The Pollen Room:

The Pollen Room Zoë Jenny, 2000-03 An international bestseller this highly acclaimed debut novel by an award winning young writer portrays in stark lyrical prose a young girl's search for love in the aftermath of her parents divorce The Pollen Room Zoë Jenny, 2000 The Aerologist, 1929 The Davis Ranch Site Rex E. Gerald, 2019-04-30 In this new volume the results of Rex E. Gerald's 1957 excavations at the Davis Ranch Site in southeastern Arizona's San Pedro River Valley are reported in their entirety for the first time Annotations to Gerald's original manuscript in the archives of the Amerind Museum and newly written material place Gerald's work in the context of what is currently known regarding the late thirteenth century Kayenta diaspora and the relationship between Kayenta immigrants and the Salado phenomenon Data presented by Gerald and other contributors identify the site as having been inhabited by people from the Kayenta region of northeastern Arizona and southeastern Utah The results of Gerald's excavations and Archaeology Southwest's San Pedro Preservation Project 1990-2001 indicate that the people of the Davis Ranch Site were part of a network of dispersed immigrant enclaves responsible for the origin and spread of Roosevelt Red Ware pottery the key material marker of the Salado phenomenon A companion volume to Charles Di Peso's 1958 publication on the nearby Reeve Ruin archaeologists working in the U.S. Southwest and other researchers interested in ancient population movements and their consequences will consider this work an essential case study The Pinenut Site Deborah Westfall, 1987 Bandelier Lyndi Hubbell, Diane Traylor, 1982 Archeological Investigations at Antelope House Don P. Morris, 1986 Publications in Archeology, 1985 The Literary Digest, 1929 Digest; Review of Reviews Incorporating Literary Digest, 1929 The Chora of Metaponto 5 Elisa Lanza Catti, Keith Swift, 2014-08-15 The fifth volume in the Institute of Classical Archaeology's series on rural settlements in the countryside chora of Metaponto presents the excavation of a Greek farmhouse illuminating the lifeways of fourth century BC farmers of modest means Environment and Subsistence of Chaco Canyon, New Mexico, 1986 Medical Journal and Record, 1926 Agriculture Handbook, 1997 Set includes revised editions of some issues Bulletin Chicago (Ill.). Dept. of Health. School of Sanitary Instruction, 1929 Digest, 1923 Ancient Communities in the Mimbres Valley Roger Anyon, Steven A. LeBlanc, 2024-04-09 In the Mimbres Valley of southwestern New Mexico archaeologists have been working for decades to meticulously excavate archaeological sites Expanding beyond studies that focus on a single pueblo this volume represents the final report on the excavations of the Mimbres Foundation It brings together data from a range of pithouse and pueblo sites of different sizes and histories in diverse locations to refine the current understandings of Mimbres region archaeology in the context of the Greater Southwest From the end of the Late Pithouse period through the Black Mountain phase the book provides excellent documentation of the artifacts and data recovered from the sites addresses models of Mimbres community and tracks change and continuity in the valley over centuries In addition the authors consider the nature of the relationship between the Classic Mimbres period population of the valley and the people of the succeeding Black Mountain phase as well as relationships among the Black Mountain phase people and those of neighboring parts of the region including the Casas Grandes world and the Jornada Mogollon area In Ancient Communities in the Mimbres Valley two leading archaeologists bring together a trove of unpublished investigations expanding understandings and setting a course for the future Excavation of Two Anasazi Sites in Southern Utah, 1981 The two reports published here contain elements which contribute substantially to this broader spectrum of Southwestern cultural change While primarily descriptive in nature these two site reports one from the western Kayenta area and one from the margin of the Mesa Verde area and the eastern Kayenta suggest that the changes which occurred in the more centralized portions of these regions were directly related to what happened on the margins That while the site densities and population aggregates may not have been as high the same factors affected these marginal areas That conclusion could be expected but what may not be expected is the differential response which appears to have occurred After reading these two reports it appears that it may be possible to discern elements of change in these fringe areas that once defined will provide new insight into what happened and why and in what are presently the better known areas of the Southwest These two papers are important in sum not only because they are reports of work in poorly known areas but because they do provide analyses of fringe areas they help us to understand the Southwest generally From preliminary introduction Loblolly Pine Robert P. Schultz, 1997 Broken K Pueblo James N. Hill, 2022-06-07 This report presents an analysis of a prehistoric Pueblo community in structural functional and evolutionary terms it is a sequel to William A Longacre s Archaeology as Anthropology The emphasis is on social organization including the patterning of community activities and on understanding changes in this organization in terms of adaptive responses to a shifting environment
