

"Oh, dear," said the princess. "How will I sleep in such an uncomfortable bed?"

To the princess, the night seemed as long as the beautiful bed was high.

The next morning, the princess joined the royal family for breakfast. The queen asked her how she had slept.

"The bed was truly lovely and soft," she said. "But I could feel something hard underneath it. It had me tossing all night. And guess what I found underneath the bottom mattress—a pea!" said the princess.

The queen whispered, "She is indeed a true princess."
