Peeling back the layers to reveal the gritty truth about the elite climbing world is Greg Child s specialty With clever wit sharp observations and insightful reflections Postcards from the Ledge covers the full spectrum of the mountaineering experience Entertaining even to those who have never been above sea level Child s stories reveal climbing s other face The Heart of Tibet Dalai Lama XIV Bstan-'dzin-rgya-mtsho,2007 This book offers a collection of magnificent photographs depicting Tibet its breathtaking landscape the grandeur and sanctity of its monasteries and the lives of the people engaged in different economic activities interwoven with lucidly written short explanatory texts on Buddhist ideals and the Tibetans treading on the path of Buddhism The book consists of two sections the first a collection of the teachings of His Holiness the fourteenth Dalai Lama which reflects on the happiness of the human mind and the spiritual uplift of mankind The second elaborates on the way of life in Tibet throwing light on economic and social aspects particularly the part played by religion The Afterlives of Monuments Deborah Cherry,2015-09-07 South Asia is famous for its monuments past and present Monuments have been created destroyed and rescued by competing communities and incoming empires in the making and re making of history identity and memory This collection brings together an international cohort of senior scholars and younger researchers to examine the vast diversity of monuments and conceptions of monuments in South Asia from the 1850s to the present The chapters investigate what constitutes a monument and interrogate the conditions for its survival demise or recycling To explore the afterlives of monuments is to investigate how where when and why monuments have been remodelled re sited destroyed defaced or abandoned It is to investigate the theories of memory history and community as well as new forms of artistic practice and global media As different South Asian communities claim a stake in the making of national religious cultural and local identities and histories the status of monuments and debates about cultural memory have become increasingly urgent This book was published as a special issue of South Asian Studies China and Tibet in the Early 18th Century Luciano Petech,1950 Tibet's Fate Warren W. Smith Jr.,2023-03-15 Tibet s Fate examines the issue of the political fate of Tibet It is told by Tibetans themselves as well as by the author from his own experiences The title is not meant to imply that the current fate of Tibet is an ultimate destiny or even that Tibet s fate is already decided It is only meant in the sense that if Tibet s fate is now determined it has been determined not by the Tibetan people but by those of China If it is to be determined by China then Tibet s fate is indeed to be an integral part of China However if Tibet s fate were to be decided by the Tibetan people if they were allowed their right to national self determination then it would definitely be different Given all the criteria for independent statehood territory culture language religion and government Tibet surely should be an independent state Tibetan territory defined by altitude was the very nearly exclusively habitation of people who identified themselves as Tibetans Those people share a distinct culture language and religion They had a central government that directly administered the territory of Central Tibet and indirectly that of Kham and Amdo Had Tibetans been allowed to determine for themselves their political status that is if they had the right to self determination as specified in the most fundamental documents of international law there is no doubt that they would have chosen independence Whatever the flaws of the Tibetan social and political systems Tibet should have had the right to determine its own fate and could have done so until deprived of that right by China The book also examines the sensitive question of the nature of the Tibetan political system and its role in the fate that has befallen Tibet The author concludes that the Tibetan political system of Chosi Shungdrel or the unity of religion and politics is implicated in the failure of Tibet to maintain its independence Tibet

The Hidden Revelation Morson Livingston, 2015-07-10 This book The Hidden Revelation started out because of my search for knowledge and my in depth studies of various religions I realized that we are more alike than we are different through that search I realized that the major religions of the world have more similarities than differences yet we think we are so different from each other Various parts of the world practices various religions and spiritual teachings and at the core the very message some traditions and some practices are one and the same Then why do we fight in the name of religion Why do we kill in the name of religion Why do we look down at some look up at some and don't look at some at all Why do we discriminate and think we are better The basis for this book though not all encompassing seeks to highlight how the undertone of religions in the world are the same How at the core we are all seeking the same things in life which is peace love harmony contentment happiness and a connection to a power bigger than and greater than anyone of us This book shows how no matter what religion we belong too yes there are differences but the similarities far outweighs them So the question arises again Why do we fight why do we hate If we are all so alike we should be living in harmony we should be at peace we should be happy the beauty is we can all have that We just need to put our minor differences aside and connect at a heart level at a spiritual level and see God in each other Read the book and you would journey into a world where it is somewhat of a Utopia but we need that in order to see the big picture and to understand love in the Universe The settings used to describe various religions and practices also takes you on a travel and you get to picture parts of the world you may have on your bucket list Even some world class travelers who have visited some of these places might also be able to see it from another perspective If anything at all you would find at least one nugget to help improve your life and your perspective Spread love and unity

The Museum on the Roof of the World Clare E. Harris, 2012-10-30 For millions of people around the world Tibet is a domain of undisturbed tradition the Dalai Lama a spiritual guide By contrast the Tibet Museum opened in Lhasa by the Chinese in 1999 was designed to reclassify Tibetan objects as cultural relics and the Dalai Lama as obsolete Suggesting that both these views are suspect Clare E Harris argues in The Museum on the Roof of the World that for the past one hundred and fifty years British and Chinese collectors and curators have tried to convert Tibet itself into a museum an image some Tibetans have begun to contest This book is a powerful account of the museums created by for or on behalf of Tibetans and the nationalist agendas that have played out in them Harris begins with the British public's first encounter with Tibetan culture in 1854 She then examines the role of imperial collectors and photographers in representations of the region and visits competing museums of Tibet in India and Lhasa Drawing on fieldwork in Tibetan communities she also documents the activities of contemporary Tibetan artists as they try to displace the utopian visions of their country prevalent in the West as well as the negative assessments of their heritage common in China Illustrated with many previously unpublished images this book addresses the pressing question of who has the right to represent Tibet in museums and beyond

A Buddhist Pilgrim at the Shrines of Tibet Gombozhav T Tsybikov,2017-02-13 Tsybikov was the first scholar with a European education to visit Tibet and describe its monasteries and temples as an eyewitness traveler and an objective researcher Tsybikov had two distinct advantages an ethnic Buryat he could travel as a Buddhist pilgrim and thus have a chance of reaching its mysterious capital Lhasa the religious and political center of Tibet which was barred to outsiders especially Europeans as a scholar educated at a European university he had the historical and linguistic background to understand and describe what he saw Tsybikov understood the secretive nature of the lama state and was careful to hide his work as a researcher It was his journal that became the basis of A Buddhist Pilgrim at the Shrines of Tibet which has both the vividness of a traveller s eyewitness account and the informed detachment of a scholar As a record of both religious practices and the everyday life in Tibet before Chinese inroads during the twentieth century effaced that way of life Tsybikov s book is a unique and invaluable snapshot of a lost culture
