The Pop Up Of The Circus:

Playing with the Book Hannah Field, 2019-07-02 A beautifully illustrated exploration of how Victorian novelty picture books reshape the ways children read and interact with texts The Victorian era saw an explosion of novelty picture books with flaps to lift and tabs to pull pages that could fold out pop up scenes and even mechanical toys mounted on pages Analyzing books for young children published between 1835 and 1914 Playing with the Book studies how these elaborately designed works raise questions not just about what books should look like but also about what reading is particularly in relation to children's literature and child readers Novelty books promised or threatened to make reading a physical as well as intellectual activity requiring the child to pull a tab or lift a flap to continue the story These books changed the relationship between pictures words and format in both productive and troubling ways Hannah Field considers these aspects of children's reading through case studies of different formats of novelty and movable books and intensive examination of editions that have survived from the nineteenth century She discovers that children ripped tore and colored in their novelty books despite these books explicit instructions against such behaviors Richly illustrated with images of these ingenious constructions Playing with the Book argues that novelty books construct a process of reading that involves touch as well as sight thus reconfiguring our understanding of the phenomenology of reading

Exposing Mississippi Annette Trefzer, 2022-03-25 WINNER OF THE 2022 EUDORA WELTY PRIZE Internationally known as a writer Eudora Welty has as well been spotlighted as a talented photographer The prevalent idea remains that Welty simply took snapshots before she found her true calling as a renowned fiction writer But who was Welty as a photographer What did she see How and why did she photograph And what did Welty know about modern photography In Exposing Mississippi Eudora Welty's Photographic Reflections Annette Trefzer elucidates Welty's photographic vision and answers these questions by exploring her photographic archive and writings on photography The photographs Welty took in the 1930s and 40s frame her visual response to the cultural landscapes of the segregated South during the Depression The photobook One Time One Place which was selected curated and shaped into a visual narrative by Welty herself serves as a starting point and guide for the chapters on her spatial hermeneutic The book is divided into sections by locations and offers how the framing of these areas reveals Welty's radical commentary of the spaces her camera captured There are over eighty images in Exposing Mississippi including some never before seen archival photographs and sections of the book draw on over three hundred more The chapters on institutional leisure and memorial landscapes address how Welty's photographs contribute to reflect on and intervene in customary visual constructions of the Depression era South to catch a crook Illustrations Mazin Grace Dylan Coleman, Claire G Coleman, 2024-06-04 Growing up on the Mission isn't easy for clever Grace Oldman When her classmates tease her for not having a father she doesn't know what to say Papa Neddy says her dad is the Lord God in Heaven but that doesn't help when the Mission kids call her a bastard As Grace slowly pieces together clues that might lead to answers she struggles to find a place in a community that rejects her for reasons she doesn't understand In Mazin Grace Dylan Coleman fictionalises her mother's childhood at the Koonibba Lutheran Mission in South Australia in the 1940s and 50s Woven through the narrative are the powerful rhythmic sounds of Aboriginal English and Kokatha language Mazin Grace is the inspirational story of a feisty girl who refuses to be told who she is determined to uncover the truth for herself

Heritage Rare Books & Manuscripts Auction Final Session # 683, Song of Being Mischa Hammarnejd, 2023-08-21 What am I where do I come from and where am I going And what is really the point of it all What is really true behind all the make believe conditioning and the more than eight billion different opinions about what is true Is there a true reality that is the same for all of us on this planet Tellus yes in the whole universe Surely these are familiar questions But how often have we not heard about spiritual experiences awakening overcoming the fear of death lasting happiness and joy heavenly peace and the like And how often have we not started to read or listen to someone who claims to know it all about these things and then just given up when we heard a lot of complex and inaccessible thought constructs new age nonsense mixed with mystical directions and exercises or sectarian drivel that excludes the ones outside I have been through all this and I even ended up in a sect like context once but I continued to search for something really true stripped down genuinely useful and practical in both festive ordinary and difficult times something that could truly point to lasting and reliable truth about reality myself and all of us to what we are and consist of and that it would hold true in all cultures ages circumstances and states which all constantly change Am I asking for too much My journey is not unique and neither is who or what I am The journey can be made by anyone It is so familiar close accessible and right in front of all our noses no much closer much more intimate than that Surely there are obstacles but are we really interested in the obstacles I am not The book is about my journey to what I thought and was told would be impossible to find or attain My searching has ended Not because I found something that I was looking for but because and here it became quiet for a long while Until this book was made
