Vayda, 1986 Field Instruction in Social Work Education Roshni Nair, Srilatha Juvva, Vimla V. Nadkarni, 2019-10-28 A comprehensive guide to social work praxis this book provides a clear conceptual understanding of fieldwork supervision in India It elaborates on the dynamic components of fieldwork instruction the methodologies and effective strategies the supervisor student agency triad challenges and the future The volume underlines the importance of student mentoring and the imperative need to develop creative and competent strategies to make fieldwork education more responsive and effective

It also emphasises the need for the inclusion of social justice oriented perspectives and approaches in fieldwork training in India. Instructive and anecdotal the chapters in this volume reflect on the challenges which students and supervisors face on a regular basis in different environments while dealing with critical circumstances. The focus of the book is to delineate strategies and approaches which promote skill building and the ability in students to understand sociocultural contexts of the field and engage with them effectively. This volume will be an essential resource for social work educators, field practitioners and students of social work, law, public policy, sociology and social entrepreneurship.

The Practice of Field Instruction in Social Work Marion Bogo, 1987 Fieldwork Training in Social Work Bishnu Mohan Dash, Sanjoy Roy, 2019-07-01

This volume is a definitive manual for students and practitioners involved in learning and developing essential theories and models for fieldwork practicum in social work education. It addresses various functional issues in field practicum, delineates proper guidelines for students and supervisors, discusses criteria of supervision and evaluation and explores the concerns facing South Asian field practitioners. The volume focuses on traditional and non traditional components and aspects of fieldwork and training such as The value and use of educational camps and skill development workshops. The contemporary field level needs and strategies in social work practicum. Formulating alternative practice theories that will allow social work practitioners to respond to the critical social problems unique to India and South Asia. The book provides multiple frameworks for teaching and learning fieldwork that integrate theory and practice and create an environment where students can develop intervention strategies using their knowledge, skills and techniques. The volume will be indispensable reading for undergraduate and post graduate students of social work. It will also be useful for scholars of sociology, anthropology and development studies and practitioners engaged in various non governmental and international organizations.

Social Work Practice Education Beyond the Pandemic Riccardo Guidi, Christian Spatscheck, 2024-10-22

This book offers unprecedented knowledge about how social work practice education has been restructured under the challenges of the COVID 19 pandemic and how the adaptations and innovations generated during this time have become a supplementary tool of current social work education worldwide. Based on the European research project SWoPEd (Social Work Practice Education in Times of Pandemics and Beyond Continuities, Changes and Innovations in Europe), this contributed volume provides a unique international perspective from different European countries that are accomplished through insights from authors in other continents. The book addresses topics through a glocal approach using a comparative perspective and a multi method design. It adopts the IASSW/IFSW Global Standards for Social Work Education and Training as well as considers the heterogeneity of national social work education systems in Europe, North America, Africa and the Asia and Pacific region. The volume's contents are organized in three sections. In Part I, the authors compare the structures and designs of social work practice education programs and the reactions of the schools of social work to the COVID 19 related restrictive measures on a European level. In Part II, the authors provide in depth analyses on how the pandemic experimentations have been re adapted and used in some European countries and which innovations and findings were identified that could be integrated now and in the context of other crises In Part III the authors contextualize these experiences and display the paths and analyses from schools in non European countries as well as finally identify the crucial current challenges and opportunities for social work practice education at a global level Social Work Practice Education Beyond the Pandemic is a key reference for the global community of social work education including academics educators field instructors practitioners and students It provides an inspiring source for all the innovators in the field of higher education in social work and highlights how social work practice education can be designed in a more resilient and sustainable way that directs social work practice education into the future
