

The Green Roads

*The green roads that end in the forest
Are strewn with white goose feathers this June.*

*Life marks left behind by someone gone to the forest
To show his track. But he has never come back.*

*Down each green road a cottage looks at the forest.
Round one the nettle towers; two are bathed in flowers.*

*An old man along the green road to the forest
Strays from one, from another a child alone.*

*In the thicket bordering the forest,
All day long a thrush twiddles his song.*

*It is old, but the trees are young in the forest,
All but one like a castle keep, in the middle deep.*

*That oak saw the ages pass in the forest:
They were a host, but their memories are lost,*

*For the tree is dead: all things forget the forest
Excepting perhaps me, when now I see*

*The old man, the child, the goose feathers at the edge of the forest,
And hear all day long the thrush repeat his song.*
