The Post-Boom in Spanish American Fiction Donald Leslie Shaw, 1998-01-01 Provides a clear account of the issues in Spanish American fiction in the last quarter century by attempting to answer questions on the Boom Post Boom and its relation to Postmodernism The Post-boom in Spanish American Fiction Donald L. Shaw, 1995 The Post-Boom in Spanish American Fiction Donald L. Shaw, 1998-07-10 Provides a clear account of the issues in Spanish American fiction in the last quarter century by attempting to answer questions on the Boom Post Boom and its relation to Postmodernism

Special Issue on the Post-boom in Spanish American Fiction, 1995 Special Issue on the Post-boom in Spanish American Fiction, 1995 A Companion to Modern Spanish American Fiction Donald Leslie Shaw, 2002 With such figures as Jorge Luis Borges Miguel ngel Asturias and Gabriel Garc a M rquez both the latter Nobel Prizewinners Spanish American fiction is now unquestionably an integral part of the mainstream of Western literature This book draws on the most recent research in describing the origins and development of narrative in Spanish America during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries tracing the pattern from Romanticism and Realism through Modernismo Naturalism and Regionalism to the Boom and beyond It shows how while seldom moving completely away from satire social criticism and protest Spanish American fiction has evolved through successive phases in which both the conceptions of the writer s task and presumptions about narrative and reality have undergone radical alterations DONALD SHAW holds the Brown Forman Chair of Spanish American literature in the University of Virginia Angeles Mastretta Jane Elizabeth Lavery, 2005 The first major study on the works of the Mexican novelist Angeles Mastretta demonstrating the rich complexity and range of the author s fiction and essays The Mexican novelist Angeles Mastretta b 1949 has only recently received serious critical attention largely because her work has been seen as popular and therefore inappropriate for academic study This first major work to be published on Mastretta seeks to demonstrate the rich complexity and range of the author s fiction and essays In the tradition of Post Boom Latin American women s writing Mastretta s texts are motivated by a desire to speak primarily of the silenced experiences and voices of women Two of her novels referential and testimonial in style can be placed within the Mexican Revolutionary Novel tradition and explore the Revolutionary period and its consequences in the light of female experiences and perspectives The hitherto unexplored themes of female sexuality and bodily erotics in Mastretta s texts are also considered in this volume Her feminist works avoid facile simplifications heterogeneous and dialogical they interweave the historical and the fictional the everyday and the fantastic The originality of Mastretta s writing lies in its elusive postmodern ambiguities shimmering surfaces are often interrupted by unexpected depths and proliferating meanings cannot be fully circumscribed by critical analysis Jane Elizabeth Lavery lectures in Latin American Studies at the University of Kent A Companion to Latin American Literature Stephen M. Hart, 2007 The evolution of Latin American literature A Companion to Latin American Literature offers a lively and informative introduction to the most significant literary works produced in Latin America from the fifteenth century until the present day It shows how the press and its product the printed word functioned as the common denominator binding together in different ways over time the complex and variable relationship between the writer the reader and the state The meandering story of the evolution of Latin American literature from the letters of discovery written by Christopher Columbus and Vaz de Caminha via the Republican era at the end of the nineteenth century when writers in Rio de Janeiro as much as in Buenos Aires were beginning to live off their pens as journalists and serial novelists until the 1960s when writers of the quality of Clarice Lispector in Brazil and Garc a M rquez in Colombia suddenly burst onto the world stage is traced chronologically in six chapters which introduce the main writers in the main genres of poetry prose the novel drama and the essay A final chapter evaluates the post boom novel testimonio Latino and Brazyuca literature gay Afro Hispanic and Afro Brazilian literature along with the Novel of the New Millennium This study also offers suggestions for further reading

Investigating Identities ,2009-01-01 Investigating Identities Questions of Identity in Contemporary International Crime Fiction is one of the relatively few books to date which adopts a comparative approach to the study of the genre This collection of twenty essays by international scholars examining crime fiction production from over a dozen countries confirms that a comparative approach can both shed light on processes of adaptation and appropriation of the genre within specific national regional or local contexts and also uncover similarities between the works of authors from very different areas Contributors explore discourse concerning national and historical memory language race ethnicity culture and gender and examine how identity is affirmed and challenged in the crime genre today They reveal a growing tendency towards hybridization and postmodern experimentation and increasing engagement with philosophical enquiry into the epistemological dimensions of investigation Throughout the notion of stable identities is subject to scrutiny While each essay in itself is a valuable addition to existing criticism on the genre all the chapters mutually inform and complement each other in fascinating and often unexpected ways This volume makes an important contribution to the growing field of crime fiction studies and to ongoing debates on questions of identity It will therefore be of special interest to students and scholars of the crime genre identity studies and comparative literature It will also appeal to all who enjoy reading contemporary crime fiction
