Songs Of The 60s vol 4:

The Traditional Tunes of the Child Ballads, Volume 4 Bertrand Harris Bronson, 2015-03-08 With this volume incorporating Ballads 244-305 Bertrand Harris Bronson completes his epic task of providing the musical counterpart to Francis James Child's collection of English and Scottish ballads. As in the previous volumes, the texts are linked with their proper traditional tunes, systematically ordered and grouped to show melodic kinship and characteristic variations developed during the course of oral transmission. Originally published in 1972, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905. *Catalogue of the Allen A. Erlewine, 2001-11 Arranged in sixteen musical categories, provides entries for twenty thousand releases from four thousand artists and includes a history of each musical genre. Television Introductions Vincent Terrace, 2013-11-07 Since the beginning of network television, many shows have been preceded by an announcement or theme song that served various purposes. In the 1950s and 60s, it was common for announcers to declare that a program had been brought to you by a sponsor who paid for the privilege of introducing a show. Other programs such as The Twilight Zone, Star Trek, and The Odd Couple provided a brief encapsulation of the show's subject matter, a practice that has continued for recent shows like Alias, Battlestar Galactica, Person of Interest, and the various editions of Law Order. In Television Introductions, Narrated TV

Program Openings since 1949 Vincent Terrace has assembled openings for more than nine hundred television shows from the past seven decades The only documented history of narrated television program introductions this volume is arranged by type of programming such as comedy drama Western game show soap opera and children s show In addition to quoting the opening material entries provide information about each show s network history and years of broadcast Many entries include descriptions of the show the names of announcers and a list of main cast members as well as a sponsor pitch exactly as spoken Openings for programs with multiple introductions like The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet and Charlie s Angels are also included For programs that featured new guest stars every episode such as game shows and variety programs Terrace has selected a representative introduction In addition to the theme song credits found in the main text there are also appendixes of theme songs and their composers and or singers as well as a listing of commercial releases on DVD VHS CD and LP of shows and their soundtracks A comprehensive resource for researchers and pop culture aficionados alike

Television Introductions provides a fascinating look at this neglected part of TV history Musical Times and Singing Class Circular ,1894 Creative Dance for All Ages 2nd Edition Gilbert, Anne Green,2015-01-28 This second edition of the classic text directs dance teachers through what they need to know to teach creative dance from pre K through adult levels in a variety of settings It includes a sequential curriculum lesson plans editable forms and teacher strategies created by master teacher Anne Green Gilbert
