Small Worlds Minimalism In Contemporary French Literature:

Small Worlds Warren F. Motte, 1999-01-01 Small Worlds examines the minimalist trend in French writing from the early 1980s to the present. Warren Motte first considers the practice of minimalism in other media such as the plastic arts and music and then proposes a theoretical model of minimalist literature. Subsequent chapters are devoted to the work of a variety of contemporary French writers and a diversity of literary genres. In his discussion of minimalism, Motte considers smallness and simplicity, a reduction of means and the resulting amplification of effect, immediacy, directness, clarity, repetition, symmetry, and playfulness. He argues that economy of expression offers writers a way of renovating traditional literary forms and allows them to represent human experience more directly. Motte provides close readings of novels by distinguished contemporary French writers including Edmond Jabès, Annie Ernaux, Hervé Guibert, Marie Redonnet, Jean Echenoz, Olivier Targowla, and Emmanuelle Bernheim, demonstrating that however diverse their work may otherwise be, they have all exploited the principle of formal economy in their writing. Warren Motte is a professor of French at the University of Colorado Boulder. Playtexts: Ludics in Contemporary Literature (Nebraska, 1995) is his most recent book.

Contemporary Fiction in French Anna-Louise Milne, Russell Williams, 2021-03-25 Our global literary field is fluid and exists in a state of constant evolution. Contemporary fiction in French has become a polycentric and transnational field of vibrant and varied experimentation. The collapse of the distinction between French and Francophone literature has opened up French writing to a world of new influences and interactions. In this collection, renowned scholars provide thoughtful close readings of a whole range of genres from graphic novels to crime fiction to the influence of television and film to analyse modern French fiction in its historical and sociological context. Allowing students of contemporary French literature and culture to situate specific works within broader trends, the volume provides an engaging global and timely overview of contemporary fiction writing in French and demonstrates how our modern literary world is more complex and diverse than ever before.

Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater Fran Mason, 2016-12-12 The main aim of the book has been to include writers, movements, forms of writing, and textual strategies critical ideas and texts that are significant in relation to postmodernist literature. In addition, important scholars, journals, and cultural processes have been included where these are felt to be relevant to an understanding of postmodernist writing. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Postmodernist Literature and Theater contains a chronology, an introduction, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 400 cross-referenced entries on postmodernist writers, the important postmodernist aesthetic practices, significant texts produced throughout the history of postmodernist writing, and important movements and ideas that have created a variety of literary approaches within the form. This book is an excellent access point for students, researchers, and anyone wanting to know more about the postmodernist literature and theater.

Understanding Barthes, Understanding Modernism Jeffrey R. Di Leo, Zahi Zalloua, 2022-07-14

Understanding Barthes Understanding Modernism is a general assessment of the modern literary and philosophical contributions of Roland Barthes The first part of the volume focuses on work published prior to Barthes's death in 1980 covering the major periods of his development from Writing Degree Zero 1953 to Camera Lucida Reflections on Photography 1980 The second part focuses both on the posthumously published material and the legacies of his work after his death in 1980 This later work has attracted attention for example in conjunction with notions of the neutral gay writing and critiques of everyday life The third part is devoted to some of the critical vocabulary of Barthes in both the work he published during his lifetime and that which was published posthumously

Maps and Territories Joshua Armstrong, 2019 The rapidity of postwar globalization and the structural changes it has brought to both social and spatial aspects of everyday life has meant in France as elsewhere the destabilizing of senses of place identity and belonging as once familiar local environments are increasingly de-localized and made porous to global trends and planetary preoccupations Maps and Territories identifies such preoccupations as a fundamental underlying impetus for the contemporary French novel Indeed like France itself the protagonists of its best fiction are constantly called upon to renegotiate their identity in order to maintain any sense of belonging within the troubled territories they call home Maps and Territories reads today's French novel for how it re-maps such territories and for how it positions its protagonists vis-à-vis the pressures of globalization uncovering previously unseen affinities amongst and offering fresh readings of and offering exciting new perspectives on a diverse set of authors namely Michel Houellebecq Chloé Delaume Lydie Salvayre Jean Philippe Toussaint Virginie Despentes Philippe Vasset Jean Rolin and Marie Darrieussecq In the process it sets the literary works into dialogue with a range of today's most influential theorists of postmodernity and globalization including Paul Virilio Marc Augé Peter Sloterdijk Bruno Latour Fredric Jameson Edward Casey David Harvey and Ursula K Heise

Women's writing in contemporary France Gill Rye, Michael Worton, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY-NC-ND open access license The 1990s witnessed an explosion in women's writing in France with a particularly exciting new generation of writers coming to the fore such as Christine Angot Marie Darrieussecq and Régine Detambel Other authors such as Paule Constant Sylvie Germain Marie Redonnet and Leïla Sebbar who had begun publishing in the 1980s claimed their mainstream status in the 1990s with new texts The book provides an up-to-date introduction to an analysis of new women's writing in contemporary France including both new writers of the 1990s and their more established counterparts The editors' incisive introduction situates these authors and their texts at the centre of the current trends and issues concerning French literary

The Subject of Minimalism

Thomas Phillips, 2013-09-04 Utilizing a wide range of theoretical and creative texts Phillips offers an examination of subjectivity as considered enacted and embodied through the frame of minimalist aesthetics Provocatively he makes the claim that lived experience is capable of being refined according to the paradoxically rich parameters of a minimalist aesthetic

A Theory of Minimalism Marc Botha, 2017-10-19

The explosion of minimalism into the worlds of visual arts music and literature in the mid to late twentieth century presents one of the most radical and decisive revolutions in aesthetic history Detested by some embraced by others minimalism's influence was immediate pervasive and lasting significantly changing the way we hear music see art and read literature In The Theory of Minimalism Marc Botha offers the first general theory of minimalism equally applicable to literature the visual arts and music He argues that minimalism establishes an aesthetic paradigm for rethinking realism in genuinely radical terms In dialogue with thinkers from both the analytic and continental traditions including Kant Danto Agamben Badiou and Meillassoux Botha develops a constellation of concepts which together encapsulate the transhistorical and transdisciplinary reach of minimalism Illustrated by a range of historical canonical and contemporary minimalist works of different media from the caves of early Christian ascetics to Samuel Beckett's late prose Botha offers a bold and provocative argument which will equip readers with the tools to engage critically with past present and future minimalism and to recognize how in a culture caught between the poles of excess and austerity minimalism still matters

The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of Paris Anna-Louise Milne, 2013-08-01 No city more than Paris has had such a constant and deep association with the development of literary forms and cultural ideas The idea of the city as a space of literary self consciousness started to take hold in the sixteenth century By 1620 where this volume begins the first in a long line of extraordinary works of the human imagination in which the city represented itself to itself had begun to find form in print This collection follows that process through to the present day Beginning with the salon followed by the hybrid culture of libertinage and the revolutionary hotbeds of working class districts it explores the continuities and changes between the pre modern era and the nineteenth century when Paris asserted itself as cultural capital of Europe It goes on to explore how this vision of Paris as a key capital of modernity has shaped contemporary literature

Thresholds of Meaning Jean Duffy, 2011-06-16 Thresholds of Meaning examines contemporary French narrative and explores two related issues the centrality within recent French fiction and autofiction of the themes of passage ritual and liminality and the thematic continuity which links this work with its literary ancestors of the 1960s and 1970s Through the close analysis of novels and r cits by Pierre Bergounioux Fran ois Bon Marie Darrieussecq H l ne Lenoir Laurent Mauvignier and Jean Rouaud Duffy demonstrates the ways in which contemporary narrative while capitalising on the formal lessons of the nouveau roman and drawing upon a shared repertoire of motifs and themes engages with the complex processes by which meaning is produced in the referential world and in particular with the rituals and codes that social man brings into play in order to negotiate the various stages of the human life cycle By the application of concepts and models derived from ritual theory and from visual analysis Thresholds of Meaning situates itself at the intersection of the developing field of literature and anthropology studies and research into word and image

Fables of the Novel Warren F. Motte, 2003 Readers of the contemporary novel in France are witnessing the most astonishing reinvigoration of narrative prose since the New Novel of the 1950s In the last few years bold innovative and richly compelling novels have been written by a variety of young writers These texts question traditional strategies of character plot theme and message and they demand new strategies of reading too Choosing ten novels published during the 1990s as examples of that trend Warren Motte traces the resurgence of the novel in France He argues that each of the novels under consideration here quite apart from what other stories it tells presents a fable of the novel that deals with the genre s possibilities limitations and future as a cultural form

The Top Books of the Year Small Worlds Minimalism In Contemporary French Literature The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. Small Worlds Minimalism In Contemporary French Literature : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of compelling stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
