"From Faraway California" Ali Dehdarirad ,2023-09-15 Offering a transdisciplinary journey across Thomas Pynchon s California trilogy From Faraway California addresses the representation of city space in the Crying of Lot 49 Vineland and Inherent Vice through geourban lenses Drawing on specific concepts in urban and regional studies the book provides a thorough examination of Pynchon s spatial imaginary where the reader comes to understand how his fiction tackles the socio political and cultural consequences of urban restructuring in the contemporary city and the lives of its citizens Pynchon s depiction of California is further analyzed from mythical and environmental standpoints to shed light on his planetary vision and post postmodernist poetics in the span of nearly half a century More broadly the book s geocritical and urban analyses of Pynchon s fiction indicate what might take place concerning the future of urbanism toward planetary urbanization and the formation of the city region

Transatlantic Mysteries William J. Nichols,2011 Transatlantic Mysteries presents a comparative study that brings together authors Paco Ignacio Taibo II and Manuel V zquez Montalb n from two specific political contexts post 1968 Mexico and post Franco Spain who both work in one specific genre noir detective fiction In this so called age of globalization Spain and Mexico have witnessed an explosion in the production of noir detective fiction which these authors choose purposefully in order to infiltrate the market with formulaic popular literature while simultaneously critiquing the effects of the neoliberal strategies embraced by their countries By locating themselves at the crossroads where literature meets the market they not only underscore the effects of capital on literary and cultural production but also explore the possibility for their writing to resist the influences of capital and question the role of an intellectual in an era of globalization At the core of their writing Taibo and V zquez Montalb n examine the revolutionary possibilities of literature and popular culture to offer a new kind of Marxist project that revitalizes the Left by redefining the role of socially engaged literature in a globalized landscape

Detective Fiction in a Postcolonial and Transnational World Dr Marc Singer, Dr Nels Pearson, 2013-04-28

Taking up a neglected area in the study of the crime novel, this collection investigates the growing number of writers who adapt conventions of detective fiction to expose problems of law, ethics, and truth that arise in postcolonial and transnational communities. While detective fiction has been linked to imperialism and constructions of race, from its earliest origins, recent developments signal the evolution of the genre into a potent framework for narrating the complexities of identity, citizenship, and justice in a postcolonial world. Among the authors considered are Vikram Chandra, Gabriel García Márquez, Michael Ondaatje, Patrick Chamoiseau, Mario Vargas Llosa, Suki Kim, and Walter Mosley. The essays explore detective stories set in Latin America, the Caribbean, India, and North America, including novels that view the

American metropolis from the point of view of Asian American African American or Latino characters Offering ten new and original essays by scholars in the field this volume highlights the diverse employment of detective fictions internationally and uncovers important political and historical subtexts of popular crime novels The Enchanted Detective Vittorio Benedetti, The grandfather clock in Detective Inspector Archibald Thornfield s study chimed midnight as he closed the leather bound journal containing his latest case notes The rain drummed steadily against the tall windows of his Baker Street flat and the fire in the hearth had dwindled to glowing embers He was about to retire for the evening when an urgent knocking echoed through his chambers Thornfield set down his brandy snifter and approached the door with measured steps Years of investigating London s most peculiar cases had taught him to expect the unexpected particularly at such ungodly hours He opened the door to find a young woman in a dark blue traveling cloak her auburn hair disheveled and her green eyes wide with terror Detective Inspector Thornfield she asked her voice trembling I am Miss Cordelia Blackwood I desperately need your assistance Something unnatural has happened at Ravenscroft Manor Thornfield had heard whispers of the Blackwood family in certain circles those who dabbled in matters beyond the realm of ordinary police work The family was rumored to possess an extensive library of arcane knowledge passed down through generations of scholars and mystics He gestured for her to enter noting the faint luminescence that seemed to emanate from a pendant around her neck Please sit by the fire he said stoking the coals back to life Tell me what has brought you to my door at this hour Miss Blackwood settled into the wingback chair pulling her cloak tighter around her shoulders My uncle Professor Edmund Blackwood has vanished under the most extraordinary circumstances He was conducting research in our family s private study when I heard him cry out When I reached the room I found it filled with an otherworldly mist and Uncle Edmund was simply gone There were no windows open no other exits and the door had been locked from the inside American Book Publishing Record ,2004
