Dictionary of Multicultural Psychology Lena E. Hall, 2004-10-28 There appears to be a burgeoning lexicon of terms and concepts pertinent to multiculturalism Unfortunately this increase in the number of terms and concepts seems to be colliding with a decrease in a shared understanding of what they mean A dictionary style volume for such terms seems an admirable and overdue quest William H George University of Washington This dictionary is an up to date volume that contains numerous references to relevant concepts and terms in the field of multicultural psychology Professor Lena Hall has collected studied and analyzed a multitude of terms in her eleven years of teaching multicultural psychology and she has gathered them together in this handy accessible reference book Key Features Definitions are written in concise language for easy comprehension Standard dictionary format is familiar and convenient to use making this book a handy reference for students and professionals alike who wish to clarify a term or broaden their knowledge on a topic Relevant reference sources are included along with each entry enabling students to do further reading on concepts they have learned Dictionary entries are excellent starting points for stimulating class discussions and creative research and written assignments The Dictionary of Multicultural Psychology is a highly useful resource for undergraduate psychology students The book is recommended as a classroom supplement for courses in psychology and multiculturalism as well as for professionals and graduate students working with multicultural populations for certification Lena Hall is associate professor at Nova Southeastern University She obtained her BS in Psychology from York University her MA and MED from Columbia University and her PhD in Counseling Psychology from University of Florida She conducts seminars presents papers and teaches classes in multicultural psychology She is presently involved in cross cultural research on substance abuse Her latest publication is Issues in Multicultural Psychology a textbook for undergraduate students

Land, Faith, and Voice Alexander Rosenblatt, 2024-04-16 This book summarizes a decade of research on its topic while each specific perspective either formed in advance or arose in the process of ethnography and its analysis The book explores various aspects of Christian music in British Columbia Washington State and Oregon but primarily its historical facets and local palette The scope of the main topics covers aspects such as historical and local melodies in relevant hymnbooks musical practices in the Cathedrals and other churches within the designated area and the creative profile of modern North American composers including those who have worked in the Pacific Northwest who made significant contributions to the church music practiced in the area Other background and supporting topics are a reference on the history and culture of the Canadian and U S parts of the region the study of Native Christian art its philosophy and examples and historical stages and the current landscape of Christianity in British Columbia Washington State and Oregon The book bears the features of a monograph and a handbook at the same time Among the few other books dealing with specific topics that make up the content of this book none of them gives an all around picture of the regional history society culture art religion and its musical expression as a holistic phenomenon

MetroGreen Donna Erickson, 2012-09-26 In metropolitan areas across the country you can hear the laments over the loss of green space to new subdivisions and strip malls But some city residents have taken unprecedented measures to protect their open land and a growing movement seeks not only to preserve these lands but to link them in green corridors Many land use and urban planning professionals along with landscape architects and environmental advocates have joined in efforts to preserve natural areas MetroGreen answers their call for a deeper exploration of the latest thinking and newest practices in this growing conservation field In ten case studies of U S and Canadian cities paired for comparative analysis Toronto and Chicago Calgary and Denver and Vancouver and Portland among them Erickson looks closely at the motivations and objectives for connecting open spaces across metropolitan areas She documents how open space networks have been successfully created and protected while also highlighting the critical human and ecological benefits of connectivity MetroGreen s unique focus on several cities rather than a single urban area offers a perspective on the political economic cultural and environmental conditions that affect open space planning and the outcomes of its implementation A New Westminster Album Gavin Hainsworth, Katherine Freund-Hainsworth, 2005-09-17 From prospectors to politicians promoters to profiteers New Westminster's known them all It is Western Canada's oldest city aptly named by Queen Victoria as the first capital of the new colony of British Columbia On the mighty Fraser River it has survived gold rushes loss of capital status fire flood the Depression and two world wars This collection of illuminating black and white photographs artwork and text shows how its tenacious citizens have thrived It follows the city's festivals traditions organizations people and neighbourhoods The city has both witnessed and been the centre of the fascinating events that shaped B C This multifaceted photographic history album depicts almost 150 years of the City of New Westminster Vancouver Vice Aaron Chapman, 2021-11-23 Historian Aaron Chapman explores the gritty history of Vancouver's West End in the 1970s and 80s ending in a sensational murder Becoming 150 Mark S. Bonham, 2018-03-01 Becoming 150 150 Years of Canadian Business History presents informative insight into the development of Canada's economy and business sectors since Confederation 150 Years of Canadian Business History was a national conference presented in conjunction with Canada's Sesquicentennial This book is a must read for business people students and entrepreneurs and is composed of 18 essays written by business people academics and recent graduate students outlining the history of Canadian businesses in 8 different topics Subjects covered include the financial sector women in Canadian business history industrial and manufacturing rural business history and more Diasporic Media beyond the Diaspora Sherry S. Yu, 2018-04-23 Media for diasporic communities have emerged in major cities such as Vancouver and Los Angeles and reflect a multicultural multiethnic and multilingual reality But do these media serve their respective communities exclusively or are they available and accessible to members of greater society at large Diasporic Media beyond the Diaspora explores structural and institutional challenges and opportunities for these media and suggests policy directions with the aim of fostering broader intercultural dialogue Using case studies of Korean media in Vancouver and Los Angeles Sherry Yu examines the potential of an intercultural media system for culturally ethnically and linguistically diverse societies This is the first book to explore the potential of diasporic communicative spaces as being open to people outside of specific diasporic communities and their further potential to establish an infrastructure that facilitates conversation and contributes to building an interculturally engaging and inclusive media system
