Imagining Resistance J. Keri Cronin, Kirsty Robertson, 2011-09-23 Imagining Resistance Visual Culture and Activism in Canada offers two separate but interconnected strategies for reading alternative culture in Canada from the 1940s through to the present first a history of radical artistic practice in Canada and second a collection of eleven essays that focus on a range of institutions artists events and actions The history of radical practice is spread through the book in a series of short interventions ranging from the Refus global to anarchist inspired art and from Aboriginal curatorial interventions to culture jamming In each the historical record is mined to rewrite and reverse Canadian art history reworked here to illuminate the series of oppositional artistic endeavours that are often mentioned in discussions of Canadian art but rarely acknowledged as having an alternative history of their own Alongside authors consider case studies as diverse as the anti war work done by John Lennon and Yoko Ono in Montreal and Toronto recent exhibitions of activist art in Canadian institutions radical films performance art protests against the Olympics interventions into anti immigrant sentiment in Montreal and work by Iroquois photographer Jeff Thomas Taken together the writings in Imagining Resistance touch on the local the global the national and post national to imagine a very different landscape of cultural practice in Canada

When Technocultures Collide Gary Genosko, 2013-11-23 When Technocultures Collide provides rich and diverse studies of collision courses between technologically inspired subcultures and the corporate and governmental entities they seek to undermine The adventures and exploits of computer hackers phone phreaks urban explorers calculator and computer collectors CrackBerry users whistle blowers Yuppies zinesters roulette cheats chess geeks and a range of losers and tinkerers feature prominently in this volume Gary Genosko analyzes these practices for their remarkable diversity and their innovation and leaps of imagination He assesses the results of a number of operations including the Canadian stories of Mafiaboy Jeff Chapman of Infiltration and BlackBerry users The author provides critical accounts of highly specialized attributes such as the prospects of deterritorialized computer mice and big toe computing the role of electrical grid hacks in urban technopolitics and whether info addiction and depression contribute to tactical resistance Beyond resistance however the goal of this work is to find examples of technocultural autonomy in the minor and marginal cultural productions of small cultures ethico poetic diversions and sustainable withdrawals with genuine therapeutic potential to surpass accumulation debt and competition The dangers and joys of these struggles for autonomy are underlined in studies of RIM s BlackBerry and Julian Assange s WikiLeaks website Europe in Its Own Eyes, Europe in the Eyes of the Other David B.

MacDonald, Mary-Michelle DeCoste, 2014-04-23 What is Europe Who is European What do Europe and European identity mean in the twenty first century This collection of sixteen essays seeks to answer these questions by focusing on Europe as it is seen through its own eyes and through the eyes of others across a variety of cultural texts including sport film literature dance cartography and fashion These texts as interpreted here by emerging researchers as well as well established scholars enable us to engage with European identities in the plural and to understand what these identities mean in larger cultural and political contexts The interdisciplinary focus of this volume permits an exploration of European identity that reaches beyond the area of European studies to incorporate understandings of identity from the viewpoints of both insider and other Contributors explore diverse understandings of what it means to be other to a country a culture a society or a subgroup This book offers a fresh perspective on the evolving concept of identity in the context of Europe s past present and future and expands on the existing literature by considering the political tensions and social implications of the development of European identity as well as its literary artistic and cultural manifestations Detecting Canada Jeannette

Sloniowski, Marilyn Rose, 2014-03-25 The first serious book length study of crime writing in Canada Detecting Canada contains thirteen essays on many of Canada s most popular crime writers including Peter Robinson Giles Blunt Gail Bowen Thomas King Michael Slade Margaret Atwood and Anthony Bidulka Genres examined range from the well loved police procedural and the amateur sleuth to those less well known such as anti detection and contemporary noir novels The book looks critically at the esteemed sixties television show Wojeck as well as the more recent series Da Vinci s Inquest Da Vinci s City Hall and Intelligence and the controversial Durham County a critically acclaimed but violent television series that ran successfully in both Canada and the United States The essays in Detecting Canada look at texts from a variety of perspectives including postcolonial studies gender and queer studies feminist studies Indigenous studies and critical race and class studies Crime fiction enjoyed by so many around the world speaks to all of us about justice citizenship and important social issues in an uncertain world Settling and Unsettling Memories Nicole Neatby, Peter Hodgins, 2012-01-01 Settling and Unsettling Memories analyses the ways in which Canadians over the past century have narrated the story of their past in books films works of art commemorative ceremonies and online This cohesive collection introduces readers to overarching themes of Canadian memory studies and brings them up to date on the latest advances in the field With increasing debates surrounding how societies should publicly commemorate events and people Settling and Unsettling Memories helps readers appreciate the challenges inherent in presenting the past Prominent and emerging scholars explore the ways in which Canadian memory has been put into action across a variety of communities regions and time periods Through high quality essays touching on the central questions of historical consciousness and collective memory this collection makes a significant contribution to a rapidly growing field Canuck Rock Ryan Edwardson, 2009-01-01 An invaluable resource and an absorbing read Canuck Rock spans from the emergence of rock and roll in the 1950s through to today's international recording industry Research Handbook on Sport and COVID-19 Paul M. Pedersen, 2022-11-11 This timely Research Handbook examines sport related research and analysis pertaining to how the sport industry has been impacted by the Covid 19 pandemic Taking stock of the changes over the course of the pandemic it also provides key insights into how the sport industry and its stakeholders might move forward in post pandemic times Canadian Television Today Bart Beaty, Rebecca Sullivan, 2006 Whats on TV In Canadian Television Today authors Bart Beaty and Rebecca Sullivan explore the current challenges and issues facing the English language television industry in Canada Covering Niagara Joan Nicks, Barry Keith Grant, 2010-07-03 Covering Niagara Studies in Local Popular Culture closely examines some of the myriad forms of popular culture in the Niagara region of Canada Essays consider common assumptions and definitions of what popular culture is and seek to determine whether broad theories of popular culture can explain or make sense of localized instances of popular culture and the cultural experiences of people in their daily lives Among the many topics covered are local bicycle parades and war memorials cooking and wine culture radio and movie going music stores and music scenes tourist sites and blackface minstrel shows The authors approach their subjects from a variety of critical and historical perspectives and employ a range of methodologies that includes cultural studies textual analysis archival research and participant interviews Altogether Covering Niagara provides a richly diverse mapping of the popular culture of a particular area of Canada and demonstrates the complexities of everyday culture Auto/biography in Canada Julie Rak, 2009-08-02 Auto biography in Canada Critical Directions widens the field of auto biography studies with its sophisticated multidisciplinary perspectives on the theory criticism and practice of self community and representation Rather than considering autobiography and biography as discrete genres with definable properties and rather than focusing on critical approaches the essays explore auto biography as a discourse about identity and representation in the context of numerous disciplinary shifts Auto biography in Canada looks at how life narratives are made in Canada Originating from literary studies history and social work the essays in this collection cover topics that range from queer Canadian autobiography autobiography and autism and newspaper death notices as biography to Canadian autobiography and the Holocaust Grey Owl and authenticity France Thoret and autofiction and a new reading of Stolen Life the collaborative text by Yvonne Johnson and Rudy Wiebe Julie Rak's useful big picture introduction traces the history of autobiography studies in Canada While the contributors chart disciplinary shifts taking place in autobiography studies their essays are also part of the ongoing scholarship that is remaking ways to understand Canada

Making Crime Television Anita Lam, 2013-10-15 This book employs actor network theory in order to examine how representations of crime are produced for contemporary prime time television dramas As a unique examination of the production of contemporary crime television dramas particularly their writing process Making Crime Television Producing Entertaining Representations of Crime for Television Broadcast examines not only the semiotic relations between ideas about crime but the material conditions under which those meanings are formulated Using ethnographic and interview data Anita Lam considers how textual representations of crime are assembled by various people including writers directors technical consultants and network executives technologies screenwriting software and whiteboards and texts newspaper articles and rival crime dramas The emerging analysis does not project but instead concretely examines what and how television writers and producers know about crime law and policing An adequate understanding of the representation of crime it is maintained cannot be limited to a content analysis that treats the representation as a final product Rather a television representation of crime must be seen as the result of a particular assemblage of logics people creative ideas commercial interests legal requirements and broadcasting networks A fascinating investigation into the relationship between television production crime and the law this book is an accessible and well researched resource for students and scholars of Law Media and Criminology

Performance Studies in Canada Laura Levin, Marlis Schweitzer, 2017-06-01 Since its inception as an institutionalized discipline in the United States during the 1980s performance studies has focused on the interdisciplinary analysis of a broad spectrum of cultural behaviours including theatre dance folklore popular entertainments performance art protests cultural rituals and the performance of self in everyday life Performance Studies in Canada brings together a diverse group of scholars to explore the national emergence of performance studies as a field in Canada To date no systematic attempt has been made to consider how this methodology is being taught applied and rethought in Canadian contexts and Canadian performance studies scholarship remains largely unacknowledged within international discussions about the discipline This collection fills this gap by identifying multiple origins of performance studies scholarship in the country and highlighting significant works of performance theory and history that are rooted in Canadian culture Essays illustrate how specific institutional conditions and cultural investments Indigenous francophone multicultural and more produce alternative articulations of performance and reveal national identity as a performative construct A state of the art work on the state of the field Performance Studies in Canada foregrounds
