The Practice of Cultural Analysis Mieke Bal, Bryan Gonzales, 1999 Cultural analysis is devoted to understanding the past as part of the present as what we have around us The essays gathered here represent the current state of an emerging field of enquiry The Practice of Cultural Analysis Mieke Bal, 2022 This volume presents an interdisciplinary approach to humanistic scholarship one that can be situated somewhere between cultural studies and cultural history while being more specific than either Cultural analysis as a critical practice is based on a keen awareness of the critic's situatedness in the present the social and cultural present from which we look and look back at objects that are already of the past objects that we take to define our present culture Thus it can be summarized by the phrase cultural memory in the present Far from being indifferent to history cultural analysis is devoted to understanding the past as part of the present as what we have around us The essays gathered here represent the current state of an emerging field of inquiry At the same time they suggest to the larger academic world what cultural analysis can and should do or be as an interdisciplinary practice The challenge for this volume is to counter the common assumption that interdisciplinarity makes the object of inquiry vague and the methodology muddled In meeting that challenge it offers close textual and visual readings of subjects ranging from Vermeer to abstract expressionism from the Book of Ruth to Djuna Barnes's Nightwood from the history of cinema to popular culture in Zaire The essays in Part I Don't Look Now Visual Memory in the Present explore in detailed case studies centered on the theme of visibility or looking the tricky consequences of the uncertainties regarding history that the presentness of the past entails Part II Close ups and Mirrors The Return of Close Reading with a Difference demonstrates and advocates listening to the object without the New Critical caveat that claims the text speaks for itself Instead the essays create the kind of dialogical situation that is a major characteristic of cultural analysis the text does not speak for itself but it does speak back The essays in Part III Method Matters Reflections on the Identity of Cultural Analysis do not propose any directions for use or authoritative statements on how to do cultural analysis Arranged in pairs of opposites the essays represent the kind of fruitful tension that stimulates debate Though no definite answers are proposed and conflicting views are left in conflict the essays stimulate a self reflection on cultural analysis its practices and its understandings Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1999-04 "Ätzende bilder, beißende worte" Marcel Paul Rotter, 2004 Cultural Memory Studies Astrid Erll, Ansgar Nünning, Sara B. Cultural Memory Malcolm Miles, Vardan Azatyan, 2010 On the Topology of Cultural Memory Thiemo Breyer, 2007

Cultural Studies Stefan Herbrechter, 2002 This volume claims that interdisciplinarity and translation constitute the two main challenges for cultural studies today These conceptual issues inter and trans express themselves within specific historical and cultural contexts Interdisciplinarity is linked with the ongoing process of the institutionalisation of cultural studies in national academies but also increasingly internationally comparatively and to a certain extent even globally of cultural studies of global culture Translation concerns cultural studies both as an object or product and as a subject or producer of translation processes Cultural studies is the result of translation translates and is being translated The essays in this volume therefore relate these various ongoing cultural linguistic and institutional translation processes to political and ethical issues of internationalisation and globalisation The contributions draw their originality and strength from strategically crossing disciplinary and national boundaries They deliberately ignore the question of what may be proper to cultural studies and instead problematise the notions of propriety and belonging As a reading practice cultural studies in these pages is performed through adaptations and combinations of theory and critical practice The volume should be of interest to everyone concerned with cultural studies role in promoting intellectual debate within an increasingly international and globalised public sphere understandable      Cultural Studies in Question Marjorie Ferguson, Peter Golding, 1997-04-14 This major text offers a critical reappraisal of the contemporary practice of cultural studies. It focuses in particular on the contribution of cultural studies to the understanding of media communications and popular cultures in contemporary societies. The contributors are an outstanding group of internationally acclaimed scholars who examine topics such as the different strands of cultural studies and how they are developed, whether cultural studies is a coherent discipline, tensions and debates within cultural studies, alternative or related approaches to contemporary media and society, and the movement by cultural studies revisionists towards more empirical and sociological modes of analysis.
