The Preaching Event Lyman Beecher Lectures:

The Preaching Event John R. Claypool, 1990 God's Word Through Preaching. The Lyman Beecher Lectures before the Theological Department of Yale College John Hall, 2025-07-12 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Sacramentality of Preaching Todd Townshend, 2009 In the time of the church transformation renewal and the process of coming to faith rely on the symbolic efficacy of speech where God is encountered as a word The Sacramentality of Preaching examines the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and incorporates it into contemporary homiletical theory in order to bolster and renew Christian proclamation that has an intentionally sacramental character Liturgical preachers will find practical pathways frameworks and common language through the use of this innovative sacramentology The Holy Spirit & Preaching James Forbes, 2010-09-01 Describes what it means to be anointed with the Spirit so that one can preach to raise the dead In The Holy Spirit and Preaching James A Forbes Jr widely hailed as one of the nation's foremost preachers offers four dynamic lectures originally delivered as the Lyman Beecher Lectures at Yale University the most prestigious annual preaching event in the United States In each of the lectures Forbes focuses on the Holy Spirit as it relates to preaching He traces the Holy Spirit's activity in Jesus' ministry and looks at the impact of being anointed by the Holy Spirit Forbes demonstrates how the Holy Spirit works with the pastor in the preparation and delivery of a sermon The Holy Spirit and Preaching concludes by focusing on the need for anointed preaching and the way anointed preaching happens today Preaching Words John S. McClure, 2007-01-02 John McClure's Preaching Words highlights the most important ideas in homiletics and preaching offering short explanations of these ideas what scholars of preaching are saying about them and how they can help in today's preaching Topics range from elements of the sermon introduction body and conclusion to aspects of delivery types of preaching in different Christian traditions and theories of preaching Preaching and the Personal J Dwayne Howell, 2014-07-31 Preaching is a very personal process a minister or speaker prepares his or her own sermon and presents it to the congregation Sermons draw upon the Bible as a central source and the source provides a basis of faith for the believing community The preaching event is also personal for the individual members of the congregation who receive the preacher's words based on a biblical text in their own unique way In the synthesis of Biblical text sermon and listener response many testimonies are present Preaching and the Personal is a collection of papers that have been presented at the Society of Biblical Literature These papers encourage and nurture dialogue among scholars who share an interest in the unique theological problems inherent to the relationship between biblical interpretation and proclamation Preaching and the Personal opens a stimulating dialogue in the field The Calling from God Dr. Lowell Hardy, 2018-05-11 The Calling from God shares an in-depth analysis of various callings to individuals to preach from a biblical standpoint It comes in unique ways

for each individual So the exact nature of the calling from God is difficult at best to describe for it does not lend itself to any private interpretation especially to someone not privy to the calling Within the text the reader will learn about the struggles of various people with God and within themselves All experiences are coercing demanding and cajoling for sure However the one called has to determine within oneself what Gods will is for him herself The Calling from God will serve as a guide to those seeking answers about their possible destiny The book takes the approach that many are called but only a few answer because of uncertainty The book will help one decide what to do based on their life changing experiences with the power of the Lord Jesus Christ The ones called must make sure of their calling for there is much to do since the harvest is great This book shows in detail some of the preparation needed as one grows in service to the calling from God All Christians are called by God the Father to be witnesses of his resurrection power by grace through faith in the Lord Jesus Christ For sure a call in any form lays a heavenly claim upon the one called This book helps one understand the calling from God and will help one reach a sound decision based on their life and experiences in comparison to selected biblical callings The Calling from God will serve a reference manual and a valuable source of information for anyone thinking about answering or has answered the call from God The decision to serve is very personal as you will learn from the book The Calling from God and many biblical examples If you are struggling with the decision to serve or not to serve this book is for you You will know after reading The Calling from God if you are one of the few chosen to serve and trust Gods wisdom in leading you to point others to the uplifted Christ Will you answer the call from God The alternative is to wrestle with the Spirit as conviction works slowly and agonizingly in the soul This book is a must read

AROUSING THE RELIGIOUS CONSCIOUSNESS: Friedrich Schleiermacher's Theory of Preaching Edwin Walhout, 2016-12-11 AROUSING THE RELIGIOUS CONSCIOUSNESS Schleiermacher's Theory of Preaching If you are at all inclined toward philosophy you will find this essay stimulating even if you are not a preacher

Distance in Preaching Michael Brothers, 2014-09-22 Based on several years of teaching and careful observation in preaching classes this book by Michael Brothers explores the benefits of distance in preaching and listening to sermons Having noticed that sermon listeners generally want to be given room for their own interpretations and experiences Brothers argues that critical and aesthetic distance as a hermeneutical tool is vital to hearing the gospel today and should be intentionally employed in sermon construction and delivery He explains this distance in the field of homiletics equips teachers and students of preaching to evaluate the function of distance in sermons and encourages preachers to practice the use of distance in their preaching

Homiletical Theology David Schnasa Jacobsen, 2015-02-13 Karl Barth famously argued that all theology is sermon preparation But what if all sermon preparation is actually theology This book pursues a thoroughgoing theological vision for the practice of preaching as a way of doing theology The idea is not just that homiletics is the realm of theological application That would leave preaching in the position of simply implementing a theology already arrived at Instead the vision in these pages is of a form of theology that begins with preaching itself its practice its theories and its contexts Homiletical theology is thus a unique way of doing theology even a constructive theological task in its own right Homiletician David Schnasa Jacobsen has assembled several of the leading lights of contemporary homiletics to help to see its task ever more deeply as theological yet in profoundly diverse ways Along the way readers will not only discover how homileticians do theology homiletically but will deepen the way in which they understand their own preaching as a theological task Contributors include Ronald J Allen Professor of Preaching and Gospels and Letters at Christian Theological Seminary John S McClure Charles G Finney Professor of Preaching and Worship at Vanderbilt Divinity School Alyce M McKenzie George W and Nell Ayers Le Van Professor of Preaching and Worship at Perkins School of Theology Southern Methodist University Michael Pasquarello III Granger E and Anna A Fisher Professor of Preaching at Asbury Theological Seminary Luke A Powery Dean of the Chapel and Associate Professor of the Practice of Homiletics at Duke University Teresa Stricklen Eisenlohr Ph D Associate for Worship Office of Theology and Worship at the Presbyterian Church U S A

The Christ-Centered Expositor Tony Merida, 2016-10-01 The Christ Centered Expositor by pastor and preaching professor Tony Merida provides a comprehensive overview of effective expository preaching that begins with the inner life of the expositor and then moves to the essential elements of sermon preparation and delivery Ideal for pastors teachers and students The Christ Centered Expositor will equip you for greater faithfulness to God his Word and his mission

Appletons' Annual Cyclopaedia and Register of Important Events ,1899 The American Annual Cyclopaedia and Register of Important Events of the Year ... ,1896

A Theology of Preaching and Dialectic Aaron P. Edwards, 2018-07-12 How does the preacher know what God might say now based upon the many things God said then Preachers and theologians throughout Christian history have grappled with Scripture s diverse emphases alongside the urgent task of declaring the authoritative Word of God in the contemporary pulpit Aaron Edwards offers a new way of engaging with this problem by exploring the theological relationship between biblical dialectics and heraldic proclamation Edwards highlights the theological necessity of dialectical variety without forfeiting assertiveness in the prophetic moment of preaching A vast array of key voices from the theological tradition are drawn upon including Augustine Aquinas Eckhart Luther Calvin Hegel Kierkegaard Chesterton Barth Bultmann Tillich Ebeling and others to navigate the connection between Scriptural unity clarity and paradoxical plurivocality leading to a nuanced account of dialectic Applying this to the homiletically neglected concept of heraldic confidence in preaching Edwards examines the theological possibility of preaching in light of dialectical complexity via its prophetic dimension He shows how the uniquely revelatory relationship of Word and Spirit enables Scriptural illumination prophetic discernment and dialectical decisiveness in the momentary encounter which undergirds all Christian proclamation

The Overshadowed Preacher Jerusha Matsen Neal, 2020-10-08 The Overshadowed Preacher breaks open one of the most important unexamined affirmations of preaching the presence of the living Christ in the sermon Jerusha Matsen Neal argues that Mary s conceiving bearing and naming of Jesus in Luke s nativity account is a potent description of this mystery Mary's example calls preachers to leave behind the false shadows haunting Christian pulpits and be overshadowed by the Spirit of God Neal asks gospel proclaimers to own both the limits and the promise of their humanness as God's Spirit-filled servants rather than disappear behind a pulpit prince ideal It is a preacher's fully embodied witness lived out through Spirit-filled acts of hospitality dependence and discernment that bears the marks of a fully embodied Christ This affirmation honors the particularity of preachers in a globally diverse context challenging a status quo that has historically privileged masculinity and whiteness It also offers hope to ordinary souls who find themselves daunted by the impossibility of the preaching task Nothing in the angel's words is impossible with God

Appletons' Annual Cyclopedia and Register of Important Events, 1896 The Ground Has Shifted Walter Earl Fluker, 2018-10-02 Honorable Mention Theology and Religious Studies PROSE Award A powerful insight into the historical and cultural roles of the Black church If we are in a post-racial era then what is the future of the Black Church If the US will at some time in the future be free from discrimination and prejudices that are based on race how will that affect the church's very identity In The Ground Has Shifted Walter Earl Fluker passionately and thoroughly discusses the historical and current role of the Black church and argues that the older race-based language and metaphors of religious discourse have outlived their utility He offers instead a larger global vision for the Black church that focuses on young Black men and other disenfranchised groups who have been left behind in a world of globalized capital Lyrically written with an emphasis on the dynamic and fluid movement of life itself Fluker argues that the church must find new ways to use race as an emancipatory instrument if it is to remain central in Black life and he points the way for a new generation of church leaders scholars and activists to reclaim the Black church's historical identity and to turn to the task of infusing character civility and a sense of community among its congregants The Yale Alumni Weekly, 1923 John A. Broadus David S. Dockery, Roger D. Duke, 2008 A new and much needed biography on legendary Baptist preacher educator and statesman John Broadus with contributions from David Dockery Timothy George Thomas J. Nettles Mark Overstreet et al Preaching for the Contemporary Service Prof. Joseph M. Webb, 2010-09-01 Preaching for the Contemporary Service is a guide to releasing the energy and creativity of the contemporary worship service within the sermon Is the traditional sermon still relevant in contemporary worship settings or is it hopelessly out of place Joseph Webb shows how improvisational preaching taps into the spontaneity of today's worship to engage audiences with the good news of Jesus Christ To read a sample from the book click here Joe Webb grieves that much contemporary worship yawns at traditional preaching and pleads for a new kind of improvisational preaching that does justice to the biblical story and connects emotionally with today's listeners Carefully explaining both strengths and dangers of improvisation he draws on insights from theater and movie making with much practical advice for planning improvisation A lively and stimulating book to be taken seriously by any who would preach in contemporary services Michael J. Quicke Professor of Preaching Northern Seminary and author of 360 Degree Preaching

Joseph Webb has devoted his lifetime to the craft and mission of preaching. He brings fresh and cutting edge insight with the wisdom of a sage and the foresight of a prophet to a whole new emerging generation of communicators. Gene Appel, Lead Pastor Willow Creek Community Church, Bull's eye. Joe Webb's theory of improvisational preaching hits the target for effective communication in the digital age. And here's why I love it. Lots of people will tell me what to do. Joe shows me how. Tommy Kiedis, Teaching Pastor Memorial Presbyterian Church and Director of Leadership Development, Reformed Theological Seminary. This book shows us how to improvise our preaching without compromising the Scripture, a welcome help to those of us working to revitalize the worship of the church. Kenton C. Anderson, ACTS Seminaries of Trinity Western University. Joseph M. Webb is Dean of the School of Communication Media and Professor of Global Media and Communications at Palm Beach Atlantic University. He has taught seminary courses in homiletics and speech and communication classes at colleges and universities. He is the author of Preaching Without Notes, also published by Abingdon Press.
