Voices and Visions of Education: Heroes, Leaders, and Elders Charles H Wheatley OBE PhD, 2019-06-04 From the birth of a formal education system through the end of slavery in the early nineteenth century to today's struggles to incorporate technology into classrooms this book delivers a detailed history of schooling in the British Virgin Islands. Charles H Wheatley OBE PhD a lifelong educator and school administrator has been practicing his craft since 1955 when the first Education Act was passed in the Virgin Islands Legislature. He puts the classroom to life on the printed page. The author highlights the struggles and triumphs of the leaders elders and heroes in the growth of the educational system focusing on the period from 1834 to 2016. On this journey you will hear various voices of British Virgin Islanders as they fought for better educational opportunities for the children of the territory and you will see faces of change as society evolved. Each chapter addresses issues in education from a historical perspective with the characteristics of each historical period clarifying the roots from which our educational

Who's who in New Zealand Max Lambert, 1991 Learning Jazz Ken Prouty, 2023-11-27 Learning Jazz Jazz Education History and Public Pedagogy addresses a debate that has consumed practitioners and advocates since the music's early days Studies on jazz learning typically focus on one of two methods institutional education or the kinds of informal mentoring relationships long associated with the tradition Ken Prouty argues that this distinction works against a common identity for audiences and communities Rather what happens within the institution impacts and is impacted by events and practices outside institutional contexts While formal institutions are well defined in educational and civic contexts informal institutions have profoundly influenced the development of jazz and its discourses Drawing on historical case studies Prouty details significant moments in jazz history He examines the ways that early method books capitalized on a new commercial market

commandeering public expertise about the music Chapters also discuss critic Paul Eduard Miller and his attempts to develop a jazz canon as well as the disconnect between the spotlighted great men and the everyday realities of artists Tackling race in jazz education Prouty explores the intersections between identity and assessment bandleaders Stan Kenton and Maynard Ferguson public school segregation Jazz at Lincoln Center and more He further examines jazz s public pedagogy and the sometimes difficult relationships between jazz people and the general public Ultimately Learning Jazz posits that there is room for both institutional and noninstitutional forces in the educational realm of jazz
