sun's glory transfer the radiance to her soul and torn ocean's roar not only lifts up her imagination to hear the voices of deep calling unto deep but draws forth her tenderest sympathies for the human suffering and loss caused by the devouring main Nor is it strange that one bred upon the prairies of the West as she was knowing the ocean only by hearsay for many years should be prepared to yield her heart to its mighty charm The boundless plains of her native land whose gentle undulations resemble the long swell of the sea their verdure almost matching its hue their groves easily mistaken for islands that like to rich and various gems inlay the unadorned bosom of the deep would school the eye and mind of Mrs Springer to see and tell of things invisible to most of us when she came to stand by the multitude of great waters through which she beholds Jehovah riding upon His horses and chariots of salvation About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works SONGS OF THE SEA EPES.
