Songs of Labor, and Other Poems Morris Rosenfeld, 2019-12-09 In Songs of Labor and Other Poems, Morris Rosenfeld provides an evocative and poignant exploration of the struggles and aspirations of the working class during the late 19th century. Through a lyrical style characterized by vivid imagery and rhythmic precision, Rosenfeld captures the profound human experiences of factory workers, immigrants, and laborers striving for dignity amid harsh socioeconomic realities. His poems are steeped in the spirit of social realism, reflecting the zeitgeist of an era defined by industrialization and labor movements while also imbued with a sense of hope and resilience that transcends individual suffering. Morris Rosenfeld, a Jewish immigrant from the Pale of Settlement, found himself deeply influenced by the trials faced by his contemporaries in urban America. Having experienced poverty and oppression firsthand, his works resonate with a personal authenticity that challenges prevailing social injustices. His role as a poet and a labor activist underscored the intersection of art and advocacy, allowing him to champion the voices often silenced in mainstream literature. Songs of Labor and Other Poems is not just a collection of verses; it is a clarion call for social awareness and empathy. Readers seeking a profound understanding of the labor movement's cultural and historical context will appreciate Rosenfeld's eloquent representations of struggle and perseverance. This work is invaluable for anyone wishing to delve deeper into the intersection of poetry and social justice in American literature.      Songs of Labor, and Other Poems. by John G. Dedication I would the gift I offer here Might grace from thy favor take
And seen through Friendship's atmosphere
On softened lines and coloring
Wear The unaccustomed light of beauty for thy sake
Few leaves of Fancy's spring remain
But what I have I give to thee
The over-sunned bloom of summer's plain
And paler o'ers the latter rain
Calls from the westering slope of life's autumnal lea Above the fallen groves of green Where youth's enchanted forest stood The dry and wasting roots between A sober after growth is seen As springs the pine where falls the gay leafed maple wood About the Publisher
