The Relationship between Philosophy and Theology in Inter-War German Catholic Scholarship

Tracey Rowland

School of Philosophy and Theology, University of Notre Dame (Australia), Sydney 2007, Australia; tracey.rowland@nd.edu.au

Abstract: This paper provides an introduction to the thought of four German Catholic philosophers of the inter-war era described by Joseph Ratzinger/Pope Benedict XVI as the most influential on his generation of seminarians. The focus of the article is on how they understood the relationship between theology and philosophy.

Keywords: sacred tradition; philosophy; theology; Romano Guardini; Josef Pieper; Peter Wust and Theodor Haecker

1. Introduction

In the autobiographical work Milestones, Joseph Ratzinger, who became Benedict XVI, remarked that the philosophical voices that moved his generation of seminarians most directly were those of Romano Guardini, Josef Pieper, Theodor Haecker, and Peter Wust (Ratzinger 1988, pp. 42–43). Each one of these scholars was riding on the crest of a wave of disillusionment with German Idealism. They opposed the sharp separation of philosophy from the theology fostered by Immanuel Kant and those who followed the tradition of Kant. This paper offers a window into the attitudes of this inter-war generation of German Catholic scholars. In each case, the members of this quartet acknowledged the distinction between theology and philosophy but thought that the two should be integrated and not separated into silos. In taking this position, they ran counter not only to the prescriptions of Immanuel Kant and others in the tradition of German Idealism but to the practices in universities world-wide where philosophy and theology are studied in separate departments and rarely brought into relationship with one another.

Since this special edition of Religions is focused on the relationship between Theology and Continental Philosophy, this paper will showcase the ideas of this quartet, not because they influenced the thought of Ratzinger/Benedict, but because they represent a particular tradition within the European ideas of the twentieth century that challenged the Kantian paradigm of how philosophy and theology ought to be related, or indeed, not related.

2. Roman Guardini (1885–1968)

The refusal to abide by the sharp separation of the disciplines was strongest in the work of Guardini who accordingly held professorial chairs, neither in philosophy, nor in theology, but in the Catholic Weltanschauung (at the University of Berlin from 1923–1939) and in the Christian Weltanschauung (at the University of Munich from 1948–1962). These titles allowed him to integrate the disciplines into a “world-view”. Ratzinger remarked that “Kantianism had shattered [Guardini’s] childhood faith into pieces” and thus “his conversion developed into an overcoming of Kant”. (Ratzinger 2013, p. 392).

This orientation ran parallel to movements in French Catholic thought of the time, above all to Maurice Blondel’s criticism of “extrinsicism”, that is, the intellectual habit of drawing sharp separations between nature and grace, faith and reason, the secular and the sacred. Henri de Lubac, following Blondel, criticised “two-tiered thinking”, the idea that grace is merely a “top up” for nature while faith is merely a “top up” for reason.

The Present Relations Between Philosophy And Theology:

Philosophy, Theology, and Hegel's Berlin Philosophy of Religion, 1821-1827 Philip M. Merklinger, 1993-08-24

This book examines Hegel's contribution to the debate about the relationship between philosophy and theology reason and faith The author locates the debate within the philosophy of religion displaying that there is a need for philosophy to enter into dialogue with and to reflect upon the contents of theology Utilizing the recently published critical editions of Hegel's Berlin Lectures on the Philosophy of Religion the author substantiates this insight by tracing dialectically the development of Hegel's notion of the philosophy of religion through the 1821 1824 and 1827 lecture series on religion Not only does the author demonstrate that philosophy needs to incorporate theology in its thinking but he also establishes that such incorporation means that the philosophy of religion will be a continuously developing mode of reflection Indeed the author notes this developing philosophy of religion can for Hegel only take place through dialectical interaction with the leading theologies and theologians of one's time The book shows that this inner development of the philosophy of religion is also the inner development of the Spirit itself

Hinterland Theology Alan P.F. Sell, 2008-12-01 Alan Sell maintains that systematic and constructive theology are best understood as the product of a conversation with the biblical writers the heritage of Christian thought and the current intellectual environment The conversation will benefit if the voices of hinterland writers are heard as well as those of the theological and philosophical giants In this book ten hinterland theologians associated with English Dissent are introduced and their writings are discussed Thomas Ridgley Abraham Taylor and Samuel Chandler wrote in the wake of the Toleration Act of 1689 George Payne and Richard Alliot responded to the Enlightenment and the Evangelical Revival D W Simon T Vincent Tymms and Walter F Adeney took account of modern biblical criticism and Robert S Franks and Charles S Duthie respectively lived through and followed the heyday of liberal theology The study reveals both adjustments and time lags in theology and shows how hinterland theologians can stimulate the ongoing conversation concerning theological method philosophico theological relations the Trinity the atonement and ecumenism

Law and Gospel in Emil Brunner's Earlier Dialectical Theology David Andrew Gilland, 2013-10-24 The Swiss Reformed Theologian Emil Brunner was one of the key figures in the early 20th century theological movement of Dialectical Theology In this monograph David Gilland offers an account of Bruner's earlier theology in relation to one of the central themes of the Protestant Reformation Law and Gospel He examines Brunner's early relationship with fellow Swiss Reformed theologian Karl Barth and provides a detailed reading of a variety of Brunner's essays from the early to mid 1920s centering on Brunner's efforts to use the law gospel relationship to establish a basis for Christian theology After analyzing the influence this has on Brunner's theological method Gilliland examines Brunner's earliest text on Christology The Mediator 1927 In light of the preceding analysis the fourth chapter provides a careful reading of Brunner's controversial polemic against Karl Barth Nature and Grace 1934 The monograph concludes with reflections on Brunner's earlier theological work and his turbulent relationship with Karl Barth

Lonergan, 2004-01-01 This anthology contains Lonergan's lectures on philosophy and theology given during the later period of his life 1965 1980 and document his development in the discipline during the years leading up to the publication of Method in Theology and beyond to 1980

Philosophical and Theological Papers, 1965-1980 Bernard Lonergan, 2004-06-02 A companion to Philosophical and Theological Papers 1958 1964 Volume 6 in the Collected Works of Bernard Lonergan series this anthology contains Lonergan's lectures on philosophy and theology given during the later period of his life 1965 1980 These papers document his development in the discipline during the years leading up to the publication of Method in Theology and beyond to 1980 when he was more engaged in his writings and seminars on macroeconomics Philosophical and Theological Papers 1965 1980 is divided into five sections forming units on the basis of dates The three central sections are each a set of lectures respectively given at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Gonzaga University in Spokane and Trinity College University of Toronto Although there is some repetition amongst the lecture sets and in relation to other more familiar works this repetition displays occasional new turns of phrase that the careful reader will note In at least one instance familiar material suddenly opens out onto expressions not to be found anywhere else in Lonergan's work Other very interesting developments regard the movement from speaking of the immutability of dogmas to their permanence of meaning and the permutations among real self transcendence performative self transcendence and moral self transcendence

The Study of Religion in an Age of Global Dialogue Leonard J. Swidler, Paul Mojzes, 2000 Religion is the most fundamental comprehensive of all human activities it tries to make sense out of not simply one or another aspect of human life but of all aspects of human experience At the core of every civilization lies its religion which both reflects and shapes it Thus if we wish to understand human life in general and our specific culture and history we need to understand religion What is religion Religion is an explanation of the ultimate meaning of life and how to live accordingly based on a notion of the Transcendent Normally it contains the four C's Creed Code Cult Community structure CREED refers To The cognitive aspect of a religion it is everything that goes into the explanation of the ultimate meaning of life CODE OF BEHAVIOR or ethics includes all the rules and customs of action that somehow follow from one aspect or another of the Creed CULT means all the ritual activities that relate the follower to one aspect or another of the Transcendent either directly or indirectly prayer being an example of the former and certain formal behavior toward representatives of the Transcendent such as priests of the latter

COMMUNITY STRUCTURE refers To The relationships among the followers this can vary widely from a very egalitarian relationship As among Quakers through a republican structure as Presbyterians have To a monarchical one As with some Hasidic Jews have with their Rebbe THE TRANSCENDENT As the roots of the word indicate means that which goes beyond the everyday The ordinary The surface experience of reality it can mean spirits gods a Personal God An Impersonal God Emptiness etc This volume looks at the ways we humans have developed to study religion However a new age in human consciousness is now dawning The Age of Global Dialogue a radically new consciousness which fundamentally shifts the ways we understand everything in life including religion This global dialogical way of understanding life does not lead to one global religion but it does lead toward a consciously acknowledged common set of ethical principles a Global Ethic The book looks at these two movements the Age of Global Dialogue and inchoative Global Ethic in order to help readers understand what is going on around them So they might make informed intelligent decisions about the meaning of life and how to live it

Author note Leonard Swidler is Professor of Religion at Temple University Paul Mojzesis Academic Dean and Professor of Religious Studies at Rosemount College Jewish Identity in Modern Times Walter Homolka,,Albert H. Friedlander,1995-10-01 There is no doubt about Baeck s contribution to Jewish theology in the twentieth century it has been significant Without ever departing completely from the ancient wellsprings of orthodoxy he was a studious observer of the intellectual currents of his time and ambience under the influence of liberal Jewish theology he drew on and reworked those currents weaving them into his own theological thought A special aspect of Baeck s work is that he remained in critical confrontation with Christianity throughout his life acting as a kind of builder of bridges between the two faiths From the Introduction It is on this aspect that the author focuses his study in which he examines Leo Baeck s critical evaluation of Martin Luther and Protestantism At the same time Homolka shows how close the intellectual links between liberal Christian and liberal Jewish theology had become before the Holocaust both sides attempted a new definition of the essence of their faiths and were searching for a new identity in an increasingly pluralistic and secular society Latin American Perspectives on Science and Religion Ignacio Silva,2015-10-06 Latin America plays an increasingly important role in the development of modern Christianity yet it has been underrepresented in current scholarship on religion and science In this first book on the subject contributors explore the different ways that religion and science relate to each other Reason and the Rule of Faith Thompson, Christopher J. Thompson,Steven A. Long,2011 The Catholicity of Reason D. C. Schindler,2013-08-11 The Catholicity of Reason explains the grandeur of reason the recollection of which Benedict XVI has presented as one of the primary tasks in Christian engagement with the contemporary world While postmodern thinkers religious and secular alike have generally sought to respond to the hubris of Western thought by humbling our presumptuous claims to knowledge D C Schindler shows in this book that only a robust confidence in reason can allow us to remain genuinely open both to God and to the deep mystery of things Drawing from both contemporary and classical theologians and philosophers Schindler explores the basic philosophical questions concerning truth knowledge and being and proposes a new model for thinking about the relationship between faith and reason The reflections brought together in this book bring forth a dramatic conception of human knowing that both strengthens our trust in reason and opens our mind in faith The

Theological Origins of Liberalism Ismail Kurun,2016-07-26 This eye opening book offers a critical survey of the true origins of liberalism It challenges the widely held belief among social scientists that liberalism was developed in opposition to Christianity Beginning with the Protestant Reformation it illustrates how Christian thinkers reinterpreted Christianity and used a set of indemonstrable biblical presuppositions from their reinterpretations to develop the first liberal ideas starting a process that culminates in the birth of the first liberal political theory in the writings of a devout Christian philosopher John Locke It explains how the Protestant Reformation covenant theology anti trinitarianism and medieval Christian natural law theories formed the foundations of liberalism Thus the central claim of this book is that liberalism is better understood as a radical reinterpretation of Christianity that emerged in the post Reformation and early modern period As a logical consequence of revealing the hitherto generally neglected roots of liberalism it eventually proposes that a legally pluralist liberal political theory is the best way to maintain human dignity and peace in multi religious societies of today s globalized world The Congregational Quarterly ,1927 Includes critical reviews Gadamer's Century Jeff Malpas,Ulrich

Arnschwald,Jens Kertscher,2002-01-18 Philosopher Hans Georg Gadamer has made major contributions to aesthetic theory Plato and Hegel studies humanistic studies and the philosophy of history A student of Martin Heidegger Gadamer took up and developed a number of central Heideggerian insights He also had productive public debates with contemporaries such as Emilio Betti and J rgen Habermas The shape of contemporary hermeneutics is due almost entirely to Gadamer s influence and his magnum opus Truth and Method is considered one of the great philosophical works of the twentieth century This book is dedicated to Gadamer in honor of his hundredth birthday in 2000 The essays provide a measure of the classical character of Gadamer s work by showing the breadth of engagement his ideas have provoked As in Gadamer s own life and work dialogue and conversation figure as important themes in all of the essays While they encompass a diversity of philosophical perspectives interests and styles the essays also suggest the ever present possibility of dialogue across language and tradition and of the formation of new modes of discourse and philosophizing Divine Beauty Revealed Youngrae Kim,2025-09-11 This book explores the theological aesthetics of Jonathan Edwards through the lens of his biblical interpretation presenting a fresh and much needed perspective on one of America s greatest religious thinkers While previous scholarship has focused heavily on Edwards s philosophical or systematic theology this study uniquely centers his aesthetic vision on Scripture It argues that Edwards s understanding of beauty rooted in the Triune God revealed through Christ and reflected in creation is fundamentally shaped by his exegetical writings and pastoral vocation Engaging key works such as his Sermons Miscellanies Religious Affections and The Blank Bible the book demonstrates that Edwards s theology of beauty permeates core doctrines including the Trinity salvation ecclesiology and eschatology In contrast to Enlightenment rationalism Edwards upheld the Bible as the supreme source of truth interpreted through the Spirit enabled new sense of the heart This study fills a critical gap in Edwards scholarship by integrating his aesthetic theology with his biblical hermeneutics offering new insights into his vision of divine beauty and its transformative impact on the believer and the church
