Small Group Decision Making Communication And The Group Process McGraw Hill Series In Speech:

Small Group Decision Making: Communication and the Group Process B. Aubrey Fisher, 1974 Communication and Group Decision Making Randy Y. Hirokawa, Marshall Scott Poole, 1996-07-09 The long awaited second edition of Communication and Group Decision Making advances a unique perspective on group decisionmaking complementing approaches taken in management psychology and sociology Group communication processes are extremely important yet they have proven to be elusive and difficult to understand and the type of theory necessary to make sense of the processes differs from those commonly found in the social sciences This exceptional book gathers together and discusses a number of strong theoretical frameworks that have developed over the past 15 years Providing important empirical evidence the authors take stock of recent developments in group communication research The essays are distinctive both in their explicit focus on communication processes and in their location in a unique intellectual tradition The Fundamentals of Small Group Communication Scott A. Myers, Carolyn M. Anderson, 2008-01-17 From the Publisher With a focus on the individual group member The Fundamentals of Small Group Communication encourages readers to reflect on how their communication behaviors and practices contribute to their current small group experiences In this easy to read text authors Scott A Myers and Carolyn M Anderson introduce students to the fundamental issues faced by all small groups such as socialization development ethics and diversity and the procedures utilized by effective small groups The book is organized around three overarching themes characteristics of small group communication and the individual group member the group task and group member relationships Each chapter opens with a case study and includes an Ethically Speaking box that allows readers to reflect on how ethics is central to the small group communication process It is intended for undergraduate courses that introduce students to the basic fundamentals of small group communication Creating Communication Randy Fujishin, 2000 Tailored for the hybrid fundamental and introduction courses in speech communications Creating Communication is a brief practical and student friendly introduction to the discipline with a unique theme Students are artists using their words and behaviors to create something new and exciting in their lives and in the lives of others Designed for skills based courses Creating Communication provides students with the basic communication skills necessary to improve their public speaking group interpersonal intercultural leadership and interviewing communication The book helps students develop a greater understanding of the importance of communication skills and motivates them to learn more about communication studies Thorough yet concise Creating Communication covers a full range of topics in a clear organized and engaging way In his distinctive conversational tone Fujishin encourages students to implement powerful changes in the way they communicate with others empowering them to create more productive and meaningful lives as artists of communication Monographic Series Library of Congress, Interpersonal Skills for Portfolio, Program, and Project Managers Ginger Levin DPA, PMP, PgMP, 2010-08-01 Improve Your Interpersonal Skills to Achieve Greater Management Success Any formula for management success must include a high level of interpersonal skills The growing complexity of organizational portfolios programs and projects as well as the increasing number and geographic dispersion of stakeholders and employees makes a manager's interpersonal skills critical The frequency and variety of interpersonal interactions and the pressure to perform multiple leadership roles successfully while ensuring customer satisfaction have never been greater Interpersonal Skills for Portfolio Program and Project Managers offers practical and proven tools and methods you can use to develop your interpersonal skills and meet the challenges of today's competitive professional environment Develop the interpersonal skills you need to Build effective high performing teams Work efficiently with virtual teams Develop approaches to build and maintain relationships with stakeholders at all levels Handle stress and deal with unexpected critical incidents Motivate your team Whatever your level of experience you will find these practical and proven methods to be the best formula for improving your interpersonal skills and enhancing your management success The chapters include discussion questions making this a perfect text for use in academic or workshop settings

New Directions in Group Communication Lawrence R. Frey,2002 New Directions in Group Communication takes as its mission the setting of the agenda for the study of group communication in the future It does so by presenting work that scholars have not previously explored in the current small group communication literature Part I focuses on new theoretical and conceptual directions both presenting new views and extending current positions Part II examines new research methodologies while Part III looks at antecedent factors affecting group communication Parts IV and V of the text provide insight into both group communication process and practices Part VI covers different group communication contexts including communication patterns in top management teams Elements of Speech Communication David M.

Jabusch,Stephen W. Littlejohn,1996 Many of features that have always given The Elements of Speech Communication its character have been retained so that the feel of the book is about the same Every chapter begins with a story or provocative allusion Relevant photographs add interest and give pause for thought And of course the image shifts which have been unique to this book from its inception still challenge students to look at the subject in new ways To make the text easier the authors have added a complete glossary A Collegiate Press book Leadership Communication as Citizenship John O. Burtis,Paul D. Turman,2010 Leadership Communication articulates the important roles communication plays in helping to co construct group organizational or community direction Leadership Communication focuses on the communication skills necessary to help co construct an effective direction in one s systems while playing the varied roles of doer follower guide manager and or leader Leadership Communication is organized around three major units 1 the integrally linked role played by communication and direction givers in constructing our past current and future experiences 2 the communication skills required for different types of direction givers and 3 the nature of dramatic action which represents human engagement in systems that may manifest as ethical action and future experiences This book has a number of unique features including a coherent and unified set of frameworks with which to synthesize and employ a wide range of leadership research results and theory as well as other practical materials from contemporary leadership studies a focus on explaining the common communicative elements and skills e g soliciting and saving narratives for use as teaching tales strategic stories and memorable messages framing and critical incidents dialog discussion and debate involved across seemingly quite different leadership contexts e g working in groups in small organizations in large and complex organizations in social movements in communities and in the broad cultural sweep of civic life a discussion of the different processes for attaining a direction giving role or position given the different needs faced by the system an explanation of the art of following doing and guiding well the small leadership so often overlooked or undervalued in leader centric explanations for effective systems an explanation of three different orientations for communicating the vision selling a vision working with those who are seeking a vision and acting with those for whom a vision is an evoked co construction and a discussion of how crisis as a point of decision or of opportunity can be useful as a source of the energy and rhetorical resources necessary for rare and difficult forms of dramatic action leadership
