The Opposing Self:

The Opposing Self Lionel Trilling, 1955 The New York Intellectuals Reader Neil Jumonville, 2013-10-31 In the early 1930s in a small alcove at City College in New York a group of young passionate and politically radical students argued for hours about the finer points of Marxist doctrine the true nature of socialism and whether or not Stalin or Trotsky was the true heir to Lenin These young intellectuals went on to write for and found some of the most well known political and literary journals of the 20th century such as The Masses Politics Partisan Review Encounter Commentary Dissent and The Public Interest Figures such as Daniel Bell Nathan Glazer Sidney Hook Susan Sontag Dwight MacDonald and Seymour Lipset penned some of the most important books of social science in the mid twentieth century They believed above all else in the importance of argument and the power of the pen They were a vibrant group of engaged political thinkers and writers but most importantly they were public intellectuals committed to addressing the most important political social and cultural questions of the day Here with helpful head notes and a comprehensive introduction by Neil Jumonville The New York Intellectuals Reader brings the work of these thinkers back into conversation Reading America Denis Donoghue, 1988-01-01 Here is a selection by the distinguished critic of his essays and commentaries on American writing and writers from Emerson and Whitman through Auden and Ashbery Denis Donoghue examines the canon in the light of what he takes to be the central dynamic of the American enterprise the imperatives of a powerful national past versus the subversions of an irrevocably anarchic spirit The Conservative Turn Michael Kimmage, 2009-03-31 Kimmage focuses on the relationship between Lionel Trilling and Whittaker Chambers to explore the birth of neoconservatism The Web of Violence Jennifer E. Turpin, Lester R. Kurtz, 1997 An excellent representation of the interdisciplinary thrust of peace studies Paul Joseph Tufts University Violence is a topic of concern everywhere in the media in churches in the halls of governments In every land and in every culture violence is considered by most to be taboo a last resort Yet under certain conditions from the level of the family to the level of nations violence is used as a mechanism of social control Various rationalizations thus emerge to distinguish between legitimate and illegitimate violence The Web of Violence explores the interrelationship among personal collective national and global levels of violence This unique collection brings together a number of internationally known contributors to address the genesis and manifestations of violence in the search for a remedy for this confounding social problem As the global community becomes more intimate we must better understand the nature of violence The Web of Violence supports this aim by examining the dangerous human phenomenon from many perspectives at different levels and using multiple methodologies CONTRIBUTORS Robert Jay Lifton Christopher G Ellison John P Bartkowski Yuan Horng Chu Philip Smith Robert Elias Birgit Brock Utne Riane Eisler Johan Galtung Meeting the Shadow Connie Zweig, PhD, Jeremiah Abrams, 2020-07-07 One does not become enlightened by imagining figures of light but by making the darkness conscious C G Jung Cheating lying jealousy blaming greed shame These forbidden feelings and behaviors erupt from the dark denied part of ourselves the personal shadow But they erupt with a purpose They are trying to tell us their secrets Meeting the Shadow is a landmark collection of 65 wide ranging essays by thought leaders including Carl Jung Joseph Campbell Ken Wilber James Hillman Susan Griffin Harville Hendrix on the dark side of human nature as it appears in families intimate relationships sexuality work spirituality politics therapy and creativity It presents tools for shadow work that enable us to make a conscious relationship with the shadow defuse negative emotions release guilt and shame achieve a genuine self acceptance and heal our relationships Although we think of the shadow as containing only darkness as Jung stated its essence is pure gold

American Theorists of the Novel Peter Rawlings, 2007-01-24 The American theorists Henry James Lionel Trilling and Wayne C Booth have revolutionized our understanding of narrative and have each championed the novel as an art form Concepts from their work have become part of the fabric of novel criticism today influencing theorists authors and readers alike Emphasizing the crucial relationship between the works of these three critics Peter Rawlings explores their understanding of the novel form and investigates their ideas on realism and representation authors and narration point of view and centres of consciousness readers reading and interpretation moral intelligence Rawlings demonstrates the importance of James Trilling and Booth for contemporary literary theory and clearly introduces critical concepts that underlie any study of narrative American Theorists of the Novel is invaluable reading for anyone with an interest in American critical theory or the genre of the novel

Literary Criticism from Plato to Postmodernism James Seaton, 2014-04-28 This book offers a history of literary criticism from Plato to the present arguing that this history can best be seen as a dialogue among three traditions the Platonic Neoplatonic and the humanistic originated by Aristotle There are many histories of literary criticism but this is the first to clarify our understanding of the many seemingly incommensurable approaches employed over the centuries by reference to the three traditions Making its case by careful analyses of individual critics the book argues for the relevance of the humanistic tradition in the twenty first century and beyond

Romanticism/Judaica Sheila A.
