The Grand Trunk Road Khyber To Calcutta:

Days and Nights on the Grand Trunk Road Anthony Weller, 1997 Provides a travel narrative for a journey along one of the oldest and most perilous roads in the world through Pakistan and India The Grand Trunk Road, Khyber to Calcutta John Wiles, 1972 The Great Trunk Road, 1972 Cultural Landscapes of South Asia Kapila Silva, Amita Sinha, 2016-10-14 Winner of the Environmental Design Research Association's 2018 Achievement Award The pluralism of South Asia belies any singular reading of its heritage In spite of this diversity its cultural traditions retain certain attributes that are at their core South Asian in their capacity to self organize enact and reinvent cultural memories and in their ability to retain an intimate connection with nature and landscape This volume focuses on the notion of cultural landscape as a medium integrating multiple forms of heritage and points to a new paradigm for conservation practices in the South Asian context Even though the construct of cultural landscape has been accepted as a category of heritage its potent use in heritage management in general and within the South Asian context in particular has not been widely studied The volume challenges the prevalent views of heritage management in South Asia that are entrenched in colonial legacies and contemporary global policy frameworks

Around the World on a Bicycle Fred A. Birchmore, 2020 This classic once hard to find travelogue recalls one of the very first around the world bicycle treks Filled with rarely matched feats of endurance and determination Around the World on a Bicycle tells of a young cyclist's ever changing and maturing worldview as he ventures through forty countries on the eve of World War II It is an exuberant youthful account harking back to a time when the exploits of Richard Byrd Amelia Earhart and other adventurers stirred the popular imagination In 1935 Fred A Birchmore left the small American town of Athens Georgia to continue his college studies in Europe In his spare time Birchmore toured the continent on a one speed bike he called Bucephalus after the name of Alexander the Great's horse A born wanderer Birchmore broadened his travels to include the British Isles and even the Mediterranean After a lengthy unplanned detour in Egypt Birchmore put his studies on hold pointed Bucephalus eastward and just kept going From desert valleys to frozen peaks from palace promenades to muddy jungle trails Birchmore saw it all on his eighteen month twenty five thousand mile odyssey Some of the people he encountered had never seen a bike or for that matter an Anglo European As a good travel experience should Birchmore's trip changed his outlook on strangers Always daring outgoing and energetic he now saw an innate goodness in people In between bone breaking spills wild animal attacks and privation of all kinds Birchmore learned that he had little to fear from human encounters That he traveled through a world on the brink of global war makes this lesson even more remarkable and timeless
