one point I was homeless and I gave up on myself I walked away from God many times One day my mother prayed with me and gave me a Bible and told me to read Romans I later became a Minister I couldn't get it right because I couldn't get past my addiction and my own self interests How could this be I am a Minister Who does the man of God go to when he is failing The answer is clearly God I became convinced that my testimony may help some other Ministers who struggle with the same things I did Like me they may be waiting on God and hoping He hears them too One day I accepted that even Preachers can fail I wasn't doing anything constructive with my life at that time I decided to trust God I didn't know if He would do it but I prayed anyway I soon believed that if I asked God for faith and told people the truth God was going to change me Today I am a Minister in good standing in a church in Orange County CA and the CEO of a nonprofit called A Touch of Love Works When you read A Preacher's Confession you discover that in spite of everything that is wrong with me there is a side of me that wants to make the world a better place and I will do my part This is my story To God be the glory The Preacher's

Martin Camroux, 2024-04-30 The church is in deep trouble maybe in its death throes Losing touch with the church has meant a break with the Western cultural past its history its music its art its literature much of which cannot fully be understood without its religious heritage But something more important than any of that is in danger of being lost The church is a deeply imperfect and frustrating organization but within it community is experienced values are nurtured and God's presence in the world is embodied in a people The church carries the story of Jesus it tells the story of who we are it calls us to give away our lives to others and to find love as life's central meaning We have crossed a cultural divide Before if you did not hold traditional religious beliefs and belong to a church you felt obliged to explain yourself Now the pressure is to explain why you do This is my answer Preaching Types & Metaphors (Keach) Benjamin Keach, Introduction by Herbert W Lockyer An exhaustive analysis of the significance of each type and metaphor and the practical application they offer us today The Whole Works of the Late Reverend and Learned Mr. Thomas Boston, Minister of the Gospel at Etterick Thomas Boston, 1851 Deep Preaching J. Kent Edwards, 2009-08-01 J Kent Edwards recalls a story that late pastor J Vernon McGee told about seeing children in South Africa playing a game of marbles in the dust with real diamonds The precious stones were being handled with no regard for their true worth Edwards fears the same thing happens today when preachers offer Scriptural truth to listeners without being completely overwhelmed by its greatness themselves in the process Deep Preaching is his call to rethink preaching Edwards helps preachers learn to preach the word in ways that will powerfully change the lives of hearers He contends that sermons need not settle comfortably on the lives of the listeners like dust on a coffee table He encourages preachers to join him in casting off the lines that moor their ministries to the status quo and make every effort to steer their preaching out of the comfortable shallows He urges them to preach deep sermons rather than superficial ones moving beyond the yawn inspiring to the awe inspiring from the trite to the transforming The Nkjv Minister's Bible Burgundy .
