Gilman, 2012 When the senatorial election of 2008 between Democrat Al Franken and Republican Norm Coleman stretched on for a contentious six months people throughout the country wondered about Minnesota's offbeat politics But Minnesota has been and is now a seedbed for cultural and political movements that have changed the country and its history weaves a pattern of wide opposition between left and right In this broad and readable narrative eminent Minnesota historian Rhoda R Gilman covers the major protest movements of the last 150 years the abolitionist Republican party Grangers antimonopolists Populists strikers progressives suffragists Communists Farmer Laborites communes and co ops abortion politics and more She profiles charismatic and quirky leaders like Ignatius Donnelly Floyd B Olson and Paul Wellstone Each movement each personality is part of the context for the others Stand Up tells a story of people repeatedly challenging the status quo It is a narrative of people against power of conflict and defeat but also of change and tenacity In a forceful and inspirational conclusion Gilman discusses the events that she herself has helped to shape and shares her vision of the future      After the Vote Was Won Katherine H.
