The Great Profundo And Other Stories:

The Great Profundo Bernard MacLaverty, 1997 Great Profundo and Other Stories Bernard MacLaverty, 2001-10 On the fringes of society the characters of Bernard MacLaverty's stories are forced to seek consolation as best they can A lonely old lady resorts to posting a monthly letter to herself a retired policeman and a cornet player captivated by a young flautist seeks oblivion in drink In a shabby world some simply suffer unseen a sword swallower once immortalised by Matisse sustains a fatal wound before an unheeding drunken audience a parish priest slips into death in the cold solitude of his church Others find unexpected forms of expression a young boy sheds the shame of his psoriasis through friendship with an eccentric duchess and a poem provides a tenuous link between two inarticulate strangers Long term relationships can lead to a new understanding a famous architect and his son becomes aware of a bond of mutual affection despite the gulf between them in attitudes and values Ireland in Mind Alice Leccese Powers, 2010-04-07 From Oscar Wilde to James Joyce from Virginia Woolf to Frank McCourt three centuries of Irish English and American writers in search of the real Ireland From the editor of the outstandingly popular Italy in Mind comes another superb collection three centuries of fiction poems and essays from both Irish expatriates and non Irish visitors From the comic terror of Frank McCourt's First Communion to the raucous pagan festival Muriel Rukeyser attended in County Kerry in the 1930s from John Betjeman's lyrical evocation of a ruined abbey in the mist to Eric Newby's hilariously disastrous bicycle trip through Ireland from William Trevor's gentle Irish clergyman encountering the long angry reach of his country's past tragedies to Brian Moore's wistful return from a life spent in exile this anthology offers a kaleidoscope of this mysterious elusive country For travelers of all kinds for those who have long been fascinated by Ireland and those who are feeling its lure for the first time Ireland in Mind will provide a rich and rewarding imaginative journey Contributors also include Samuel Beckett Wallace Stevens Oliver Goldsmith Jonathan Swift Edna O'Brien Paul Theroux V S Pritchett Anthony Trollope George Bernard Shaw T H White From the Trade Paperback edition Getting to Good Friday Marilyn Richter, 2023 Getting to Good Friday uses literary texts by writers with connections to Northern Ireland including Brian Friel Deirdre Madden and Colum McCann to illustrate peace process developments in the lead up to the Good Friday Agreement arguing that creative writers were both responding to contemporary events and trying to influence them A Pilgrimage from Belfast to Santiago de Compostela Margarita Estévez Saá, Anne MacCarthy, 2002 An English-French Dictionary of Clipped Words Fabrice Antoine, 2000 This dictionary deals with the little words which everyone uses every day without even noticing them and which are so liable to escape the grasp of a speaker of another language clipped words obtained by back clipping or apocope the dropping of one or more final syllables by front clipping or aphesis the dropping of one or more final syllables by the combination of these two processes and sometimes further transformed especially in slang by the addition of a new ending The aim is not of course merely to list all these words and say from which longer words they were obtained an attempt is made here to retrace the history of each of them its stylistic semantic and often morphological evolution to illustrate this with authentic and often pungent or humorous quotations and also to show how each can be translated into the other language Indeed this is an English French bilingual dictionary whose aim is to translate clipped words according to principles of historical and register fidelity which bilingual dictionaries do not ordinarily set for this type of headword Thus clipped words will be shown to have meaning precisely because they are clipped consequently this meaning must be preserved and conveyed in translation This dictionary thus aims at being different from traditional bilingual dictionaries dictionaries of slang and colloquialisms included in the structure and content of its articles in which much space is devoted to the lexicological data which inform the strictly lexicographical information Special attention and care have been devoted to the system of cross references the recording and presentation of derived forms variants and compounds and to the presentation of slang or colloquial synonyms of the headwords The body of the dictionary is preceded by a preface in which the editing principles and methods are outlined and an attempt is made at analyzing the corpus its historical sociological and morphological aspects are reviewed together with the motivations of those that coin or use clippings These motivations appear essential to the proper appraisal of this body of slang and colloquial words this dictionary's intention is to pay homage to all the unknown people who have made the lexicon richer by playing with and on words with joyful humour zest and gusto It is hoped that all lovers of words will have the same pleasure exploring this dictionary as its author had writing it Professor Fabrice Antoine teaches English at the Université Charles de Gaulle Lille III France His research fields are bilingual lexicography lexicology and translation he has been a consulting editor for a dozen bilingual dictionaries general as well as slang ones He is especially interested in French and English slang and colloquialisms and co-edits ELEXTRA Etudes sur le Lexique et la Traduction a research centre at the University of Lille
