Lienkaemper,William J. Perry,1983 This history of placer mining of the gold deposits of east central Alaska near the town of Circle covers its development from 1893 to date and includes a summary of the regional geology and of the gravels of each creek Subject Catalog, 1977 Library of Congress,1977 The Postal Record ,1896 U.S. Geological Survey Bulletin ,1983 A History of Law in Canada, Volume Two Jim Phillips,Philip Girard,R. Blake Brown,2022-11-01 This is the second of three volumes in an important collection that recounts the sweeping history of law in Canada The period covered in this volume witnessed both continuity and change in the relationships among law society Indigenous peoples and white settlers The authors explore how law was as important to the building of a new urban industrial nation as it had been to the establishment of colonies of agricultural settlement and resource exploitation The book addresses the most important developments in the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries including legal pluralism and the co existence of European and Indigenous law It pays particular attention to the Métis and the Red River Resistance the Indian Act and the origins and expansion of residential schools in Canada The book is divided into four parts the law and legal institutions Indigenous peoples and Dominion law capital labour and criminal justice and those less favoured by the law A History of Law in Canada examines law as a dynamic process shaped by and affecting other histories over the long term

A History of Photography in Canada, Volume 1 Martha Langford, 2025-09-22 From early reports of the invention to its wide application during World War I the idea of photography created anticipation and participation in the modern world The first volume of A History of Photography in Canada captures this phenomenon by looking at hundreds of photographs generated in and about Canada in the making and by listening to the chords they struck in the collective imagination Emphasizing technological readiness and cultural eagerness for the medium Martha Langford shows how photography served ideals of progress and improvement as Canada's settler society looked to master the world by seizing its visible traces The imposition of these programs on Indigenous Peoples and indentured labourers is confronted throughout this volume which offers both narratives and counternarratives of subjectification Reproducing images of people places events and objects from the unceded territories of the First Nations Inuit and Métis from British North America and from the Dominion of Canada and the Dominion of Newfoundland Langford asks where and when photographs were taken why and by whom How did the making and preservation of a photograph alter the circumstances in which it was produced and how did this affect individual and collective consciousness Alongside accomplished portraits landscapes still lifes and their vernacular counterparts the book draws glimmers of photographic experience from treatises and doggerel official reports and personal diaries newspapers magazines letters and travelogues Anticipation to Participation chronicles eight decades of reinvention and repurposing from a wondrous discovery to the wide adoption of a basic tool for knowledge gathering artmaking and journaling Langford's sweeping narrative rewrites the history of photography from the bottom up vividly expanding the definition of photographic experience Canadiana, 1982
