Sorcerers Village:

Sorcerers of Dobu R. F. Fortune, 2013-09-13 Ever since its first publication in 1932 Sorcerers of Dobu has been recognized as one of the great triumphs of anthropological research and interpretation in the field of ethnography A rich source of information on primitive psychology the book presents sociological analysis of the complex tribal organisation of the Dobuans Originally published in 1932 Sorcerer's Magick Erik Kristofer Lucero, 2024-01-20 Jarith Southgard is a master sorcerer looking for someone to help him with his house That is when he meets Emerick Forester a woodworker in a small town When Jarith realizes that Emerick unknowingly uses magick in his work he offers to teach Emerick how to use his skill only to be shown another way to tap into the magick that flows through everything The resistance opposes the Magick Guild for their control over society Their attacks on the Magick Guild are to show their frustration but escalate to a near war Marcus de Lonthal head of the Academy wants to control the guild and change who is allowed to learn As he slowly gets closer to his goal he continues to confront the resistance Jarith spies on the resistance only to discover they want the same things the Guild wants He wants to work with them to stop Marcus and help all the people With Emerick's help they need to find out how the gift from the Goddess can be used to better mankind Death and Dying Richard Kalish, 2019-04-09 Death is a constant in every society but each of the world's cultures views the end of life differently This book examines beliefs about dying burial and life after death held by peoples of wide ranging societies Sorcerers' Village. With Photos. by Ruth and Hassoldt Davis Ruth Davis, Hassoldt Davis, 1956 On the Order of Chaos Mark S. Mosko, Frederick H. Damon, 2005 The essays in this volume collectively transform perspectives previously experienced as divergent conflicting and inconsistent into a common and complex orientation to problems central to the natural and social sciences involving transitions between order and disorder Jacket The cutting edge how to face evil sorcerers WAHID ABDUSSALAM BALI, 2014-01-01 The Leiden Tradition in Structural Anthropology Rob de Ridder, Rob Ridder, Jan A. Paul Stoller, 2005-04-15 After more than fifty years of good health anthropologist Paul Stoller suddenly found himself diagnosed with lymphoma The only thing more transformative than his fear and dread of cancer was the place it ultimately took him twenty five years back in time to his days as an apprentice to a West African sorcerer Adamu Jenitongo Stranger in the Village of the Sick follows Stoller down this unexpected path toward personal discovery growth and healing The stories here are about life in the village of the healthy and the village of the sick and they highlight differences in how illness is culturally perceived In America and the West illness is war we strive to eradicate it from our bodies and lives In West Africa however illness is an ever present companion and sorcerers learn to master illnesses like cancer through a combination of acceptance pragmatism and patience Stoller provides a view into the ancient practices of sorcery revealing that as an apprentice he learned to read divining shells mix potions and recite incantations But it wasn't until he got cancer that he realized that sorcery embodied a more profound meaning one that every person could use Sorcery is a body of knowledge and practice that enables one to see things clearly and to walk with confidence on the path of fear      Almanac of the Dead

Mabanckou, 2012-04-01 All human beings says an African legend have an animal double Some doubles are benign others wicked This legend comes to life in Alain Mabanckou's outlandish surreal and charmingly nonchalant Memoirs of a Porcupine When Kibandi a boy living in a Congolese village reaches the age of 11 his father takes him out into the night and forces him to drink a vile liquid from a jar that has been hidden for years in the earth This is his initiation From now on he and his double a porcupine become accomplices in murder They attack neighbors fellow villagers and people who simply cross their path for reasons so slight that it is virtually impossible to establish connection between the killings As he grows older Kibandi relies on his double to act out his grizzly compulsions until one day even the porcupine balks and turns instead to literary confession Winner of the Prix Renaudot France s equal to the National Book Award Alain Mabanckou is considered one of the most talented writers today He was selected by the French journal Lire as one of fifty writers to watch this coming century And as Peter Carey suggests he positions himself at the margins tapping the tradition founded by Celine Genet and other subversive writers In this superb and striking story Mabanckou brings new power to magical realism and is sure to excite American audiences nationwide
