The Soul in Love Deepak Chopra, M.D.,2007-12-18 No love is more consuming and passionate than that one has for God And nothing is more beautiful than that love when it is expressed as poetry In The Soul in Love Deepak Chopra presents us with five great writers whose lives span seven centuries Rumi the sublime Persian poet who sang out his verses in ecstatic longing for God Mirabai an Indian princess who walked away from her life of privilege to be closer to her Dark Lord Kabir born to a lowly family of weavers in India only to rise to the heights of wisdom and song Hafiz an Islamic master who reveled in the joys of the flesh as a way to the soul And Tagore the celebrated modern Indian writer who first made the West aware of the richness of Eastern devotional poetry Returning to the theme that inspired The Love Poems of Rumi and On the Shores of Eternity Deepak Chopra gives us a rapturous experience of human passion inspired by the soul's yearning for the sacred source of love Immortal love doesn't need poetry However it is our good fortune that some of the God intoxicated have written words that permit access into their ecstatic world Particularly in the East in that exotically woven belt of lands that stretches from Arabia to the Indian subcontinent poets and saints are never far apart In this collection I have gathered a few of the most revered beginning in the medieval period and extending to this century The name of Rumi has gathered much luster recently but the others Kabir Hafiz Tagore and Mirabai deserve just as much recognition In their own cultures they stand as beacons of inspiration largely because the common people have taken them into their hearts and continue joyfully to sing their words to this very day From the Introduction

This is the first complete translation of the nearly 2 000 quatrains attributed to Jalaluddin Rumi the famous 13th century mystical poet It is the result of over 22 years of collaboration by an American Rumi scholar and an Afghan scholar of Persian literature It should appeal to a wide variety of lovers of Mawlana Rumi s poetry not just specialists general readers who seek a deeper understanding of his spiritual teachings than popularized books often interpretive versions claimed as translations can provide as well as those interested in religious mysticism in general and Islamic mysticism sufism in particular The quatrains are ordered according to stages and themes of the lover and beloved spiritual disciple and sufi master Most of the translations are followed by explanatory notes those intended for the general reader have asterisks and often refer to the Notes an appended glossary Readers who have access to previously published translations and versions of the quatrains can use the appended Concordance to make comparisons Quatrains in the earliest manuscripts that have been found to be composed by earlier poets have been identified and placed in another appendix Few of the quatrains have been previously translated by scholars the quatrains in popularized books are often distorted versions mostly rendered by authors who do not know Persian those who do often tend to omit change or add Here the poems are presented in the context of the Islamic sufi poetry in the Persian language 800 years ago wine and drunkenness do not involve alcoholic intoxication but are metaphors for the mystical taste of spiritual grace and ecstasy The lover s longing and self effacing love is not romantic but spiritual love of the seeker for his sufi guide This love is a means to the goal of pure worship of God Most High the only Beloved that necessitates self effacement and mystical drowning in the reality described in the Qur an Everything perishes except His Face □□□□□□□□□□□□ □□□,2021-12-29 The Writers Directory ,2013 American Book Publishing Record ,2001
