The Power and Passion of M. Carey Thomas Helen Horowitz, 1999-04 Best known as the second president and primary architect of Bryn Mawr College M Carey Thomas was also a leader in the women s suffrage movement This book captures the life and personality of this influential woman and details her accomplishments as an educator and feminist and her relationships with women her racism and her anti-Semitism The Power and the Passion Adam Houge, 2013-03 In the early church the believers lives were filled with the Spirit and power of God They were not just friends but a closely bonded family forming their own culture separate from the unbelievers who surrounded them They made it their living passion to follow the Lord according to truth having only one doctrine With their hearts on fire miracles power and demonstrations of the Holy Spirit were normal for everyday life These things were done that your faith should not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of God 1 cor 2 5 But somewhere through time things have changed We act more as friends than family and truth has many versions We hardly see the power and miracles the early church saw only hearing stories of isolated events But power doesn t come unless the passion comes first In this book you will learn how to experience daily the living power of God and the passion of Jesus Christ in your life You will learn how to bring back the early church that it may be alive and real again today The Power of Passion Brian M. Gazzard, 2015-04-28 You cannot be a Christian if you are cool The world supposedly admires coolness and has made cool into a term of admiration Not so with Jesus Christ He is saying that unless your commitment is hot unless it is passionate it has no relationship to Him Elton Truebloods statement is compelling for Christians Only a passionate faith can confront the disturbing personal and social issues of our time Lukewarm lip service to the great promises of Scripture simply has no sustaining power and churches which adhere to a lukewarm faith will continue to decline Theologian Emil Brunner states The church exists by mission as a fire exists by burning How else can it grow The only way you know whether anything is on fire is whether it will start another fire The metaphor of fire is used to describe our relationship with Christ In the so called Gospel of Thomas found in the dry sands of Egypt Jesus says I came to cast fire upon the earth He who comes close to me comes close to the fire In this book Dr Gazzard seeks to inspire and empower individuals to grow into a passionate faith by sowing seeds of inspiration drawn from his The Power of Will in International Conflict Wayne Michael Hall, 2018-09-20 This comprehensive work provides a treasure trove of ways to seek find and use the power of will to gain an advantage over one's opponents in mental conflicts Will has been and always will be the basis for succeeding in any conflict or competition To win in a conflict or competition decision makers must comprehend the meaning and implications of will and successfully transform theories about it into practice In the 21st century it is especially important for military leaders and security professionals to comprehend will in sufficient depth to enable them to impose their will on other resisting entities and learn how to block or parry their adversaries efforts to impose their will on them This book will go a long way in helping decision makers achieve these goals Each chapter in this book addresses one of 14 elements that will help readers to use will successfully over their adversaries life force purpose strength of motive capabilities determination perseverance sacrifice passion advantage disadvantage imposition action assessment and adaptation The book also provides readers with 18 considerations that will serve them well in all types of conflicts This book will be particularly beneficial to decision makers in the military law enforcement and business as well as attorneys and judges

The Mystery and the Passion David G. Buttrick, 2002-09-06 resurrection and death in order to connect modern preaching with the excitement of a changed world Although we may be jaded by sermons that chase Bible verses tediously for twenty minutes or more original listeners heard the gospel as a huge excitement The apostles announced a changed world The human world they claimed had begun all over again we are living now in a new creation They invited startled listeners to join God's new humanity From the Introduction Buttrick's treatment is no romanticizing of early Christianity The church then was as dismaying as it is now Instead this book focuses on the early Christian sense that they had passed from death to new life a reversal that began with Jesus' resurrection then explored his passion and finally his ministry and life This book carefully examines the Gospel traditions so that this great reversal can be captured in Christian theology and proclamation

The Passion of Infinity Daniel Greenspan, 2008-11-03 The Passion of Infinity generates a historical narrative surrounding the concept of the irrational as a threat which rational culture has made a series of attempts to understand and relieve It begins with a reading of Sophocles Oedipus as the paradigmatic figure of a reason that having transgressed its mortal limit becomes catastrophically reversed It then moves through Aristotle's ethics psychology and theory of tragedy which redefine reason's collapses in moral psychological rather than religious terms By changing the way in which the irrational is conceived and the nature of its relation to reason Aristotle eliminates the concept of an irrationality which reason cannot in principle dissolve The book culminates in an extensive reading of Kierkegaard's pseudonyms who in a critical retrieval of both Greek tragedy and Aristotle prescribe their apparently pathological age a paradoxical task develop a finite form of subjectivity willing to undergo an unthinkable thought allow the transcendence of a god to enter into the mind as well as the marrow to make a tragic appearance in which a limit to the immanence of human reason can again be established The Passion Patrick Keddle, 2018-03-30 In 1981 a young semi professional footballer known as Imam Beckenbauer for his piety and his dominant style of play has his career cut short after a confrontation with Turkey's military junta His name was Recep Tayyip Erdogan and three decades later he is Turkey's most powerful ruler since Ataturk Turkey is a nation obsessed with football From the flares which cover the stadium with multi coloured smoke and often bring play to a halt to the conductors ultras who lead the walls of sound at matches Turkish football has always been an awesome spectacle And yet in this politically fraught country caught between the Middle East and the West football has also always been so much more From the fan groups resisting the government in the streets and stands to ambitious politicians embroiling clubs in Machiavellian shenanigans football in Turkey is a site of power anger and resistance Journalist and football obsessive Patrick Keddle takes us on a wild journey through Turkey's role in the world's most popular game He travels from the streets of Istanbul where fans dodge tear gas and water cannons to the plains of Anatolia where women are fighting for their rights to wear shorts and play sports He meets a gay referee facing death threats Syrian footballers trying to piece together their shattered dreams and Kurdish teams struggling to play football amid war The Passion also tells the story of the biggest match fixing scandal in European football and sketches its murky connections to the country's leadership In doing so he lifts the lid on a rarely glimpsed side of modern Turkey Funny touching and beautifully observed this is the story of Turkey as we have never seen it before The Passion of Perpetua and Felicity Thomas J. Heffernan, 2011-07-01 Winner of the Modern Language Association Prize for a Scholarly Edition One of the most widely read and studied texts composed in Late Antiquity is the prison diary of Vibia Perpetua a young woman of the elite classes who was martyred in March of the year 202 or 203 C E in Carthage as part of a civic celebration honoring Caesar Geta She was well married and had recently become the mother of a baby son but despite her advantages she refused to recant her faith when she was arrested with other recent converts to Christianity Imprisoned with her was her pregnant slave Felicity Perpetua's steadfastness in her belief led to her martyrdom in the amphitheater A description of the heroic deaths of both women and the autobiography of one of the leaders of the Christian community Saturus is woven into Perpetua's diary by an anonymous editor who tells us that as they died Perpetua Felicity and the other condemned Christians bid farewell with a kiss of peace This unique and precious text survives in one Greek and in nine Latin manuscript versions Thomas Heffernan's new study contains much that has never been done before including a prosopography of all the individuals mentioned in the Passion a new English translation and the first detailed historical commentary in English on the entire narrative of the Passion It also includes a newly edited version of the Latin text based on all the extant manuscripts and rarer still the Greek text He concludes the book with a complete codicological description of all of the known manuscripts and thorough scholarly indices of the text itself Perpetua's prison diary is a revered text of early Christianity and Heffernan's new translation and commentary brings unprecedented scholarly resources to the much loved Passion

Texts of the Passion Thomas H. Bestul, 2015-08-05 In this book Thomas H Bestul constructs the literary history of the Latin Passion narratives placing them within their social cultural and historical contexts He examines the ways in which the Passion is narrated and renarrated in devotional treatises paying particular attention to the modifications and enlargements of the narrative of the Passion as it is presented in the canonical gospels Of particular interest to Bestul are the representations of Jews women and the body of the crucified Christ Bestul argues that the greatly enlarged role of the Jews in the Passion narratives of the twelfth and thirteenth centuries is connected to the rising anti Judaism of the period He explores how the representations of women particularly the Virgin Mary express cultural values about the place of women in late medieval society and reveal an increased interest in female subjectivity
