Described as the most significant contribution to Sonia Delaunay studies in a decade, this catalogue sets a new standard for the study of this pioneering avant garde artist, designer and entrepreneur. 1885-1979. Eschewing traditional chronological structures to better showcase groundbreaking research unifying the artist's timeless oeuvre across mediums, this publication demonstrates Delaunay's innate versatility and willingness to create without material limitation using her unique language of light and color. Textiles, fashion, interiors, book art and more are highlighted across 26 chapters by leading international scholars to give new insight into Delaunay's strategies of self-promotion, entrepreneurial endeavors, legacy building efforts and vast network of collaborators. These in-depth analyses, including previously underinvestigated material such as film, mosaics, tapestries and interior design, offer a comprehensive perspective on Delaunay's lifelong effort to unite art with life by harnessing the energy of technological advancement and the beauty of artisanal craftsmanship. Finally, an appendix provides a unique personal note: an epilogue by Patrick Raynaud, the last living member of Delaunay's atelier, is a touching firsthand account of the artist's working practices toward the end of her life. The design by award-winning book creator Irma Boom embraces Sonia Delaunay's own approach to layout and typography, rendering a book that unites past and present to become a work of art in its own right. Together they glide into a landscape made up of colours and shapes drawn from Sonia's early abstract compositions, almost as if they've entered one of her paintings. Along the road, they make pit stops at sites that inspired some of Sonia's key paintings of this period, such as the dance hall depicted in her 1913 work Bal Bullier and the open-air Portuguese market that was the subject of her 1915 painting March au Minho. Sonia and Charles also explore her gorgeous and colourful designs for fabrics and clothing. Through these encounters, Sonia helps her son understand her artistic process of abstracting from reality by asking Charles what shapes and colours he discerns within these subjects. Their journey ends back in the real world and Charles realizes that his mother's thinking about art permeates every aspect of their life. Sonia Delaunay Sonia Delaunay, Michel
