The Prairie Builder Walter Murray Of Saskatchewan:

The Prairie Builder David R. Murray, Robert A. Murray, 1984 Saskatchewan Premiers of the Twentieth Century Gordon L. Barnhart, 2004 From the optimism associated with provincial status in 1905 through the trials of Depression and war the boom times of the post war period and the economic vagaries of the 1980s and 1990s the twentieth century was a time of growth and hardship development challenge and change for Saskatchewan and its people And during the century twelve men from a variety of political parties and from very different backgrounds led the government of this province The names of some like T C Douglas and Roy Romanow are still household names while others like Charles Dunning and William Patterson have been all but forgotten Yet each in his unique way for better or for worse helped to mould and steer the destiny of the province he governed These are their stories No Ordinary Academics Shirley Spafford, 2000-01-01 Describes the circumstances and people that turned a department in an isolated prairie university into a thriving intellectual community that would nurture some of Canada's best minds Cultures, Communities, and Conflict Euthalia Lisa Panayotidis, Paul James Stortz, 2012-01-01 Contributing to the social intellectual and academic history of universities the collection provides rich approaches to integral issues at the intersection of higher education and wartime including academic freedom gender peace and activism on campus and the challenges of ethnic diversity The contributors place the historical university in several contexts not the least of which is the university's substantial power to construct and transform intellectual discourse and promote efforts for change both on and off campus Essays in the History of Canadian Law: In honour of R.C.B. Risk Philip Girard, Osgoode Society, 1981-01-01 The collected essays in this volume represent the highlights of legal historical scholarship in Canada today All of the essays refer back in some form to Risk's own work in the field Essays in the History of Canadian Law George Blain Baker, Jim Phillips, 1999-12-15 This volume in the Osgoode Society's distinguished series on the history of Canadian law is a tribute to Professor R C B Risk one of the pioneers of Canadian legal history and for many years regarded as its foremost authority The fifteen original essays are by notable scholars some of whom were students of Professor Risk and represent some of the best and most original work in the area of Canadian legal history They cover a number of important topics that range from the form of the criminal trial in the eighteenth century to debates over the meaning of property in the nineteenth and to lawyer poet Tom MacInnes's views on the law of aboriginal title in the twentieth century The Musical World of Frances James and Murray Adaskin Gordana Lazarevich, 1988 Gerhard Herzberg: An Illustrious Life in Science Boris P. Stoicheff, National Research Council Canada, 2002 A biography of one of the most influential scientists in the twentieth century Border Crossings Kerry Alcorn, 2013-11-01 At the dawn of the last century a shift in direction emerged among education policy makers in Saskatchewan Prior to 1905 the territories that would become Saskatchewan and Alberta maintained a school system largely modelled after Ontario's British inspired system Between 1905 and 1937 however the shared geography and culture of the continental plains that span the border between the United States and Canada became the primary influence on education in the Canadian prairies In Border Crossings Kerry Alcorn examines Saskatchewan's embrace of the culture of farmer revolt and populist and progressive democratic thought that originated south of the border He argues that as a consequence Saskatchewan education developed in resistance to eastern Canadian forms with education policy makers some brought in from the United States consciously looking to their southern neighbours for direction in developing educational models Alcorn's detailed portrait of University of Saskatchewan president Walter C Murray and his Wisconsin Idea further highlight the influence of the north-south axis A challenge to standard histories of Canadian education Border Crossings encapsulates the development of the meaning practice and language of Saskatchewan education in the early twentieth century New Brunswick at the Crossroads Tony Tremblay, 2017-10-25 What is the relationship between literature and the society in which it incubates Are there common political social and economic factors that predominate during periods of heightened literary activity New Brunswick at the Crossroads Literary Ferment and Social Change in the East considers these questions and explores the relationships between periods of creative ferment in New Brunswick and the socio-cultural conditions of those times The province's literature is ideally suited to such a study because of its bicultural character in both English and French periods of intense literary creativity occurred at different times and for different reasons What emerges is a cultural geography in New Brunswick that has existed not in isolation from the rest of Canada but often at the creative forefront of imagined alternatives in identity and citizenship At a time when cultural industries are threatened by forces that seek to negate difference and impose uniformity New Brunswick at the Crossroads provides an understanding of the intersection of cultures and social economies contributing to critical discussions about what constitutes the creative in Canadian society especially in rural non-central spaces like New Brunswick Sir Robert Falconer James G. Greenlee, 1988-12-15 Biblical scholar social critic and internationalist Robert Alexander Falconer was also the foremost Canadian university leader of his generation serving as president of the University of Toronto from 1907 to 1932 James Greenlee's biography chronicles his development as an academic leader and a public man Saskatchewan History, 2015 Research and Reform Richard A.
