Fosshage, 2016-02-11 In this sequel to Lichtenberg s Psychoanalysis and Motivation TAP 1989 the authors show how their revised theory of motivation provides the foundation for a new approach to psychoanalytic technique The approach in Self and Motivational System emphasizes a finely honed sensitivity to moment to moment analytic exchanges and an appreciation of which motivational system is dominant during that exchange Throughout the authors stress the creative power of psychoanalysis as a joint effort shaped by the intersubjective context of a particular analysand and communicating and interacting with a particular analyst At the heart of the analytic relationship is the analysand s expectation of evoking a vitalizing selfobject experience from the analyst and the analyst s expectation in turn of evoking a selfobject experience of efficacy from his or her work with the analysand

Including Families and Communities in Urban Education Catherine Hands, Lea Hubbard, 2011-04-01 The work of school family and community partnerships is complex and messy and demands a thoughtful and deep investigation Currently parent and community involvement does not draw on school reform and educational change literature and conversely the school change literature often ignores the crucial role that communities play in educational reform This edited volume focuses on structural considerations regarding education and the school communities school level and family culture and the interrelationships between the agency and actions of school personnel family members community citizens and students This book extends the dialogue on school reform by looking at parent and community engagement initiatives as part of the school reform literature. The contributors illustrate the negative impact on students and their education when assumptions made by school personnel regarding the organization of education, the nature of families, and the contributions they should make to their children's education are not challenged.

Psychotherapy with Older Adults Bob G. Knight, 2004-02-20 This Third Edition of the bestselling Psychotherapy with Older Adults continues to offer students and professionals a thorough overview of psychotherapy with older adults. Using the contextual cohort-based maturity-specific challenge CCMSC model, it draws upon findings from scientific gerontology and life span developmental psychology to describe how psychotherapy needs to be adapted for work with older adults as well as when it is similar to therapeutic work with younger adults. Sensitively linking both research and experience, author Bob G. Knight provides a practical account of the knowledge, technique, and skills necessary to work with older adults in a therapeutic relationship. This volume considers the essentials of gerontology as well as the nature of therapy in depth, focusing on special content areas and common themes. Psychotherapy with Older Adults includes a comprehensive discussion of assessment and options for intervention. Numerous case examples illustrate the dynamics of the therapeutic task and issues covered in therapy and stress the human element in working with older adults. A concluding chapter considers ethical questions and the future of psychotherapy with older adults. The author has updated the Third Edition to reflect new research findings and has written two entirely new chapters covering psychotherapy with persons with dementia and psychotherapy with caregivers of frail older adults. Since its initial publication in 1986, the book has been used as a course text and a professional reference around the world, including translations into French, Dutch, Chinese, and Japanese. It is a vital resource for practicing therapists and counselors who work with older adults and is also ideally suited as a text for advanced students in psychology, social work, gerontology, and nursing. Praise for Previous Editions: Bob G. Knight's largest contribution is his excellent discussion of therapy. The book is clearly written with a good use of summaries and case examples to clarify the major points. By linking research findings to practice experience, Knight has provided a pragmatic introduction which should be helpful to psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, and psychiatric nurses working with older adults. JOURNAL OF APPLIED GERONTOLOGY I recommend this book to anyone interested in working with the elderly, partly because of the content and partly because the author presents the case for doing psychotherapy with the elderly with realism and enthusiasm. BEHAVIOR RESEARCH THERAPY

Family Careers Joan Aldous, 1996-02-05 Joan Aldous does not just give us an update of her influential 1978 version of Family Careers but provides us with a rethinking of the whole approach. As a result, we have available to us a new version of the family development approach for students and researchers. Students will particularly delight in Professor Aldous's clear exposition of ideas and research. James M. White, Ph.D., University of British Columbia. This book lays out an agenda that may appear simple but in reality is very complex and then proceeds to do an extraordinarily good job of adhering to it. Joan Aldous's personal examples and interview excerpts drawn from other sources are very good adding some substance to the discussion that surrounds them These are bound to be helpful for students Duane W Crawford Texas Tech University A unique contribution to its field Family Careers is the first volume to examine the expectable changes in today s families from the time the family is formed until it is dissolved No other book covers the broad variety of families in contemporary society using a consistent theoretical approach Joan Aldous presents the developmental approach to studying contemporary families in a clear and understandable fashion First she presents the concepts that distinguish family development then she compares those with other theoretical perspectives Drawing from a diverse array of families she gives the reader a comprehensive picture of the shifts in patterns of family interaction over time as they are influenced by their social contexts of work and school Throughout the book there are quotations comments and excerpts from letters to illustrate the family lives of individuals as they actually live them This thought provoking volume is sure to stimulate discussion and is highly recommended for graduate and undergraduate students in family development advanced family theory classes and advanced family and marriage classes
