The Grieving Senses and Other Poems Ann Richards, 1971-01-01 The Arnoldian, 1976 Body, Gender, Senses Carin Franzén, Johanna Vernqvist, 2024-03-04 The body touch and its sensations are present sometimes viewed in contradictory ways both expressed visualized and rejected in early modern art and literature In seven essays moving from the 16th to the mid 18th century and from Italy and Spain to France and Sweden this volume explores strategies used by early modern women poets philosophers and artists in order to create subversive expressions of the body gender and the senses Showing how body and soul the carnal and the divine the senses and the mind could be represented as intertwined and dependent on each other in various ways it gives due attention to European women writers and artists that in unconventional ways responded to the period s two main intellectual and philosophical attitudes Epicurean and Stoic towards the body and its senses These attitudes not only intersect in the period s discussions of virtue and other moral phenomena but are central to critical assessment of the relations between emotions perception and reason By following this topic from a gender perspective the book highlights other forms of subjectivity than the ones usually related to the early modern period s dominating subjectivation of female bodies thinking and desires [Catalog of Copyright Entries. Latin American Poetry Gordon Brotherston, 1975-11-13. This study considers the ways Spanish American and Brazilian poets differ from their European counterparts by considering Latin American as more than a perfunctory epithet. It sets the orthodox Latin tradition of the subcontinent against others that have survived or grown up after the conquest, then pays attention to those poets who from Independence have striven to express a specifically American moral and geographical identity. Dr. Brotherston focuses on Modernismo or the coming of age of poetry in Spanish America and Brazil and the importance of the movements associated with it. He considers César Vallejo and Pablo Neruda probably the greatest of the selection. Octavio Paz and modern poets who have reacted differently to the idea that Latin America might now be thought to have not just a geographical but a nascent political identity of its own. Poems are liberally quoted and treated as entities in their own right.

Last Things Janet Gezari, 2007-02-22. Emily Brontë's poetry is more often celebrated than read. This book seeks to reinstate her poems at the heart of Victorian writing while underlining their relevance. For admirers of Wuthering Heights, this work brings the concerns and methods of the novel into focus by relating them to the poems.

Narcissus Sous Rature Jody Norton, 2000. In Narcissus Sous Rature Jody Norton argues that Contemporary American poetry's characteristic problematic is the subject's contestation of his discursive condition. While self-comprehension is a central recurrent concern in post-literate poetry, most poetries in English since the Enlightenment have conceived their lyric subjects in accordance with the foundational Western philosophical assumption of the rationality of being. However, after Freud, Heisenberg, Saussure, Derrida, and Lacan, conceptions of the lyric I as representative of a more or less permanent self-conscious and self-possessed personality inhabiting an ontologically dependable natural and historical world in a consistent way are no longer credible. The problems of how to conceptualize the psycho-linguistic structuration of the male putatively masculine subject and his relation to his cultural environment and of how to represent both the subject and his relations in a medium language that is complexly involved in the construction of both the subject and his representation and in a certain sense of the subject as representation emerge for Contemporary poets out of an historic moment particularly strongly marked by theoretical developments in extra-literary fields. Norton asserts that the lyric speaker in Contemporary American poetry cannot be understood unless the explicit and implicit dialogic relations between religious philosophical psychological linguistic aesthetic critical and poetic texts are made central to the interpretive project BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
