The Kaleidoscope of Gender
Catherine G. Valentine, Mary Nell Trautner, Joan Z. Spade, 2019-03-07 The Kaleidoscope of Gender Prisms Patterns and Possibilities provides an accessible timely and stimulating overview of the cutting edge literature and theoretical frameworks in sociology and related fields in order to understand the social construction of gender The kaleidoscope metaphor and its three themes prisms patterns and possibilities unify topic areas throughout the book By focusing on the prisms through which gender is shaped the patterns which gender takes and the possibilities for social change the reader gains a deeper understanding of ourselves and our relationships with others both locally and globally Editors Catherine Valentine Mary Nell Trautner and the work of Joan Spade focus on the paradigms and approaches to gender studies that are constantly changing and evolving The Sixth Edition includes incorporation of increased emphasis on global perspectives updated contemporary social movements such as BlackLivesMatter and MeToo and an updated focus on gendered violence Ain't I a Beauty Queen? Maxine Leeds Craig, 2002 The meanings and practices of racial identity are continually reshaped as a result of the interplay of actions taken at the individual and institutional levels This text is a study of African American women as symbols and as participants in the reshaping of the meaning of African American racial identity Skin Colour Politics Nina Kullrich, 2022-02-14 The global practice of skin bleaching is predominantly understood as an internalized legacy of colonialism and an embodiment of Western ideals of beauty This book offers a new perspective on fair skin preference in India it challenges the assumption that desires for light skin are always a desire of whiteness Rather than talking back to the colonial centre skin colour politics reorganise and reinforce social distinctions in Indian societies which are neither exclusively local nor global Based on primary research conducted in Delhi this multi dimensional study shows how skin colour intersects with and reproduces other categories of social distinction primarily gender class caste race region and religion It historically embeds fairness as an Indian precolonial yet transnational ideal of beauty The bleached body emerges as an active and thus potentially resistant part of negotiating social status within multiple power relations and complex beauty regimes By mapping a whole geography of skin colours in India this book shows how fair skin as a locally embedded beauty norm and whiteness as a global cultural imperative interrelate Global Beauty, Local Bodies A. Jafar, E. Casanova, 2013-12-10 This collection of original scholarly work and first person accounts takes globalization processes and the transnational links these processes create as the jumping off point for an examination of what it means to be have or aspire to a beautiful body Seeing Beauty, Sensing Race in Transnational Indonesia L. Ayu Saraswati, 2013-03-31 In Indonesia light skin color has been desirable throughout recorded history Seeing Beauty Sensing Race explores Indonesia's changing beauty ideals and traces them to a number of influences first to ninth century India and some of the oldest surviving Indonesian literary works then a thousand years later to the impact of Dutch colonialism and the wartime occupation of Japan and finally in the post colonial period to the popularity of American culture The book shows how the transnational circulation of people images and ideas have shaped and shifted discourses and hierarchies of race gender skin color and beauty in Indonesia The author employs affect theories and feminist cultural studies as a lens through which to analyze a vast range of materials including the Old Javanese epic poem Ramayana archival materials magazine

advertisements commercial products and numerous interviews with Indonesian women The book offers a rich repertoire of analytical and theoretical tools that allow readers to rethink issues of race and gender in a global context and understand how feelings and emotions Western constructs as well as Indian Javanese and Indonesian notions such as rasa and malu contribute to and are constitutive of transnational and gendered processes of racialization Saraswati argues that it is how emotions come to be attached to certain objects and how they circulate that shape the emotionscape of white beauty in Indonesia Her ground breaking work is a nuanced theoretical exploration of the ways in which representations of beauty and the emotions they embody travel geographically and help shape attitudes and beliefs toward race and gender in a transnational world

Filipinos in Canada Roland Sintos Coloma, Bonnie McElhinny, Ethel Tungohan, John Paul Catungal, Lisa M. Davidson, 2012-09-11 The Philippines became Canada's largest source of short and long term migrants in 2010 surpassing China and India both of which are more than ten times larger The fourth largest racialized minority group in the country the Filipino community is frequently understood by such figures as the victimized nanny the selfless nurse and the gangster youth On one hand these narratives concentrate attention in narrow and stereotypical ways on critical issues On the other they render other problems facing Filipino communities invisible This landmark book the first wide ranging edited collection on Filipinos in Canada explores gender migration and labour youth spaces and subjectivities representation and community resistance to certain representations Looking at these from the vantage points of anthropology cultural studies education geography history information science literature political science sociology and women and gender studies Filipinos in Canada provides a strong foundation for future work in this area

Shades of Difference Evelyn Glenn, 2009-01-23 Shades of Difference examines the significance of skin color in different societies around the world and its effects on relations between and within racial groups

Skin Deep Cedric Herring, 2004 Shattering the myth of the colorblind society this collection of essays is a revealing examination of the ways skin tone inequality operates in America

BUTTERFLIES DO FLY Justina Howard, 2013-06-16 Butterflies do fly is a compilation of short stories that are not entirely fictional The stories written throughout this book are from chapters of my life and young women like me I wrote this book in hopes that I can motivate and encourage young women to come out of their shells and become what we are destined by nature to be beautiful butterflies

Shedding Light on Indoor Tanning Carolyn J. Heckman, Sharon L. Manne, 2011-09-15 Since the industrialization and urbanization of the Western workforce tanned skin has been perceived increasingly as attractive and fashionable for naturally light skinned individuals However in addition to causing tanning photo aging and other health effects ultraviolet radiation UV is a well known carcinogen Despite wide spread awareness of UV risks tanning has become increasingly popular in several Western countries including the USA While millions of individuals tan indoors each day relatively little is known about this phenomenon This book fills that gap by providing an overview of indoor tanning reasons for its popularity its risks including skin cancers and the public health context surrounding the behavior We have invited some of the preeminent experts in the field to summarize the existing scientific literature for each of the chapters Shedding Light on Indoor Tanning is an up to date and comprehensive book that provides a unique and essential overview of the most significant current issues related to indoor tanning for scientists educators students clinicians and the general public interested in dermatology aesthetic trends skin care and skin cancer Natural Chelsea Mary Elise Johnson, 2024-10-15

How Black women celebrate their natural hair and uproot racialized beauty standards Hair is not simply a biological feature it s a canvas for expression Hair can be cut colored dyed covered gelled waxed plucked lasered dreadlocked braided and relaxed Yet its significance extends beyond mere aesthetics Hair can carry profound moral spiritual and cultural connotations serving as a reflection of one s beliefs heritage and even political stance In Natural Chelsea Mary Elise Johnson delves into the complex world surrounding Black women s hair and offers a firsthand look into the kitchens beauty shops conventions and blogs that make up the twenty first century natural hair movement the latest evolution in Black beauty politics Johnson shares her own hair story and amplifies the voices of women across the globe who after years of chemically relaxing their hair return to a natural style Johnson describes how many women initially transition to natural hair out of curiosity or as a wellness practice but come to view their choice as political upon confronting personal insecurities and social stigma both within and outside of the Black community She also investigates natural hair entrepreneurs who use their knowledge to create lucrative and socially transformative haircare ventures Distinct from a politics of respectability or Afrocentricity Johnson s argument is that today s natural hair movement advances a politics of authenticity She offers going natural as a practice of self love and acceptance a critique of exclusionary economic arrangements and an exploitative beauty industry and an act of anti racist political resistance Natural powerfully illustrates how the natural hair movement is part of a larger social change among Black women to assert their own purchasing power standards of beauty and bodily autonomy The Libidinal Economy of China Perry Johansson Vig, 2015-10-29 This study of postsocialist China explores the development of a Chinese consumer culture in the 1990s with a special focus on advertising and shifting ideals on female beauty On an analytical level it is an investigation into Chinese nationalism that demonstrates how the desire for recognition as a powerful nation is linked to anxieties about Chinese femininity The book is also on a theoretical level about the libidinal economy of an imaginary China In other words it attempts to unravel the sexuality of geopolitics by describing the association between femininity and China in popular culture and nationalist discourse In addition to advertisements political writings plays and films the archive for this inquiry consists of fieldwork observations and interviews The Libidinal Economy of China engages a range of post colonial and psychoanalytically informed thinkers in a truly cross disciplinary study Lacanian theories on hysteria femininity and narcissism are applied in the international domain of geopolitics to formulate a general theory on China s relationship to the West David Eng and Homi Bhabha are employed for discussing racial fetishism in contemporary China while Slavoj Žižek s ideas on violence and the Other are engaged in explaining the emotional dimension of national identification The study concludes that China and the New Chinese Nationalism is firmly under the gaze of a Western Other analogous to a male gaze That Other rules the libidinal economy of consumer culture which explains China s recurring history of wanting to emulate and catch up with the West while simultaneously reacting to such an attained intimacy with castration anxiety and aggressive hysteria

The Melanin Millennium Ronald E. Hall,2012-09-11

In the aftermath of the 60s Black is Beautiful movement and publication of The Color Complex almost thirty years later the issue of skin color has mushroomed onto the world stage of social science Such visibility has inspired publication of the Melanin Millennium for insuring that the discourse on skin color meet the highest standards of accuracy and objective investigation This volume addresses the issue of skin color in a worldwide context A virtual visit to countries that have witnessed a huge rise in the use of skin whitening products and facial feature surgeries aiming for a more Caucasian like appearance will be taken into account The book also addresses the question of whether using the laws has helped to redress injustices of skin color discrimination or only further promoted recognition of its divisiveness among people of color and Whites The Melanin Millennium has to do with now and the future In the 20th century science including eugenics was given to and dominated by discussions of race category Heretofore there remain social scientists and other relative to the issue of skin color loyal to race discourse However in their interpretation and analysis of social phenomena the world has moved on Thus while race dominated the 20th century the 21st century will emerge as a global community dominated by skin color and making it the melanin millennium
