The Gospel Of John Conversations With Jesus:

Conversations with Jesus Christ from the Gospel of John Marilyn Kunz, Catherine Schell, 1960 The Gospel of John Robert Kysar, 1997 Conversations with Scripture Cynthia Kittredge, 2007-09 For contemporary Christians John's Gospel is a paradox On the one hand it stresses boundaries while on the other it stresses community This edition encourages readers to draw out the tensions between these two perspectives to make the gospel more meaningful to their lives A Conversation with Jesus David Helm, 2019 Six volume box set Short books for non Christians and new believers Vignettes of characters from the Gospel of John The Conversations of Jesus Simon J. Kistemaker, 2004-10-01 Through Scripture and spoken word Jesus continues to attract millions of followers today In many ways those who seek Christ now differ little from those whose stories we learn in the Gospels Peter Nicodemus Mary the Samaritan leper even Judas Professor Simon J Kistemaker has spent his professional life studying the words and actions of those who spent time with Jesus In The Conversations of Jesus he offers a glimpse into the lives of those who were touched by encounters with Jesus Christ Readers will find much in common with these first century people including their feelings of inadequacy confusion and joy at meeting the Savior Ideal for laypersons and pastors The Conversations of Jesus helps readers strengthen their walks with Christ as they learn about others who have walked this path before The Gospel of John Frederick Dale Bruner, 2012-02-22 The author of a much loved two volume Matthew commentary 1990 that he greatly revised and expanded fourteen years later Frederick Dale Bruner now offers The Gospel of John A Commentary more rich fruit of his lifetime of study and teaching Rather than relying primarily on recent scholarship Bruner honors and draws from the church's major John commentators throughout history including Augustine Chrysostom Aquinas Luther Calvin Bultmann Barrett and many more Alongside this historical interpretation is Bruner's own contemporary interpretation which incorporates a lucid translation of the text references to recent scholarship and his pastoral application of the Gospel to present day experience Like Bruner's other work this commentary is rich in biblical insights broadly historical and deeply theological Here is what Eugene Peterson said about Bruner's earlier work on Matthew This is the kind of commentary I most want a theological wrestling with Scripture Frederick Dale Bruner grapples with the text not only as a technical exegete although he does that very well but as a church theologian caring passionately about what these words tell us about God and ourselves His Matthew commentary is in the grand traditions of Augustine Calvin and Luther expansive and leisurely loving the text the people in it and the Christians who read it The same could well be said about the present John commentary which promises to be another invaluable resource for pastors teachers and laypeople alike Conversations with Scripture Cynthia Kittredge, 2007-10-01 A scholarly evaluation of the fourth Gospel and Johannine community For contemporary Christians John's Gospel is a paradox On the one hand it stresses boundaries No one comes to the Father except through me But on the other hand it's all about community I have no longer called you servant but friends Conversations with Scripture The Gospel of John encourages readers to draw out the tensions between these two perspectives for an open inclusive reading of this difficult Gospel and to find in it reaching meaning for their lives With a study guide that includes thoughtful challenging questions for reflection and discussion this is an ideal resource for individual and parish study Conversations with Children on the Gospels Amos Bronson Alcott,1836 The Gospel of John John Schultz,2013-10-04 John was born in Haarlem The Netherlands in 1930 He suffered starvation during Nazi occupation of Holland during World War II His father was imprisoned by the Nazi s for six weeks for supplying the ten Boom family with ration cards though they never found this out John felt the call to ministry went to Bible School in Brussels Belgium and met and married his wife there They both felt a strong call to the mission field then Dutch New Guinea later Irian Jaya Indonesia and left for the mission field with The Christian Missionary Alliance we went out under the US mission shortly after their marriage They would spend the next thirty eight years on the mission field there before retiring to Toccoa GA in 1995 The Lord blessed them with four children and 17 grandchildren During his time on the mission field John started taught and ran a Bible School in Irian Jaya Diving into the Gospel of John Bruce R. Reichenbach,2023-02-09 Diving into the Gospel of John displays the rich and diverse arguments John presents for his thesis that Jesus is the Messiah the Son of God and that through believing readers listeners will find eternal life John s arguments are developed in four parts The first two chapters develop the author s literary techniques that are often based on ambiguity and his key symbols and concepts the understanding of which are essential to fully appreciate the Gospel Chapters 3 through 6 progressively portray the author s evidence for his thesis in the form of signs testimony of those who encounter Jesus Jesus s self identification and Jesus s relationships to others Chapters 7 and 8 show how the author uses theatrically patterned dialogues and triadic discourses to convey Jesus s identity and mission Finally chapters 9 through 11 provide important hints that the author gives for his thesis Jesus s appeals to time the indirect use of seven as the number of completeness and invocation of parentage in pointing to salvation Through diving into the Gospel readers will discover the richness of John s argument the Jesus he portrays and the God Jesus reveals The book aims to stimulate commitment challenge mind and spirit and encourage further reflection and conversation
