The Gothic Rainbow:

The Gothic Rainbow Eric Muss-Barnes, 2013-01-25 Helle Tompkins has reached the end of her days as an outcast suburban teenager Ever since her beloved father killed himself and they released Helle from the mental hospital for trying to join him she s been in a place where her pain is far deeper than high school melodrama No more hiding behind black lipstick and a mohawk Now she s playing with pagan charms Wiccan rites and the scrying sorcery of her Ouija board It s the perfect distraction until she summons the attention of a charming and sinister faerie prince A seductive spirit lurking in the shadows of treebranches shimmering upon her walls he may be something much more horrible than he claims Will she succumb to bewitching promises and find salvation in his cruel embrace or will his own agonizing secrets draw Helle into even deeper heartbreak

The Gothic Rainbow Eric Muss-Barnes, 1997-01-01 The Gothic Rainbow: Beginning Volume of the Vampire Nocturnaries Eric Muss-Barnes, 2013-02-16 Shadows know nothing of what you have seen do they And everyone who meets you would never suspect all the pain you have endured this life Enough to make death that much closer on those certain nights all alone when things get really bad Death you know well The stories it can tell Every page carved to your blood Despair And a thousand sentences of crucifixion have you been read and convicted in a tomb built of your own hands Your story is nothing Write all your stupid self indulgent poems and cry all your pathetic tears of self pity No one cares at all This book is for the lost For all who have cried without making a sound All who have longed for moments that never were Within these pages shines a dim candle down every path of your oblivion Along these words leads a road down which you shall never turn back A story carved from the part of your soul that knows more agony than all The first time you read these words was a solitary moment in time that every sorrow in your life had delivered you to You are home
