Conjugal Relationships in Chinese Culture Chi Sum Garfield Lau, Kelly Kar Yue Chan, 2023-04-16 This book reviews the presentation of conjugal relationships in Chinese culture and their perception in the West It explores the ways in which the act of marriage is represented misrepresented in different literary genres as well as in cultural adaptations It looks at the gendered characteristics at play that affect conjugal relationships in Chinese societal practices more widely It also distinguishes between the essential features that give rise to nuptial arrangements from the Chinese perspective looking at what in which Sino and or Western mentalities differ in terms of notions of autonomy in marriage It excavates the extent to which marriage is constituted in forms of transaction between female and male bodies and asks under what circumstances wedding ceremonies constitute archetypal or counter archetypal notions in pre modern and modern society Authors cover a range of fascinating cultural topics such as posthumous marriage necrogamy as an ancient and popular folk culture from the perspective of Confucian ideology as well as looking at marriage from ancient to present times duty and rights in conjugal relations inter racial and inter cultural marriage widowhood in Confucian ideology issues of legitimacy in marriage and concubinage the taboos surrounding divorce and re marriage and conjugal violence The book serves to revisit the cultural connections between marriage and various art forms including literature film theatre and other adaptations It is a rich intellectual resource for scholars and students researching the historical roots cultural interpretations and evolving aspects of marriage as shown in literature art and culture

Liminality and the Short Story Jochen Achilles, Ina Bergmann, 2014-12-05 This book is a study of the short story one of the widest taught genres in English literature from an innovative methodological perspective Both liminality and the short story are well researched phenomena but the combination of both is not frequent This book discusses the relevance of the concept of liminality for the short story genre and for short story cycles emphasizing theoretical perspectives methodological relevance and applicability Liminality as a concept of demarcation and mediation between different processual stages spatial complexes and inner states is of obvious importance in an age of global mobility digital networking and interethnic transnationality Over the last decade many symposia exhibitions art and publications have been produced which thematize liminality covering a wide range of disciplines including literary geographical psychological and ethnicity studies Liminal structuring is an essential aspect of the aesthetic composition of short stories and the cultural messages they convey On account of its very brevity and episodic structure the generic liminality of the short story privileges the depiction of transitional situations and fleeting moments of crisis or decision It also addresses the moral transgressions heterotopic orders and forms of ambivalent self reflection negotiated within the short story's confines This innovative collection focuses on both the liminality of the short story and on liminality in the short story

The Publishers Weekly, 2000 Harper's, 2000 Harper's New Monthly Magazine, 2000-09 Important American periodical dating back to 1850 The Life of the Buddha and the Art of the Nation Sonal Khullar, 2004 Paul Auster's Writing Machine Evija Trofimova, 2014-08-28 Paul Auster is one of the most acclaimed figures in American literature Known primarily as a novelist Auster's films and various collaborations are now gaining more recognition Evija Trofimova offers a radically different approach to the author's wider body of work unpacking the fascinating web of relationships between his texts and presenting Auster's canon as a rhizomatic fictional network produced by a set of writing tools Exploring Auster's literal and figurative use of these tools the typewriter the cigarette the doppelgänger figure the city Evija Trofimova discovers Auster's writing machine a device that works both as a means to write and as a construct that manifests the emblematic writer figure This is a book about assembling texts and textual networks the writing machines that produce them and the ways such machines invest them with meaning Embarking on a scholarly quest that takes her from between the lines of Auster's work to between the streets of his beloved New York and finally to the man himself Paul Auster's Writing Machine becomes not just a critical investigation but a critical collaboration raising important questions about the ultimate meaning of Auster's work and about the relationship between texts their authors their readers and their critics

Social Works Shannon Jackson, 2011-02-21 a game changer a must read for scholars students and artists alike Tom Finkelpearl At a time when art world critics and curators heavily debate the social and when community organizers and civic activists are reconsidering the role of aesthetics in social reform this book makes explicit some of the contradictions and competing stakes of contemporary experimental art making Social Works is an interdisciplinary approach to the forms goals and histories of innovative social practice in both contemporary performance and visual art Shannon Jackson uses a range of case studies and contemporary methodologies to mediate between the fields of visual and performance studies The result is a brilliant analysis that not only incorporates current political and aesthetic discourses but also provides a practical understanding of social practice

The New Atheist Novel Arthur Bradley, Andrew Tate, 2010-02-11 The New Atheist Novel is the first study of a major new genre of contemporary fiction It examines how Richard Dawkins's so-called New Atheism movement has caught the imagination of four eminent modern novelists Ian

McEwan Martin Amis Salman Rushdie and Philip Pullman For McEwan and his contemporaries the contemporary novel represents a new front in the ideological war against religion religious fundamentalism and after 9 11 religious terror the novel apparently stands for everything freedom individuality rationality and even a secular experience of the transcendental that religion seeks to overthrow In this book Bradley and Tate offer a genealogy of the New Atheist Novel where it comes from what needs it serves and most importantly where it may go in the future What is it How does it dramatise the war between belief and non belief To what extent does it represent a genuine ideological alternative to the religious imaginary or does it merely repeat it in secularised form This fascinating study offers an incisive critique of this contemporary testament of literary belief and unbelief

Holocaust Literature: Agosín to Lentin S. Lillian Kremer, 2003 Review This encyclopedia offers an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the important writers and works that form the literature about the Holocaust and its consequences The collection is alphabetically arranged and consists of high quality biocritical essays on 309 writers who are first second and third generation survivors or important thinkers and spokespersons on the Holocaust An essential literary reference work this publication is an important addition to the genre and a solid value for public and academic libraries The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004

Igniting Social Action in the ELA Classroom Robyn Seglem, Sarah Bonner, 2022 This practical book provides teachers with step by step guidance for developing a class culture that welcomes curiosity and ignites social action Student driven inquiry has a lasting impact on learning yet questions posed from students own contexts rarely serve to shape their understanding of the outside world The authors show teachers how to use literature to introduce characters and worlds that exist outside of their students lived experiences Through this exposure students can develop questions that seek to build empathy for others which ultimately positions young people to be change agents in their communities and in the larger world This book translates ideas from theorists in critical literacy student motivation and culturally responsive pedagogy into practical approaches for the English language arts and social studies classroom 6 12 Each chapter poses questions designed to get teachers thinking about how to use mind opening texts with students to address social problems Book Features Shows teachers how to use literature to help students navigate a shifting world Equips students with the skills to advocate for themselves and others including using digital tools in meaningful effective ways Asks students to face controversial points of view head on and interrogate the world in which they live Includes examples of discussions that lead to projects and opportunities that allow youth to do work in the community Demonstrates how to move theory into practice providing teachers with the rationale for using inquiry as disruption if questioned by stakeholders Contains a scope and sequence that outlines an entire year devoted to inquiry as well as how to break it down into individual units and lessons
