The Politics Of Everyday Fear

Brian Massumi

The Politics Of Everyday Fear:

The Politics of Everyday Fear Brian Massumi, 1993 The Politics of Everyday Fear Brian Massumi, 1993 The contemporary consumer is bombarded with fear inducing images and information This media shower of imagery is equaled only by the sheer quantity of fear assuaging products offered for our consumption The contributors address questions raised by the saturation of social space by capitalized fear The Politics of Everyday Life Paul Ginsborg, Professor Paul Ginsborg, 2005-01-01 Ginsborg is never judgemental though he is devastatingly thorough and occasionally mischievously witty Times Literary Supplement The Politics of Everyday Life in Fascist Italy Joshua Arthurs, Michael Ebner, Kate Ferris, 2017-02-08 This book explores the complex ways in which people lived and worked within the confines of Benito Mussolini's regime in Italy variously embracing appropriating accommodating and avoiding the regime's incursions into everyday life The contributions highlight the experiences of ordinary Italians midwives and schoolchildren colonists and soldiers over the course of the Fascist era in settings ranging from the street to the farm and from the kitchen to the police station At the same time this volume also provides a framework for understanding the Italian experience in relation to other totalitarian dictatorships in twentieth century Europe and beyond The Politics and Everyday Practice of International Humanitarianism Miriam Bradley, 2023 Through a combination of detailed case studies of humanitarian emergencies and thematic chapters which cover key concepts actors and activities this book explores the work of the largest international humanitarian agencies Its central argument is that politics play a fundamental role in determining humanitarian needs practices and outcomes In making this argument the book highlights the many challenges and dilemmas facing humanitarian agencies in the contemporary world It covers significant ground temporally geographically and thematically The book is divided into four sections providing a wide ranging survey of contemporary international humanitarianism The first section begins by presenting chapter length case studies of the international responses to eleven humanitarian emergencies from the 1960s to the present day across Africa Asia the Caribbean and Europe the second explains key concepts and trends in international humanitarianism the third discusses how the work of international humanitarian agencies interacts with a range of other actors including media celebrities donors states civil society military forces and armed groups who have significant impacts on humanitarian response and outcomes and the fourth turns to the operations and activities undertaken by aid agencies on a daily basis Ideally suited as a high level introduction for students of international humanitarianism the empirical detail and lucid analysis additionally make The Politics and Everyday Practice of International Humanitarianism an invaluable point of reference for more established scholars The Politics of Everyday Life in Vichy France Shannon L. Fogg, 2009 This book examines how material distress shaped the interactions of native and refugee populations as well as perceptions of the Vichy government's legitimacy Cultural Politics of Emotion Sara Ahmed, 2014-06-11 Emotions work to define who we are as well as shape what we do and this is no more powerfully at play than in the world of politics Ahmed considers how emotions keep us invested in relationships of power and also shows how this use of emotion could be crucial to areas such as feminist and queer politics Debates on international terrorism asylum and migration as well as reconciliation and reparation are explored through topical case studies In this book the difficult issues are confronted head on The Cultural Politics of Emotion is in dialogue with recent literature on emotions within gender studies cultural studies sociology psychology and philosophy Throughout the book Ahmed develops a theory of how emotions work and the effects they have on our day to day lives New for this edition A substantial 15 000 word Afterword on Emotions and Their Objects which provides an original contribution to the burgeoning field of affect studies A revised Bibliography Updated throughout

Coming Out Jewish Jon Stratton, 2003-09-02 Coming Out Jewish explores the idea of Jewishness as a problem of racial ethnic identity in the modern and post modern world It is a path breaking book that firmly places the Jewish experience on the Cultural Studies agenda

Politics of Affect Brian Massumi, 2015-08-06 The capacity to affect and to be affected This simple definition opens a world of questions by indicating an openness to the world To affect and to be affected is to be in encounter and to be in encounter is to have already ventured forth Adventure far from being enclosed in the interiority of a subject affect concerns an immediate participation in the events of the world It is about intensities of experience What is politics made of if not adventures of encounter What are encounters if not adventures of relation The moment we begin to speak of affect we are already venturing into the political dimension of relational encounter This is the dimension of experience in the making This is the level at which politics is emergent In these wide ranging interviews Brian Massumi explores this emergent politics of affect weaving between philosophy political theory and everyday life The discussions wend their way transversally passing between the tired oppositions which too often encumber thought such as subject object body mind and nature culture New concepts are gradually introduced to remap the complexity of relation and encounter for a politics of emergence differential affective attunement collective individuation micropolitics thinking feeling ontopower immanent critique These concepts are not offered as definitive solutions Rather they are designed to move the inquiry still further for an ongoing exploration of the political problems posed by affect Politics of Affect offers an accessible entry point into the work of one of the defining figures of the last quarter century as well as opening up new avenues for philosophical reflection and political engagement

Citizens and borderwork in contemporary Europe Chris Rumford, 2013-10-31 The extent to which ordinary people can construct shift and dismantle borders is seriously neglected in the existing literature The book explores the ability of citizens to participate in the making of borders and the empowerment that can result from this bordering and debordering activity Borderwork is the name given to the ways in which ordinary people can make and unmake borders Borderwork is no longer only the business of nation states it is also the business of citizens and indeed non citizens This study of borderwork extends the recent interest in forms of bordering which do not necessarily occur at the state s external borders However the changing nature of borders cannot be reduced to a shift from the edges to the interior of a polity To date little research has been conducted on the role of ordinary people in envisioning constructing maintaining shifting and erasing borders creating borders which facilitate mobility for some while creating barriers to mobility for others appropriating the political resources which bordering offers contesting the legitimacy of or undermining the borders imposed by others This book makes an original contribution to the literature and stands to set the agenda for a new dimension of border studies This book was published as a special issue of Space and Polity Placing the Border in Everyday Life Reece Jones, Corey Johnson, 2016-04-22 Bordering no longer happens only at the borderline separating two sovereign states but rather through a wide range of practices and decisions that occur in multiple locations within and beyond the state's territory Nevertheless it is too simplistic to suggest that borders are everywhere since this view fails to acknowledge that particular sites are significant nodes where border work is done Similarly border work is more likely to be done by particular people than others This book investigates the diffusion of bordering narratives and practices by asking who borders and how Placing the Border in Everyday Life complicates the connection between borders and sovereign states by identifying the individuals and organizations that engage in border work at a range of scales and places This edited volume includes contributions from major international scholars in the field of border studies and allied disciplines who analyze where and why border work is done By combining a new theorization of border work beyond the state with rich empirical case studies this book makes a ground breaking contribution to the study of borders and the state in the era of globalization

The Cultural Politics of Emotion Sara Ahmed, 2013-11-15 In The Cultural Politics of the Emotions Sara Ahmed develops a new methodology for reading the emotionality of texts She offers analyses of the role of emotions in debates on international terrorism asylum and migration and reconciliation and reparation and reflects on the role of emotions in feminist and queer politics Of interest to readers in gender studies and cultural studies the psychology and sociology of emotions and phenomenology and psychoanalysis The Cultural Politics of the Emotions offers new ways of thinking about our inner and our outer lives Publisher description

Fear and the First Amendment Kevin A. Johnson, Craig R. Smith, 2024-06-04 Offers a deeply considered examination of the ways fear figures in First Amendment questions ruled on by the contemporary Supreme Court Bringing together literature on theories of fear in rhetorical and philosophical traditions the authors focus on the rulings from the Roberts Court which form a pivotal era of dramatic precedents

The Politics of Energy Security Johannes Kester, 2018-06-12 Energy security is known for its slippery nature and subsequent broad range of definitions Instead of another attempt to grasp its essence this book offers a critical reflection that problematizes the use of energy security itself After a short historical and methodological analysis of the proliferation of energy security The Politics of Energy Security unpacks three social practices that drive energy security These include an analysis of the logics of security a study of the relation between the materiality of sociotechnical energy systems and the knowledge people have over such systems and a reflection on the power and politics behind energy security Each of these are discussed and ultimately illustrated in the last chapter to show how energy security works how it is shaped and what role it plays within political processes Based on a novel performative reading of energy security with its focus on ontological politics and an in depth look at the often implicitly accepted social practices that determine how people shape and are shaped by energy security this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of energy security and policy political theory international relations critical security studies and environmental studies more broadly

The Poetics of Insecurity Johannes Voelz, 2017-12-28 The Poetics of Insecurity turns the emerging field of literary security studies upside down Rather than tying the prevalence of security to a culture of fear Johannes Voelz shows how American literary writers of the past two hundred years have mobilized insecurity to open unforeseen and uncharted horizons of possibility for individuals and collectives In a series of close readings of works by Charles Brockden Brown Harriet Jacobs Willa Cather Flannery O Connor and Don DeLillo Voelz brings to light a cultural imaginary in which conventional meanings of security and insecurity are frequently reversed so that security begins to appear as deadening and insecurity as enlivening Timely broad ranging and incisive Johannes Voelz's study intervenes in debates on American literature as well as in the interdisciplinary field of security studies It fundamentally challenges our existing explanations for the pervasiveness of security in American cultural and political life

Digital Cultures and the Politics of Emotion Athina Karatzogianni, Adi Kuntsman, 2012-03-13 Fifteen thought provoking essays engage in an innovative dialogue between cultural studies of affect feelings and emotions and digital cultures new media and technology The volume provides a fascinating dialogue that cuts across disciplines media platforms and geographic and linguistic boundaries

The Politics of Everyday Crime in Africa Danielle C. Kushner, 2018-12-12 This book offers distinct insights into the sources of state legitimacy in Africa by incorporating an analysis of non state actors role in service delivery The author examines how citizens reliance on non governmental security actors such as street committees neighborhood watches and community police forums shape their attitudes toward the state and their political participation Broadly this project contributes to our understanding of citizens everyday experiences of crime and violence at the local level and why they matter politically

STILL Blaming Children Bernard Schissel, 2021-01-10T00:00:00Z The media enhanced moral panic surrounding youth has continued unabated over the past two decades Its form and substance varies but the politics of blaming and exploiting children underlies it all Despite the reality that rates for most youth crime have gone down the public condemnation of youth especially through the news media continue unabated and the position of children and youth in our societies is still as precarious as ever Put bluntly the lives of too many children and youth are fraught with potential danger Not only are they the victims of excessive legal scrutiny and scapegoats for panic driven public policy but they also go off to war proportionately more than adults and they work at unskilled jobs for no benefits and insultingly low wages Children and youth live outside the protections of human rights STILL Blaming Children an expanded and updated version of Blaming Children shows how getting tough on young offenders ignores the reality of their lives and the reality of their misconduct The book ends by describing more humane and mindful alternatives for youth offenders based on the human rights our children deserve

The Politics of Fear Ruth Wodak, 2015-09-26 Winner of the Austrian Book Prize for the 2016 German translation in the category of Humanities and Social Sciences Populist right wing politics is moving centre stage with some parties reaching the very top of the electoral ladder but do we know why and why now In this book Ruth Wodak traces the trajectories of such parties from the margins of the political landscape to its centre to understand and explain how they are transforming from fringe voices to persuasive political actors who set the agenda and frame media debates Laying bare the normalization of nationalistic xenophobic racist and antisemitic rhetoric she builds a new framework for this politics of fear that is entrenching new social divides of nation gender and body The result reveals the micro politics of right wing populism how discourses genres images and texts are performed and manipulated in both formal and also everyday contexts with profound consequences This book is a must read for scholars and students of linguistics media and politics wishing to understand these dynamics that are re shaping our political space

Meanderings Through the Politics of Everyday Life Robert Porter, 2020-05-19 The politics of everyday life is to be found time and again in meandering movements in making connections across and between things in the rough and tumble of the seemingly banal fragmentary and quotidian experiences that make up our day to day existence The key point of the book ideally as well as practically is to realize that there may be something potentially significant and politically significant in the very act of making such connections of understanding the supposedly trite and trivial world of the everyday against a broader political backcloth There is merit in sifting the fragments the fragmentary experiences of everyday life in order to see how they imply a broader political totality in which they are situated and at times cleverly made to function This intuition broadly inspired by Henri Lefebvre is reflected in and through the various and varying ways Porter puts to work the ideas and provocations of thinkers such as Raoul Vaneigem Gilles Deleuze and Soren Kierkegaard
