episode lists and storylines Contesting the Far Right Claudia Leeb, 2024-04-23 Why have so many people responded to the insecurity exploitation alienation and isolation of precarity capitalism by supporting the far right In this timely book Claudia Leeb argues that psychoanalytic and feminist critical theory illuminates how economic and psychological factors interact to produce this extreme political shift Contesting the Far Right examines right wing recruitment tactics in the United States and Austria where people discontented with the status quo have turned to far right parties and movements that further cement capitalism's adverse effects Leeb contends that Freudian psychoanalytic theory and early Frankfurt School Critical Theory provide analytical tools to explain this apparent contradiction in psychological terms Living under precarity capitalism generates feelings of failure and anxiety which people experience as non wholeness because it has become difficult if not impossible to live up to the fetish of economic interpersonal and bodily success and the far right preys on such feelings Its psychologically oriented propaganda tactics produce the illusion of wholeness and a positive sense of self while leaving the socioeconomic conditions that cause people's suffering intact At the same time they remove the inhibitions that keep people's repressed aggression and racist and sexist attitudes in check To demonstrate the workings of this process Leeb compares cases including Trump and the alt right in the United States and the Freedom Party and the identitarian movement in Austria At once theoretically rich and politically engaged this book also offers ways to resist the far right and counter the psychological appeal of its propaganda techniques Getting the Joke Oliver Double, 2013-11-07 This is the kind of book that troubles grey suited committees of academic peers It's too enjoyable But that given its subject is just what it ought to be and it treats that subject seriously There isn't a dull page anywhere in the book Professor Peter Thomson Studies in Theatre and Performance Comedy is changing stand up comedians routinely sell out stadia their audience figures swollen by panel show appearances and much followed Twitter feeds Meanwhile the smaller clubs are filling up with audiences as well as aspirants How can we make sense of it all This new edition of Getting the Joke gives an insider's look at the spectrum of modern comedy re-examining the world of stand up in the internet age Drawing on his acclaimed first edition Oliver Double focuses in greater detail on the US scene and its comedians such as David Cross Sarah Silverman Louis CK Demetri Martin and Margaret Cho the DIY comedy circuit and its celebrated apostles and visionaries from Josie Long to Stewart Lee the growing importance of the solo stand up show the role played by Twitter including an interview with the organiser of the world's first comedy gig on Twitter and the driving force that is the TV guest slot be it on Mock the Week or Live at the Apollo With expanded sections on joke construction as well as ways to challenge the audience and a host of new and updated exercises to guide the aspiring comedian this new edition of Getting the Joke is the only book to combine the history of stand up comedy with an analysis of the elements and methods that go into its creation Featuring a range of interviews with working comedians from circuit veterans to new kids on the block combined with the author's vast experience this is a must read for any aspiring stand up comedian
