Hawker, 2017-02-09 Excerpt from The Poor Man's Morning and Evening Portions Being a Selection of a Verse of Scripture With Short Observations for Every Day in the Year It was thus holy men of old walked with God They communed with the Lord and the Lord with them through the medium of his word They made known their wants and the Lord made known his grace Prayers went up and answers came down and he made all his goodness to pass before them In a more special manner they considered all the promises as their own And they accepted of them as given of the Lord with this express design as if the Lord pledged himself by them to his people that they might bring them before the mercy seat whenever they needed and plead for payment Hence they kept house feasted and lived joy fully upon them when they had nothing else to live upon And from this cause it was that after a succession of many generations from father to son they could and did appeal to the uninterrupted experience of every preceding history and left it upon record for the assurance and comfort of all that should come after that Not one thing had failed of all the good things which the Lord had promised but all was come to pass as it is this day About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      The Poor Man's Evening Portion Robert Hawker, 2018-01-20 Excerpt from The Poor

The Poor Man's Morning and Evening Portions Robert Hawker, 2018-12-18 These daily meditations on Christian belief take the form of Bible quotations and discussions one for the morning and one for the evening of each day A great companion for ordinary believers throughout the year this book s intention is to offer spiritual guidance and comfort to followers of God who count among the laboring poor In the 19th century tough physical labor performed under grueling conditions was common the long hours demanded by such toil meant that many Christians though genuine of faith simply lacked the time for spiritual contemplation It is for these neglected faithful that Robert Hawker created this book Each morning and evening portion contains between 150 and 600 words the size of a newspaper article or bulletin The lessons and thought offered are to the point teaching about a given Bible phrase psalm or proverb Every nugget of spiritual wisdom is prefaced with a Biblical quotation that directly pertains to the author s explanations and instruction Robert Hawker was a minister in Plymouth England in the late 18th and early 19th centuries His public preaching and writings made him one of the best known and appreciated men of God in his region and he was among the first churchmen to advance the notion of Sunday School The plight of the local poor saw Hawker engage in many causes overseeing funds to support locals who were hungry or destitute as well as women who had fallen into vice
