Christ or the Holy Spirit References to the Messenger of the LORD are also capitalized when the subject appears to be a clear reference to God or the Messiah as found in translations such as the NKJV The goal of any good translation is to produce a readable text that preserves the original autographic meaning and comes as close as possible to translating word for word manuscripts that accurately represent the original writings It s with this goal in mind that the Literal Standard Version LSV was written a modern yet literal English translation based upon the most prolific texts the Masoretic Text MT for the Old Testament and the Textus Receptus TR and Majority Text M for the New However in certain specific instances other manuscript versions and text types are used where the evidence seems incontrovertible e g the LXX and DSS in the Hebrew and Aramaic the Alexandrian in the Greek ANOTHER TRANSLATION WHY There have been a slew of new English translations in the past half century which may cause some to wonder why the need for another The translators agree with the premise that different translations can serve different demographics and different reading levels to maximize exposure to God s word In this sense the LSV is not a competitor to other excellent translations but is complimentary As the most literal modern English translation the LSV is an excellent resource for deep and thoughtful Bible study and research essentially an interlinear in terms of word for word translation but arranged with English sentence structure
