The Power of a Woman's Voice in Medieval and Early Modern Literatures Albrecht Classen, 2012-02-13 The study takes the received view among scholars that women in the Middle Ages were faced with sustained misogyny and that their voices were seldom heard in public and subjects it to a critical analysis The ten chapters deal with various aspects of the question and the voices of a variety of authors both female and male are heard The study opens with an enquiry into violence against women including in texts by male writers Hartmann von Aue Gottfried von Straßburg Wolfram von Eschenbach which indeed describe instances of violence but adopt an extremely critical stance towards them It then proceeds to show how women were able to develop an independent identity in various genres and could present themselves as authorities in the public eye Mystic texts by Hildegard of Bingen Marie de France and Margery Kempe the medieval conduct poem known as Die Winsbeckin the Devout Books of Sisters composed in convents in South West Germany but also quasi historical documents such as the memoirs of Helene Kottaner or Anna Weckerin's cookery book demonstrate that far more women were in the public gaze than had hitherto been assumed and that they possessed the self confidence to establish their positions with their intellectual and their literary achievements

Louisa Hodson: or, The power of influence R A. Somerville, 1865 The Hidden Power of a Woman Mahesh Chavda, Bonnie Chavda, 2011-07-28 Women are searching for significance and status in our generation There is a holy restlessness concerning purpose as much as the yearning for power The Hidden Power of a Woman traces the tragedy in the garden where the woman seemingly lost and her garden to the modern day where women are still fighting to regain what they have lost The authors Bonnie and Mahesh Chavda show how modern feminism and religion have both failed in the quest to restore women to their rightful place in our society What is the answer The Chavdas show that her power influence and insight that was stolen in Eden and hidden for subsequent ages was returned back to her two thousand years ago when Christ cried out It is finished As the hidden power of God emerges in the woman who fully follows Christ get ready for empowerment in the church redemption in society miracles in the body and blessings on the human race unequal to any generation previous The new thing God began when he made a woman as the crowning glory of his creation work and was lost in that same Garden will be restored once again History of Woman Suffrage: 1861-1876 Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Susan Brownell Anthony, Matilda Joselyn Gage, Ida Husted Harper, 1882 Woman; Her Position and Influence in Ancient Greece and Rome Sir James Donaldson, 1907
