment and revelation in early Arabo-Islamic texts. In this comparative analysis of the significance of keeping and revealing secrets in early Islamic culture, Ruqayya Yasmine Khan draws from a broad range of Arabo-Islamic texts to map interconnections between concepts of secrecy and identity. In early Islamic discourse, Khan maintains, individual identity is integrally linked to a psychology of secrecy and revelation, a connection of even greater importance than what is being concealed or displayed. Khan further maintains that secrecy and identity demarcate boundaries for interpersonal relations when governed by the cultural norms of discretion espoused in these texts. As evidence for her study, Khan explores religious and literary representations of secrecy in classical texts as diverse as the Qur'an, the Book of Concealing the Secret and Holding the Tongue by al-Jahiz and courtly love poems including the story of Majnun and Layla. These works represent divergent approaches to spiritual, ethical and romantic life in early Islam, yet Khan extrapolates from each a shared construction of secrecy and revelation. In advancing our understanding of the dynamic tensions between secrecy and revelation as depicted in these early Arabo-Islamic discourses, Khan illustrates that the creation of individual identity and subjectivity was inherently tied to these same tensions. The resulting analysis opens new vistas for understanding the meanings of secrecy in Islamic studies, Qur'anic studies, Islamic philosophy and mysticism, Arabic literary studies as well as European intellectual history.

Islamic Liberalism Halil Ibrahim Canbegi, 2025-07-10 In Islamic Liberalism A Theory of Impossibility based on the Lockean Tradition Halil Ibrahim Canbegi investigates the inherent inconsistencies of Islamic liberalism by examining the philosophical and theological foundations of both liberalism and Islam Canbegi draws on Lockean liberalism asserting that John Locke's emerging liberalism is deeply rooted in theological concepts such as covenant theology natural law and the distinctive nature of Christianity itself In contrast the author argues that Islam lacks the necessary theological and intellectual framework to develop a coherent version of liberalism often termed Islamic liberalism Canbegi maintains that this concept merely represents a superficial juxtaposition of Islam and liberalism rather than a genuine synthesis Ultimately the author concludes that Islamic liberalism is merely a heterogeneous amalgamation of Islamic and liberal ideas which do not combine into a unified whole This critical analysis challenges prevailing notions and invites readers to reconsider the complex relationship between these two influential systems of thought

Soft Force Ellen Anne McLarney, 2015-05-26 The unheralded contribution of women to Egypt s Islamist movement and how they talk about women s rights in Islamic terms In the decades leading up to the Arab Spring in 2011 when Hosni Mubarak s authoritarian regime was swept from power in Egypt Muslim women took a leading role in developing a robust Islamist presence in the country s public sphere Soft Force examines the writings and activism of these women including scholars preachers journalists critics actors and public intellectuals who envisioned an Islamic awakening in which women s rights and the family equality and emancipation were at the center Challenging Western conceptions of Muslim women as being oppressed by Islam Ellen

McLarney shows how women used soft force a women s jihad characterized by nonviolent protest to oppose secular dictatorship and articulate a public sphere that was both Islamic and democratic McLarney draws on memoirs political essays sermons newspaper articles and other writings to explore how these women imagined the home and the family as sites of the free practice of religion in a climate where Islamists were under siege by the secular state While they seem to reinforce women s traditional roles in a male dominated society these Islamist writers also reoriented Islamist politics in domains coded as feminine putting women at the very forefront in imagining an Islamic polity Bold and insightful Soft Force transforms our understanding of women s rights women s liberation and women s equality in Egypt s Islamic revival
