The Gourd Dancer N. Scott Momaday, 1976 Momaday draws on various traditions and influences especially Native American oral tradition in poems that shift between nature and society past and present actuality and legend The Gourd Dancer N. Scott Momaday, 1976 Momaday draws on various traditions and influences especially Native American oral tradition in poems that shift between nature and society past and present actuality and legend Encyclopedia of American Indian Literature Jennifer McClinton-Temple, Alan Velie, 2015-04-22 Presents an encyclopedia of American Indian literature in an alphabetical format listing authors and their works American Indian Literature Kimberly Wieser-Weryackwe, 2025-07-10 Discover the essential people works movements and themes in American Indian literature American Indian literature is a varied and vibrant collection of Indigenous artistic expression American Indian novelists poets essayists and critics have over the last four centuries asserted powerful forms of intellectual and artistic sovereignty writing in English while building on discrete tribal oral traditions and forms of storytelling This encyclopedia introduces readers to the key historical and contemporary figures in American Indian literature and their defining works From the fiery sermons of Methodist minister William Apress to the Pulitzer Prize winning novel House Made of Dawn by N Scott Momaday to the critically acclaimed and commercially successful novels of Louise Erdrich this book illustrates the indelible and influential imprint American Indians have on the landscape of American letters Readers are also introduced to the key themes and context of American Indian literature exploring how it is inextricable from American literary history the American literary canon and the narrative of American history not on the fringes of the American experience but central to it Blood Narrative Chadwick Allen, 2002-08-06 Compares the discourses of indigeneity used by Maori and Native American peoples and proposes the concept treaty discourse to characterize the relevant form of postcolonial situation Conversations with N. Scott Momaday N. Scott Momaday, 1997 When his first novel House Made of Dawn was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for fiction in 1969 N Scott Momaday was virtually unknown Today he is the most acclaimed Native American writer working at the peak of his creative power and gaining stature also as an important painter His first retrospective was held in 1993 at the Wheelwright Museum in Santa Fe The son of a Kiowa artist and a Cherokee Anglo mother Momaday synthesizes multiple cultural influences in his writing and painting While much of his attention focuses on the difficult task of reconciling ancient traditions with modern reality his work itself is an example of how the best of the Indian and non Indian worlds can be arranged into a startling mosaic of seemingly contradictory cultural and artistic elements Momaday sees his writings as one long continuous story a working out of his evolving identity as a modern Kiowa It is a story grounded in the oral tradition of his ancestors and told in the modes of the traditional storyteller and the modern novelist poet who is steeped in the best writings of American and European literature The interviews in this volume span the period from 1970 to 1993 Momaday responds candidly to questions relating to his multicultural background his views on the place of the Indian in American literature and society his concern for conservation and an American land ethic his theory of language and the imagination the influences on his artistic and academic development and his comments on specific works he has written The reader who joins these conversations will meet in N Scott Momaday a careful listener and an engaging often humorous speaker whose commentaries provide a deeper vision for those interested in his life and work The Cambridge Companion to American Poetry and Politics since 1900 Daniel Morris, 2023-04-27 This book helps readers make sense of the scope and complexity of the relationships between poetry and politics since 1900 Native American Writers Harold Bloom, Sterling Professor of Humanities Harold Bloom, 2010 Presents a collection of critical essays analyzing modern Native American writers including Joy Harjo Louise Erdrich James Welch and more Reading, Learning, Teaching N. Scott Momaday Jim Charles, 2007

The Columbia Literary History of the United States Emory Elliott, 1988-02-15 For the first time in four decades there exists an authoritative and up to date survey of the literature of the United States from prehistoric cave narratives to the radical movements of the sixties and the experimentation of the eighties This comprehensive volume one of the century's most important books in American studies extensively treats Hawthorne Melville Dickinson Hemingway and other long cherished writers while also giving considerable attention to recently discovered writers such as Kate Chopin and to literary movements and forms of writing not studied amply in the past Informed by the most current critical and theoretical ideas it sets forth a generation's interpretation of the rise of American civilization and culture The Columbia Literary History of the United States contains essays by today's foremost scholars and critics overseen by a board of distinguished editors headed by Emory Elliott of Princeton University These contributors reexamine in contemporary terms traditional subjects such as the importance of Puritanism Romanticism and frontier humor in American life and writing but they also fully explore themes and materials that have only begun to receive deserved attention in the last two decades Among these are the role of women as writers readers and literary subjects and the impact of writers from minority groups both inside and outside the literary establishment
