Sweethearts Bobbie Malone, Bill C. Malone, 2020-03-26 The story of Felice and Boudleaux Bryant is the story of towering artistic achievement wrapped in a love story so deep and so complete that the two are their own country song. Bobbie and Bill Malone are precisely the right match to tell this tale of love and genius. Ken Burns Director Country Music You might not know the names of Boudleaux and Felice Bryant but you know their music. Arriving in Nashville in 1950 the songwriting duo became the first full time independent songwriters in that musical city. In the course of their long careers they created classic hits that pushed the boundaries of country music into the realms of pop and rock. Songs like Bye Bye Love, All I Have to Do Is Dream, Love Hurts and Rocky Top inspired young musicians everywhere. Here for the first time is a complete biography of Nashville's power songwriting couple. In Nashville's Songwriting Sweethearts authors Bobbie Malone and Bill C. Malone recount how Boudleaux and Felice married in 1945, began their partnership as itinerant musicians living in a trailer home and writing their first songs together. In Nashville the couple had to deal with racism, classism and in Felice's case sexism. Yet through hard work and business acumen and a dose of good luck they overcame these obstacles and rose to national prominence. By the late 1990s the Bryants had written as many as 6,000 songs and had sold more than 350 million copies worldwide. They were inducted into the Nashville Songwriters Hall of Fame in 1972 and in 1991 they became members of the Country Music Hall of Fame, a rare occurrence for songwriters who were not also performers. In 1982 their composition Rocky Top was adopted as one of the official state songs of Tennessee. The Bryants were lucky enough to arrive in the right place at the right time. Their emergence in the early fifties coincided with the rise of Nashville as Music City USA. And their prolific collaboration with the Everly Brothers beginning in 1957 sparked a fusion between country and pop music that endures to this day.

A Night on the Moon Larry Gaddy, 2011-11-10 Life and self worth is a blessing that cannot be bought at any price To see through those eyes is to see eternal youth to grow wise with grace and to still die young at any age Watching a colored leaf fall from a tree Seeing its dance upon the wind Hearing the lyrics of a song unsung Humming the melody yet written Writing words that bring teardrops And humbled by the grace of it all Some would say he's a visionary seeing truth beyond the lies twisting a simple word into emotion Question everything He heard so often as a child Looking through the stained glass in his mind's eye somewhere within his fantasy a simple child became a poet He is a story teller In his words you will find a simple truth Hanging on a single word as a lifeline letting go to find another In his world you feel the little things and the miracles they bring Through his eyes the fairies have been seen painting sunsets and rainbows
