Report of the Deputy Keeper of the Public Records, 1848      Steinbeck: Citizen Spy Brian Kannard, 2013-09-12

This changes everything we thought we knew about John Steinbeck After languishing in the CIA's archives for 60 years a letter is uncovered in John Steinbeck's own hand that shatters everything history tells us about the author's life Written in 1952 to CIA Director Walter Bedell Smith Steinbeck makes an offer to become an asset for the Agency during a trip to Europe later that year More shocking than Steinbeck's letter is Smith's reply accepting John's proposal Discovered by author Brian Kannard these letters create the tantalizing proposal that John Steinbeck was in fact a CIA spy Utilizing information from Steinbeck's FBI file John's own correspondence and interviews with John's son Thomas Steinbeck playwright Edward Albee a former CIA intelligence officer and others Steinbeck Citizen Spy uncovers the secret life of American cultural icon and Nobel Prize winner John Steinbeck Did Steinbeck actively gather information for the intelligence community during his 1947 and 1963 trips to the Soviet Union Why was the controversial author of The Grapes of Wrath never called before the House Select Committee on Un American Activities despite alleged ties to Communist organizations Did the CIA influence Steinbeck to produce Cold War propaganda as part of Operation MOCKINGBIRD Why did the CIA admit to the Church Committee in 1975 that Steinbeck was a subject of their illegal mail opening program known as HTLINGUAL These and a host of other resources leave little doubt that there are depths yet unplumbed in the life of one of America's most treasured authors Just how heavily was Steinbeck involved in CIA operations What did he know And how much did he sacrifice for his country Steinbeck Citizen Spy brings us one step closer to the truth      North-east England in the Later Middle Ages

Christian Drummond Liddy, R. H. Britnell, 2005 The medieval development of the distinct region of north east England explored through close examination of landscape religion and history The recent surge of interest in the political ecclesiastical social and economic history of north eastern England is reflected in the essays in this volume The topics covered range widely including the development of both rural and urban life and institutions There are contributions on the well known richness of Durham cathedral muniments its priory and bishopric and there is also a particular focus on the institutions and practices which evolved to deal with Scottish border problems A number of papers broach lesser known subjects which accordingly offer new territory for exploration among them the distinctive characteristics of local jurisdiction in the northern counties the formation of north eastern landscapes the course of agrarian development in the region and the emergence of a northern gentry class alongside the better known ecclesiastical and lay magnates CHRISTIAN D LIDDY is Lecturer in History at the University of Durham where R H BRITNELL is Emeritus Professor      Parliamentary Papers Great Britain.
