The Politics Of The Imagination A Life Of Fr Scott:

The politics of the imagination Sandra Djwa,1987 An Exceptional Law Dennis G. Molinaro,2017-01-01 An Exceptional Law showcases how the emergency law used to repress labour activism during the First World War became normalized with the creation of Section 98 of the Criminal Code following the Winnipeg General Strike Law, Policy, and International Justice Maxwell Cohen,1993 Law Policy and International Justice is a collection of essays published in honour of Judge Maxwell Cohen As a law professor dean and scholar and through domestic and international public service Cohen has played an important part in determining the direction of the law and legal institutions in Canada as well as internationally The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars,2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole The History of Canada Series - The Last Act: Pierre Trudeau Ron Graham,2011-04-05 Between the morning of Wednesday November 4 and the morning of Thursday November 5 1981 a fateful drama unfolded that changed Canada forever In one last attempt to renew the constitution with the consent of the provinces Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau met behind closed doors in Ottawa with the ten premiers It was the culmination of more than five decades of constitutional wrangling and has been called the most important conference since the Fathers of Confederation got together in Quebec City in 1864 Faced with the threat of Quebec independence the ambitions of Western Canada and the provinces demands for more power Trudeau was embattled But he was fiercely determined to make Canadians fully independent and to entrench a Charter of Rights and Freedoms What happened that day still reverberates It severed the last important link to Canada s colonial past It guaranteed individual liberty and minority rights in the future It weakened the grip of the elites and gave ownership of the constitution to Canadians But it came at a price Quebec alone refused to sign the final deal Ren L vesque its separatist premier claimed he had been betrayed by his allies in the Gang of Eight The legend of the Night of the Long Knives took hold precipitating a series of events that came close to destroying the country Thirty years later author Ron Graham delivers a gripping account of the fractious debates and secret negotiations He uses newly uncovered documents and the candid recollections of many of the key participants to create a vivid record of that momentous twenty four hours Authoritative and engaging The Last Act is a remarkable combination of scholarly research and historical narrative A Companion to Literary Biography Richard Bradford,2018-11-28 An authoritative review of literary biography covering the seventeenth century to the twentieth century A Companion to Literary Biography offers a comprehensive account of literary biography spanning the history of the genre across three centuries The editor an esteemed literary biographer and noted expert in the field has encouraged contributors to explore the theoretical and methodological questions raised by the writing of biographies of writers The text examines how biographers have dealt with the lives of classic authors from Chaucer to contemporary figures such as Kingsley Amis The Companion brings a new perspective on how literary biography enables the reader to deal with the relationship between the writer and their work Literary biography is the most popular form of writing about writing yet it has been largely neglected in the academic community This volume bridges the gap between literary biography as a popular genre and its relevance for the academic study of literature This important work Allows the author of a biography to be treated as part of the process of interpretation and investigates biographical reading as an important aspect of criticism Examines the birth of literary biography at the close of the seventeenth century and considers its expansion through the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries Addresses the status and writing of literary biography from numerous perspectives and with regard to various sources methodologies and theories Reviews the ways in which literary biography has played a role in our perception of writers in the mainstream of the English canon from Chaucer to the present day Written for students at the undergraduate level through postgraduate and doctoral levels as well as academics A Companion to Literary Biography illustrates and accounts for the importance of the literary biography as a vital element of criticism and as an index to our perception of literary history Fighting with the Empire Steve Marti,William John Pratt,2019-04-01 Canadians often characterize their military history as a march toward nationhood but in the first eighty years of Confederation they were fighting for the British Empire From 1867 to 1947 war or threat of war forced Canadians to define and redefine their relationship to Britain and to one another As French Canadians Indigenous peoples and those with roots in Continental Europe and beyond mobilized in support of imperial war efforts their participation challenged the imagined homogeneity of Canada as a British nation From soldiers overseas to workers on the home front and from the cultural ties of imperial pageantry to the bonds of race and class Fighting with the Empire examines the paradox of a national contribution to an imperial war effort This insightful collection of connected case studies explores the middle ground between narratives that celebrate the emergence of a nation through warfare and those that equate Canadian nationalism with British imperialism

Prophets, Pastors and Public Choices Roger Hutchinson, Canadian Corporation for Studies in Religion, 1992-05-25 The Mackenzie Valley natural gas pipeline debate included many actors This is the first in depth study in comparative religious ethics to examine the debate with a particular focus on the role of the Canadian churches In 1974 twenty seven of the world s largest oil and natural gas companies applied for permission to build a pipeline through the Mackenzie Valley to transport Alaskan and northern Canadian gas to large southern markets Many northern native peoples opposed the proposal and called for a moratorium on major northern development projects until native land claims had been settled The mainline Canadian Christian churches supported the call for a moratorium and through the interchurch coalition Project North campaigned against the pipeline However some native peoples supported the proposal to build the pipeline and many of the pipeline s proponents were members of churches that called for a moratorium on the project This case study in comparative religious ethics though written from a pro moratorium stand attempts to clarify the debate Conflicting responses to the pipeline proposal are assessed in relation to hard facts concerning the need for northern gas in the South social scientific findings regarding the impact of the pipeline on native communities the rights of native peoples to participate in decisions affecting their lives assumptions about the way of life of non native people in the South and the role of religious convictions in public choices This thoroughly researched study reveals the inner workings and influences of the Canadian churches involved and illustrates their commitment on behalf of the northern natives opposed to the project

Design and Agency John Potvin, Marie-Ève Marchand, 2020-05-14 Design and Agency brings together leading international design scholars and practitioners to address the concept of agency in relation to objects organisations and people The authors set out to expand the scope of design history and practice avoiding the heroic narratives of a typical modernist approach They consider both how the agents of design construct and express their identities and subjectivities through practice while also investigating the distinctive contribution of design in the construction of individual identity and subjectivity Individual chapters explore notions of agency in a range of design disciplines and historical periods including the agency of women in effecting changes to the design of offices and working practices the role of Jeffrey Lindsay and Buckminster Fuller in developing the design of a geodesic dome Le Corbusier s Casa Curutchet a re consideration of the gendered historiography of the Jugendstil movement and Bruce Mau s design exhibitions Taken together the essays in Design and Agency provide a much needed response to the traditional texts which dominate design history With a broad chronological span from 1900 to the present and an equally broad understanding of the term design it expands how we view the discipline and shows how design itself can be an agent for social cultural and economic change

The Canadian Modernists Meet Dean Irvine, 2005-07-12 The Canadian Modernists Meet is a collection of new critical essays on major and rediscovered Canadian writers of the early to mid twentieth century F R Scott's well known poem The Canadian Authors Meet sets the theme for the volume a revisiting of English Canada's formative movements in modernist poetry fiction and drama As did Scott's poem Dean Irvine's collection raises questions about modernism and antimodernism nationalism and antinationalism gender and class originality and influence that remain central to contemporary research on early to mid twentieth century English Canadian literature Published in English Fool For Christ Allen Mills, 1991-12-15 James Shaver Woodsworth 1874-1942 stands as one of the half dozen most important national political figures in twentieth century Canadian history Allen Mills acknowledges his outstanding achievements while providing a critical account of the Woodsworth legacy and revising the received opinion of him as a man of unbending conviction and ever coherent principle A product of western Canada's pioneer society and a stern Methodist household Woodsworth grew up to make his way into social service and political action A member of parliament for over twenty years he rejected the traditional forms of political activity seeking a new politics and a new political party The latter turned out to be the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation founded in 1932 Its first leader was Woodsworth himself In a crucial period between the World Wars Woodsworth helped define the character of the modern Canadian non-Marxist Left and of many of Canada's important economic and social institutions Among them are the welfare state the Bank of Canada and Canada's internationalist role in the contemporary world Electronic Format Disclaimer Quotes by T S Eliot F R Scott and Louis MacNeice removed at the request of the rights holder Sorry, I Don't Speak French Graham Fraser, 2009-02-24 As the threat of another Quebec referendum on independence looms this book becomes important for every Canadian especially as language remains both a barrier and a bridge in our divided country Canada's language policy is the only connection between two largely unilingual societies English speaking Canada and French speaking Quebec The country's success in staying together depends on making it work How well is it working Graham Fraser an English speaking Canadian who became bilingual decided to take a clear-eyed look at the situation The results are startling a blend of good news and bad The Official Languages Act was passed with the support of every party in the House way back in 1969 yet Canada's language policy is still a controversial red-hot topic jobs ideals and ultimately the country are at stake And the myth that the whole thing was always a plot to get francophones top jobs continues to live Graham Fraser looks at the intentions the hopes the fears the record the myths and the unexpected reality of a country that is still grappling with the language challenge that has shaped its history He finds a paradox after letting Quebec lawyers run the country for three decades Canadians keep hoping the next generation will be bilingual but forty years after learning that the country faced a language crisis Canada's universities still treat French as a foreign language He describes the impact of language on politics and government not to mention social life in Montreal and Ottawa in a hard hitting book that will be discussed everywhere including the headlines in both languages Land Sliding William H. New, 1997-01-01 New discusses the ways in which Canadian writing through images of land and space expresses various assumptions about social values In addition to wide range of literary texts he also draws upon geography the social sciences and the visual arts The Governor General's Literary Awards of Canada Andrew David Irvine, 2018-11-27 The definitive bibliography of Canada's Governor General's Literary Awards Alice Munro Michael Ondaatje Margaret Atwood Antonine Maillet Carol Shields Marie Claire Blais Gilles Vigneault For over three quarters of a century the Governor General's Literary Awards have been instrumental in recognizing many of Canada's best authors illustrators and translators The result is impressive between 1936 and 2017 705 titles have been recognized with this prestigious award With careful attention to detail Andrew Irvine presents the history and evolution of the Awards and extols their importance for the careers of authors illustrators and translators as well as for the development of Canada's national literature The heart of the book contains the first comprehensive bibliography of the awards including the first list of winning books organized according to their historically correct award categories information about five books wrongly omitted from previous lists of winning titles detailed information about award ceremonies film adaptations and jury members and other key information This is a seminal work that belongs on the shelf of every scholar and every lover of Canadian literature This book is published in English Une bibliographie incontournable des Prix littéraires du Gouverneur général du Canada Alice Munro Margaret Atwood Antonine Maillet Carol Shields Marie Claire Blais Michael Ondaatje Gilles Vigneault Les écrivains canadiens sont depuis longtemps encensés sur la scène nationale comme l'échelle mondiale et les Prix du Gouverneur général jouent un rôle clé dans la reconnaissance de certains de nos meilleurs auteurs illustrateurs et traducteurs La liste est impressionnante ce prestigieux prix a récompensé 705 œuvres entre 1936 et 2017 Avec un souci minutieux au détail Andrew Irvine présente l'histoire et l'évolution des Prix et vante leurs vertus indispensables la carrière des écrivains et des traducteurs ainsi que dans l'élaboration d'une littérature nationale au Canada Cette bibliographie est la toute première recension complète des Prix littéraires du Gouverneur général et donne des renseignements détaillés au sujet des cérémonies des adaptations cinématographiques des membres des jurys ainsi que d'autres informations clés Le livre présente aussi une copie exhaustive et exacte de données bibliographiques tirées d'archives une première dans le monde de l'édition En somme une référence incontournable Ce livre est publié en anglais The Thousandth Man Barry Cahill, 2000-12-15 James McGregor Stewart 1889-1955 was perhaps the foremost Canadian corporate lawyer of his day He was also an appellate counsel venture capitalist Conservative Party fundraiser bibliographer of Rudyard Kipling and sometime university teacher of classics A leader of the bar in the inter war period he was the first Maritimer to serve as president of the Canadian Bar Association He distinguished himself mainly in constitutional cases before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council During his career Stewart was also head of the leading law firm in eastern Canada now Stewart McKelvey Stirling Scales director and vice president of the Royal Bank of Canada and senior counsel to the Royal Commission on Dominion Provincial Relations Above all Stewart was committed to the idea of law as a truly learned profession and to the bar as the most important legal institution To this day no lawyer has held such prestige and power both within and outside Atlantic Canada in his time he was the only Maritime lawyer who gained full acceptance by every branch of the Canadian establishment Thematic rather than chronological in approach this fascinating legal biography provides both a history of a uniquely Canadian career and an interpretation of its significance for Stewart's time and ours The Promise of Legality Geneviève Cartier, Mark D Walters, 2025-05-15 This book assembles critical contributions on the work of TRS Allan the Professor Emeritus of Jurisprudence and Public Law at the University of Cambridge whose leading work in legal and constitutional theory spans almost 45 years Allan has charted a distinctive path for legal political and moral theory and practice and has become a highly significant figure in the UK and in common law parliamentary systems around the world His ideas challenge established opinions about constitutional law within these systems as well as established views about the rule of law from more abstract or philosophical perspectives Allan claims that law and morality find an inherent connection through the rule of law He argues that there is a connection that flourishes in common law jurisdictions because although Parliament has sovereign legislative powers its laws gain their full legal meaning only through an interpretive lens This lens seeks to reconcile sovereign will with legality's basic moral ideals especially the idea that law must be general and capable of guiding behaviour and thus respectful of the equality and dignity of its subjects Allan's scholarship is powerful yet controversial and it has inspired 20 leading scholars from the UK Canada Australia and New Zealand to engage with the central themes of his work By doing so the contributors help to make that work accessible to a new generation of scholars and students They also provide a timely framework for engaging in the most important challenges facing our democracies today how our legal systems do or do not honour and respect democracy and therefore legislative sovereignty while at the same time honouring and respecting the rule of law or the Promise of Legality Fool for Christ Allen George Mills, 1991-01-01 In a crucial period between the World Wars Woodsworth helped define the character of the modern Canadian non Marxist Left and of many of Canada's important economic and social institutions The Montreal Forties Brian Trehearne, 1999-01-01 During WWII a number of Canadian poets converged on Montreal and rewrote the story of modern English Canadian poetry The book discusses the four major English Canadian poets to emerge in the 40s PK Page AM Klein Irving Layton and Louis Dudek

Aestheticism and the Canadian Modernists Brian Trehearne, 1989 Using a wide range of scholarly evidence to support his argument that most poets of the first Canadian Modernist generation were strongly influenced by the ideas and practice of literary Aestheticism Brian Trehearne provides new readings of Canadian poets such as Robert Finch John Glassco W W E Ross A J M Smith and F R Scott Canadian History: Confederation to the present Martin Brook Taylor, Doug Owram, 1994-01-01 In these two volumes which replace the Reader's Guide to Canadian History experts provide a select and critical guide to historical writing about pre and post Confederation Canada with an emphasis on the most recent scholarship Cover
