The Politics Of Old Age In Europe:

The Politics of Old Age in Europe Alan Walker, Gerhard Naegele, 1999 This collection of essays by leading authorities examines the new politics of old age from the perspectives of individual countries and the European Union as a whole

The politics of old age Martha Doyle, 2015-02-01 The politics of old age in the twenty first century is contentious encompassing ideological debates about the rights and welfare entitlements of individuals in later life An important aspect is the manner in which older people and their representative groups are given the opportunity to articulate their interests in the policy making process Drawing upon key literature in political science social gerontology and cultural sociology The politics of old age explores the relationship between ageing politics and representation It reveals the complexity of older people's representation and how the power the organisations exercise their legitimacy and existence remain highly contingent on government policy design political opportunity structures and the prevailing cultural and socioeconomic milieu This book is essential reading for policymakers and organisations interested in ageing policy and the political process and for students of ageing social policy and political sociology

Politics and Old Age: Older Citizens and Political Processes in Britain John A. Vincent, Guy Patterson, Karen Wale, 2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2001 Older people have been characterized by two mutually contradictory stereotypes One the one hand they have been portrayed as a powerful lobby growing demographically and able to demand large redistributions of the nation's income in their direction On the other hand they have been typified as a marginalized group at high risk of poverty and exclusion and in a political context largely powerless This book examines using original research conducted by the Older People and Politics Project OPPOL within Exeter University's Sociology Department the reality of the impact of the increasing number of older people on the British political process The project had three main investigative concerns how effective are pressure groups and lobbyists for older people how is the power and influence of older people perceived by older people themselves and the general public and how are politicians responding to older people and their needs

The Political Participation of Older People in Europe A. Goerres, 2009-03-26 The first comparative analysis of the political behaviour of older people using evidence from 20 European democracies In contrast to younger people across European societies older people do not behave uniformly For political participation in later life it matters where and when individuals have grown up and in which country they become old

A Young Generation Under Pressure? Joerg Tremmel, 2010-02-05 Justice between generations is still not as prominent on any agenda as justice between rich and poor or men and women For the first time this three part book explores the situation of young people of today in comparison to their direct predecessors The first part The Financial Situation of the Young Generation in a Generational Comparison deals with this generation's financial standing the second part The Rush Hour of Life examines their time restrictions Both are considered from a life course perspective The third part On the Path to Gerontocracy addresses the demographic shift in favor of the elderly in aging Western democracies

Disability and Psychology Dan Goodley, Rebecca Lawthom, 2005-10-30 Disability is not just the physical sensory or intellectual impairments a person has but the exclusion from society they face as a result Organisations for disabled people are a growing voice in challenging this exclusion and anti discrimination legislation is helping to change the structures in society that have contributed to it This book examines the discipline of psychology in this regard It argues that psychology has tended to ignore the socio cultural aspects of disability and treat disabled people as objects rather than arbiters of psychological intervention Bringing together disabled and non disabled researchers and psychologists this book proposes ideas for an enabling psychological theory and practice and addresses questions such as How can we support the inclusion of disabled children Can therapy enable rather than pathologise What can be learnt from the experience of disabled psychologists How can psychology contribute to social models of disability In examining these issues this volume challenges the reader to reconsider the relationship between disability studies and psychology and to do so in ways that contribute to the emancipation rather than the exclusion of disabled people A key text for students on relevant courses within disability studies and psychology degrees this book is also an important resource for those who study or work in the areas of healthcare studies nursing sociology and social work Dan Goodley is a Reader in disability studies University of Sheffield with research interests in disability theory activism and methodology Rebecca Lawthom is Principal Lecturer in psychology Manchester Metropolitan University and a member of the Research Institute for Health and Social Change Her research interests are in disability community and feminist psychology

Global Ageing in the Twenty-First Century Zachary Zimmer, 2016-04-22 Population ageing a growth in the proportion of a population that is in older age is now occurring in every region and nearly every country of the world Indeed the growth of older populations is among the important global phenomena of the twenty first century It poses both opportunities and challenges for societies and policy makers but these are far from uniform worldwide Dynamic factors are at work impacting on how ageing will influence people places and policies and there are large variations in the rate and timing of population ageing across countries owing to differing social health and economic circumstances and a variety of policy options from which to choose Given this variation in the context of global ageing as a backdrop this edited book focuses on three overarching themes that are among the most critical to understand if societies are to age successfully in the twenty first century and beyond Healthy ageing and health care the ageing workforce retirement and the provision of pensions shifting intergenerational relations These three themes are cross cut by other dimensions that are intertwined with the dynamic processes of ageing such as immigration emigration contrasting policy regimes and global and national economic forces This ground breaking book will be of interest to all scholars students and policy makers working within this area of study

Active Ageing in the European Union K.

Hamblin,2013-03-25 This book explores the adoption of active ageing policies by EU15 nations and the impact on older peoples work and retirement policy options Policies examined include unemployment benefits active labour market policies partial pension receipt pension principles early retirement and incentives for deferral

The Many Faces of Health, Competence and Well-Being in Old Age Hans-Werner Wahl,Herrmann Brenner,Heidrun Mollenkopf,Dietrich

Rothenbacher,Christoph Rott,2006-03-14 The main aim of the book is to provide an interdisciplinary treatment of a set of key issues of current ageing research i e health competence and well being These key issues are addressed based on three converging research streams social ecological research which assumes that major processes and outcomes of ageing such as day to day competence are shaped by social and physical spatial environments geropsychology research which is driven by a life span developmental conception of ageing and epidemiology which offers most fundamental disease function and prevention related data Each of the three major research directions are outlined by a short introduction followed by three chapters treating in an empirical manner most recent key research questions All chapters are then also discussed by renowned ageing experts This volume links ageing research with policy considerations and implications and establishes a link between European research and the knowledge base of the international scientific community concerned with ageing This book will be of great interest to scholars and graduate students in ageing research in the social and behavioural field as well as in epidemiology geriatrics geropsychiatry demography and biogerontology

Age-Friendly Cities and Communities in International Comparison Thibauld Moulart,Suzanne Garon,2015-12-01

The supportive role of urban spaces in active aging is explored on a world scale in this unique resource using the WHO s Age Friendly Cities and Community model Case studies from the U S Canada Australia Hong Kong and elsewhere demonstrate how the model translates to fit diverse social political and economic realities across cultures and continents ways age friendly programs promote senior empowerment and how their value can be effectively assessed Age friendly criteria for communities are defined and critiqued while extensive empirical data describe challenges as they affect elders globally and how environmental support can help meet them These chapters offer age friendly cities as a corrective to the overemphasis on the medical aspects of elders lives and should inspire new research practice and public policy Included in the coverage A critical review of the WHO Age Friendly Cities Methodology and its implementation Seniors perspectives on age friendly communities The implementation of age friendly cities in three districts of Argentina Age friendly New York City a case study Toward an age friendly European Union Age friendliness childhood and dementia toward generationally intelligent environments With its balance of attention to universal and culture specific concerns Age Friendly Cities and Communities in International Comparison will be of particular interest to sociologists gerontologists and policymakers Given the rapid adoption of the age friendly perspective following its development by the World Health Organization the critical assessment offered in this volume is especially welcome Professor Chris Phillipson University of Manchester
